EPISTLE & THEME OF THE MONTH OF DECEMBER 2018

Pastor (Dr.) Sebastien-Caleb Kema Kema

Ocome, let us sing to the Lord; let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation! Let us come before His presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise! For the Lord is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In His hand are the deep places of the earth; the heights and strength of the hills are His also. The sea is His, for He made it; and His hands formed the dry land. O come, let us worship and bow down, let us kneel before the Lord our Maker [in reverent praise and supplication]. For He is our God and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand... (Psa. 95:1-7).

Glory to our God, the One who is the Beginning and the End, for ushering us into the first day of the last month of the year 2018. Hallelujah! Thanks be to God who has given us victory. We believe God's Word which is written: "He who began a good work in you shall take it to completion" (Phil. 1:6). God who began with us in 2018 has ushered us into the last month of the year and will also usher us into the beginning of next year. God never fails. He will not fail this time. Hallelujah! Welcome to DECEMBER 2018!

December is the last month of the year. According to scriptures, Finishing is better than starting. Patience is better than pride (Eccl. 7:8 NLT). May the truth of this scripture manifest in our lives this month, in the name of Jesus. As we end this year, may we be better people than when we started the year, in the name of Jesus Christ: We shall finish the year better than we began it; better than all the other months of the year. God will speedily hasten the manifestation of the prophetic Word in our lives, in the name of Jesus Christ.

Again from scripture, we read in the Book of Habakkuk the following words: For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry (Hab. 2:3). Every vision speaks expressly at the end, according to scripture. We understand that scriptures cannot be broken (John 10:35). Therefore, this scripture shall manifest in your life and my life, this month, in the name of Jesus. Every of your expectation that has not been fulfilled will find fulfillment this month, in the name of Jesus. AT THE END, IT SHALL SPEAK.

December is the TWELVETH MONTH in the year. The number 12, among other things is the number of GOVERNMENTAL RULE and AUTHORITY. This month is therefore declared our month of Authority. As we have called it, so shall it be. Remember that whatever Adam named the animals, so were they known (Gen. 2:19). Whatever we have called this month prophetically will manifest in your life and my life, in the name of Jesus Christ. As we exercise our authority in Christ as rooted in the Word, we shall rule and reign in Christ over all circumstances and situations contrary to scriptures in our lives. This month, by your authority in Christ Jesus, as you say it, you shall see it, in the name of Jesus Christ.

2018 has been declared our year of DOMINION. With wisdom, the wisdom from God, the wisdom that is above all wisdom, we will get to the place of dominion. Nothing can stop wisdom. It was wisdom that took Joseph to the place of dominion in Egypt. It was wisdom that made Daniel relevant during the reign of three kings in Babylon. It was wisdom that elevated David. It was wisdom that distinguished Solomon. Wisdom, and wisdom alone is what will get us to the place of Dominion. Nothing stops Wisdom. So, NOTHING can therefore stop us from getting to the place of dominion.

Joy and rejoicing is part of what happens in the Kingdom of God on a daily basis. Heaven, the headquarters of the Kingdom of God is a place of constant continuous joy and rejoicing. As Kingdom citizens, we are not only COMMANDED to rejoice and be joyful, we have been EMPOWERED to do so.

Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, rejoice!
Philippians 4:4 (NKJV)

And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit,

Ephesians 5:18 (NKJV)

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
Galatians 5:22 (NKJV)

Joy is a fruit of the Spirit. We must be filled with the Spirit in order to rejoice. In other words, you cannot truly rejoice unless you are filled with the Spirit of God

Without joy, you cannot have dominion. The Spirit of God that produces joy in the life of the believer is also the Spirit of empowerment for dominion. A joyless believer is a "Dominion-less" believer. Joy is therefore essential for the manifestation of dominion. When there is joy and rejoicing, God sits on His throne of authority from here He exercises His dominion.

When God is on the throne, He is seated to exercise His authority and manifest dominion. The force of Joy and rejoicing is a powerful instrument in provoking the manifestation of dominion for the Kingdom child.

1 Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples! SHOUT TO GOD WITH THE VOICE OF TRIUMPH! 2 For the LORD Most High is awesome; He is a great King over all the earth. 3 He will subdue the peoples under us, And the nations under our feet [THIS IS DOMINION]. 4 He will choose our inheritance for us, The excellence of Jacob whom He loves. Selah 5 GOD HAS GONE UP WITH A SHOUT, The LORD with the sound of a trumpet. 6 Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing praises! 7 For God is the King of all the earth; Sing praises with understanding. 8 God reigns over the nations; God sits on His holy throne. 9 The princes of the people have gathered together, The people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God; He is greatly exalted.

Psalms 47:1-9 NKJV

Whenever the atmosphere is one of joy and rejoicing in spite of, Uncommon Dominion is the result.

The Prophetic Focus for this month is:

JOY & REJOICING

Psalms 47:1-9/Phil. 4:4/Psa. 66:1; 81:1; 95:1; 98:4; 100:1

Understanding the Force of Joy and Rejoicing for the Manifestation of Dominion

In the entirety of this month of December, we are going to understand from scriptures how to exercise dominion using the force of Joy and Rejoicing. From scriptures, we will learn:

What Joy is (Understanding Joy and its fundamentals).

- The Source of Joy
- The different Dimensions of Joy.
- What it means to rejoice
- What a joyful noise is
- How to make a joyful noise
- The results of making a joyful noise unto God

All through this month, we are going to understand from scripture how THE FORCE OF JOY AND REJOICING, can be used to enforce the Dominion Mandate given to us by God from the very beginning.

My prayer for all of us is that by the end of the month, as we prepare ourselves to be ushered into the year 2019, unspeakable joy will be a part of you and dominating in every sphere of life God has called you into will be very easy because of your understanding and my understanding of the Word.

May your time and my time in God's presence all through this month be a profitable one, in the name of Jesus Christ!

Kingdom Dominion greetings to you.

Jesus is Lord!

GOD'S WONDERFUL WORKS IN OUR MIDST

Oh, that men would praise [and confess to] the Lord for His goodness and loving-kindness and His wonderful works to the children of men! For He has broken the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron apart.

Psalm 107:15-16 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition (AMPC)

God has been faithful and is still faithful to us here at the ECDOC Family, including our partners and friends worldwide since the year began. He started the year with us and is ending the year with us, and will usher us into the New Year.

It is always good to take stock of what God has done, remembering His faithfulness and His works in our midst. All through this year, God has done great and mighty things in our lives and we want to use this opportunity to publicly thank and praise the Lord, our God for the many testimonies in our midst throughout the year.

From the very beginning of the year, God worked in the lives of Sister Lily Boshey as she testified of her enhanced understanding of scriptures and her commitment to walk with God since she joined ECDOC. Sister Nikki testified of how God used the teaching platform of ECDOC to give her and enhanced understanding of tithing and also God's healing hand upon her life.

Sister Agnes testified of how she came to understand and receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit after a teaching session. She calls ECDOC a green pasture indeed for her. Sister Sylvie testified of how God healed the mother of cancer of the lungs through prayers from the ECDOC platform and how God healed her of bronchitis through prayers. Sister Sylvie also testified how she was discharged from hospital after being admitted few days after her wedding through the prophetic word.

Sister Nikki testified how she keyed into a testimony by Sister Pricilia on how God favored her and gave her a salary raise and she also experienced the same. Sister Henrietta testified of how God intervened in the last minute when her visa was about expiring to give a visa unlike it has ever happened in China. God also intervened in the last minute to relocate the Kema's family into a new city with visas issued when it was just few weeks to the expiration of the visas. In line with visa issues, Mammy Frida also testified how through intensive prayers, God intervened and gave her a two year visa in China, even after her visa and passport had long expired. She also testified how Jesus radically changed her life and turned all her worries around.

Sister Vivian testified how her obedience to the voice of God brought reconciliation between her and the pastor's family and also how God brought her back into the family where she belongs. Our sister in the Lord, Christi Ewanga testified how God through scriptures brought about a paradigm shift in her understanding of scriptures and her growth in God. Sister Ndem also testified of how a word from Sister Agnes in their talk brought faith in her and she has never experienced menstrual cramps which were a normal occurrence to her.

Pastor Kema Testified how in obedience to God, took communion on a daily basis and high blood pressure that he was diagnosed of died a natural death. He also testified how in obedience to prophetic declaration from Bishop David Oyedepo, with the application of the anointing oil, he was healed from a disgraceful itching of the left side of his body.

All in all, God has been faithful and will forever be faithful.

Father, we thank You and we Praise you for your wonderful works in our lives here at ECDOC and in the lives of our partners and friends worldwide.

To you alone, we give all the GLORY!

ADMITTING YOUR SINS AND ASKING HELP FROM GOD

Agnes N. Kema

40 "But maybe the people will confess their sins. And maybe they will confess the sins of their ancestors. Maybe they will admit that they turned against me. Maybe they will admit that they sinned against me. 41 Maybe they will admit that I turned against them and brought them into the land of their enemies. These people will be like strangers to me. But maybe they will become humble and accept the punishment for their sin. 42 If they do, I will remember my agreement with Jacob. I will remember my agreement with Isaac. I will remember my agreement with Abraham, and I will remember the land. 43 "The land will be empty. The land will enjoy its time of rest. Then the survivors will accept the punishment for their sins. They will learn that they were punished because they hated my laws and refused to obey my rules. 44 They have sinned. But if they come to me for help, I will not turn away from them. I will listen to them, even if they are in the land of their enemies. I will not completely destroy them. I will not break my agreement with them, because I am the Lord their God. Leviticus 26:40-44 (ERV)

In this era of grace, many have gone far away from God, thinking they are still with God. Many do not seem to think that admitting their sins, and then asking God for help is necessary.

The above scriptures is talking about how God always hopes that we would acknowledge our sins and ask Him for help, then He will give us the help. You may ask, "how do I know I have gone too far and need God's help?"

First as a child of God, before you do anything, you need to consult the Word of God. There are clear instructions on what to do and what not to do in His Word. Follow the instructions and you will not be asking special help from God again, because you have obeyed His instructions and He is always with you.

But when we fail to look in to His words for guidance, we are sure to drift away from the path He puts us in and things will definitely turn against us.

Sometimes we may think that we were following His instructions, while we were just carried away by our emotions and earthly desires. The above verses of scripture say the following:

- You need to realize that you have gone away from God or you have
- disobeyed Him.
- You need to acknowledge that things are not going right because
- God is not there.
- You need to acknowledge that what is happening to you is the con
- sequence of your disobedience.
- You need to acknowledge that you have sinned and confess the sin

- and repent from it.
- Then God will give you the help you need.

1 John 1:9 says, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." Many of us turn to asking only questions that will kindle God's wrath the more, as try to prove ourselves righteous, rather than humble ourselves to the faithful God to do the cleansing and draw us back to Himself.

You may also ask, but what are the things one can do that will warrant punishment? The following scripture outlines some of them, you know the rest yourself: "Or do you not know that wrongdoers will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived: Neither the sexually immoral nor idolaters nor adulterers nor men who have sex with men nor thieves nor the greedy nor drunkards nor slanderers nor swindlers will inherit the kingdom of God." (1 Cor. 6:9-10 NIV).

I pray for you as I pray for myself that we will always acknowledge our sins, confess and repent from them, and ask God for help, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen!

RAISING AN ALTAR OF WORSHIP

Pastor Crystabelle Ferim

In this festive season where everyone rejoices for the birth of Jesus, I will love to encourage us to keep this going for the rest of the upcoming year and even years, by building an altar of worship.

An altar is a platform setup, where we can meet the Lord. Simply put, an altar is a place of meeting. We offer sacrifices of worship on altars built for God alone.

Altars were used in the past to offer sacrifices unto God. The priests of old would offer sacrifices on behalf of the people at certain seasons to appease God or implore His presence. Today we can also raise altars unto God as a sign or allegiance and a meeting point for worship.

1 Corinthians 9:13 says "Do you know that those who perform sacred services eat the food of the temple, and those who attend regularly to the altar have their share from the altar?" When you build an altar of worship unto God, you eat from it. God blesses you in it. Remember anything given to God, is overshadowed by God's glory.

To build an altar of worship, we must make our worship a daily routine. We should stand blameless before the King. Do not present your gift to God in anger or hatred. See Matthew 5:23-24.

Raising an altar of worship is intentional. You purpose in your heart that you will worship daily and flee any appearance of evil. Worship cannot be mixed with unholiness. Our meeting place with God needs to be acceptable. See Romans 12:1. Once you raise that altar, that meeting place with God, you can always return to it with a sacrifice of worship. You can always connect, no matter where you are.

Thus is not a physical altar, but a spiritual atmosphere you create around you, with no sin, no works of the flesh, where Jesus is overall and leads the way. A place of rest, where you meet with your King undisturbed.

God is looking for saints who will build such an atmosphere around them, so He can download heavenly mysteries to them.

As you celebrate the Savior's birth, remember to tell someone about the reason for His coming John 3:16. Also encourage others to raise an altar of worship as you have done.

Merry Christmas!

PASTOR, YOUR PAIN, JESUS FEELS IT, KEEP UP!

to PASTORS:
Encouraging You

Pastor Trus Nyowikeh

The pastor, sometimes is like a place where garbage is being dumped! Most of these garbage have the capacity to deviate the pastor's attention. It starts by breaking his spirit through discouragement, disappointment, frustration, financial challenges, and outright wickedness against him. This weighs him, drains him, gradually making him ineffective, then the devil gradually start taking over and depositing evil in his mind that gradually get into his heart and if he doesn't stop them, evil actions follow!

Remember, the call and responsibility of a pastor are stated here: "And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: (Eph. 4:11-13).

The passage above is clear as concerns the call and responsibility of the pastor! For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ.

The pastor as a perfecter of the saints witnesses a lot of challenges. Given that he ministers to every class of people; the illiterates, the literates, the poor, the rich, the weak, the strong, the good, the bad, the ugly, etc.! These groups of people pose a huge problem to the pastor, first in his attempt to reach out to them without discrimination!

The pastor spends countless hours of studying, preparing sermons and praying for himself and the congregation he pastors. Most often, he doesn't even have time for his family and himself because of the people! These are enough to weigh him down and drain him.

The pastor's problems become confounded when he's trying to fend for himself, and his family while struggling with ministry at the same time. He works extra jobs to raise money for his children's school fees and other needs as well as taking care of his wife and himself! He's always working out himself to make ends meet!

The pastor is the person most congregants run to when they're in trouble. There are people the pastor counsels against marrying their choices, giving honest reasons, yet they will ignore his counsel and get married! But when trouble strikes, the pastor is the first person they run to. There're occasions the pastor will be spending time resolving people's problems while his own family is tearing apart, sometimes even without his knowledge!

The Ungratefulness of most believers has contributed to the pains of the pastor! He is often the first to be contacted by people when trouble comes! But is hardly remembered when bliss comes!

I know of pastors who have died because of pressure! Preachers are often put under pressure that sometimes breakdown their health and slowly kills them. Preachers have been put under pressure to do unbiblical things, they wouldn't normally do. Pressure has sent most pastors out of ministry!

I can go on and on! But, I'm here to remind you dear pastor, that JESUS FEELS IT. Yes, He feels every bit of it!

For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Hebrews 4:15-16 KJV

Verse 15 is as clear as the air we breathe! Jesus feels every bit of what you go through pastor. Jesus is concerned! Very concerned! He's been where you're! He went through worst situations like yours!

Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other. Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him. But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

Matthew 12:13-15 KJV

Pastor, you can see clearly that men who ought to have helped Jesus accomplished His purpose where those who plotted to kill Him, on account of a good deed; healing someone! Jesus going through this is enough for Him to feel what you are going through!

See another:

Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days. And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

Matthew 26:59-63 KJV

For doing all the good on earth, this is what He received as payment! He had to feel what you feel and go through dear pastor! He really does!

Pastor, I can go on and on pointing from scriptures what Jesus went through and to prove that He feels your pain and that He's deeply concerned about it, but let me limit without the above!

Pastor, when next you're hurt either by man, the devil or circumstances, say like Paul would say to Timothy;

If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness. For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptation. For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

KJV 1 Timothy 4:6-16 KJV

It is God's design that such pastors should be freed from unnecessary anxiety, that they may have full opportunity to obey the injunction of Paul to Timothy, "Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them." 1 Timothy 4:15. While they should be careful to exercise sufficiently to keep mind and body vigorous, yet it is not God's plan that they should be compelled to spend a large part of their time at secular employment.

The Humble Dependence of Timothy—In the history of Timothy are found precious lessons. He was a mere lad when chosen by God as a teacher; but so fixed were his principles by a correct education that he was fitted for this important position. He bore his responsibilities with Christlike meekness. He was faithful, steadfast, and true, and Paul selected him to be his companion in labor and travel. Lest Timothy should meet with slights because of his youthfulness, Paul wrote to him, "Let no man despise thy youth." He could safely do this, because Timothy was not self-sufficient, but continually sought guidance.

If as a pastor, you are a youth, be reminded that God is willing to use the youth today as He used Timothy, if they will submit to His guidance. It is your privilege to be God's missionaries. He calls upon you to work for your companions. Seek out those you know to be in danger, and in the love of Christ try to help them. How are they to know the Savior unless they see His virtues in His followers?

The highest aim of our youth should not be to strain after something novel. There was none of this in the mind and work of Timothy. They should bear in mind that, in the hands of the enemy of all good, knowledge alone may be a power to destroy them. It was a very intellectual being, one who occupied a high position among the angelic throng, that finally became a rebel; and many a mind of superior intellectual attainments is now being led captive by his power.

I'm therefore challenging you dear pastor to stand firm! Don't give up on your work irrespective of the challenges and persecutions! Put your eyes fixed on the ball! Don't look neither left nor right! Keep your focus! Don't allow the devil to use men and get the best of you! Keep on keeping on! JESUS GOT YOUR BACK!

(1 Peter 1:13/ John 1:12)

According to scriptures, I am A NEW CREATION IN CHRIST. I have been translated from the kingdom of darkness to the Kingdom of light. I am now the light of the world, reflecting the greater Light of the World, Jesus Christ. I am seated together with Christ in heavenly places, far above principalities and powers and spiritual wickedness in high places. In this position, as light, every darkness submits to my orders in Christ. As an authority in Christ Jesus, nothing anti scripture can manifest in my life, and the lives of my loved ones, all through this month and beyond, in the name of Jesus Christ..

(2 Corinthians 5:17/Colossians 1:13/Ephesians 2:6/ Ephesians 1:21)

The month of December is the month of AUTHORITY for the ECDOC (Eden China Devotion Online Church) Family. As we exercise our authority in Christ as rooted in the Word, we shall rule and reign in Christ over all circumstances and situations contrary to scriptures in our lives. This month, by our authority in Christ Jesus, as we believe it and say it, we shall see it, in the name of Jesus Christ.

(Luke 10:19/Mark 11:20-24/2 Corinthians 4:13)

Father, thank You in advance for hearing and answering ALL the prayers I will pray all through this month of EXPERIENCING NEW THINGS, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen!

RULE YOUR SPIRIT FIRST

He who is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he who ruleth his spirit than he who taketh a city.

Proverbs 16:32

and heroism in self-control than in great deeds which others acclaim in song and story, how different our world would be.

The Cambridge Dictionary defines self-control as the ability to control one's emotions and actions. Yet we live in a world today where people are out of control. Peoples' impulses control them rather than them controlling their impulses. But the will of God for His children is for us to get our impulses under control.

A lot of us children of God are church addicts. We're in the Church for Bible studies, prayer meetings, and all kinds of committee meetings. Many are great preachers and so on. But the truth is, if we succeed in every area of our lives, that is, we've got great wealth, the best shape, we are successful, financially stable, respected everywhere we go, and yet are slaves to our own passions, then we aren't wise.

Under God's wisdom and strength, to rule one's own spirit (self-control) is a greater accomplishment than to conquer a city. Some who can conquer cities should first be concerned with conquering self. Many of us are living our lives like it is golden but we are actually not grounded. So when we get pressed or when someone treats us the wrong way, that's when our real nature comes out.

Moses, the great servant of God failed entering the Promised Land because of anger. But in Genesis 39:6-12, we see one who modelled self-control so wonderfully: Joseph. At the time when there was no one else in the house apart from himself and Potiphar's wife, he chose to flee for his life rather than succumb to her advances and thereby sin against God.

Dear reader, we can't be everything God wants us to be if we don't intentionally bring our impulses under control. As mentioned in our key scripture, God prefers that we be rulers of our spirits than rulers of cities.

PRAYER

Dear Lord, thank You for Your word. Give me the spirit of Joseph so that I can make the right choices, in Jesus' name.

Lily Boshey.

With WHOM should You Do Business as a Christian (Business Partnership)

Pastor Kema Kema

We have in this series so far looked at the following sub-topics in this series

1. You have a CALLING as a Christian to DO BUSINESS.
2. WHAT is Business?
3. What are THE GOALS of Doing Business as a Christian?
4. What is FOUNDATION for a Christian Business?
5. HOW to DO Business as a Christian

For the records, our foundation scripture in this study is: Luke 19:13-17 and it reads:

13 So he called ten of his servants, delivered to them ten minas, and said to them, 'DO BUSINESS TILL I COME.' ... 15 "And so it was that when he returned, having received the kingdom, he then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know how much every man HAD GAINED BY TRADING. 16 Then came the first, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned ten minas.' 17 And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant; because you were faithful in a very little, have authority over ten cities.' 18 And the second came, saying, 'Master, your mina has earned five minas.' 19 Likewise he said to him, 'You also be over five cities.' 20 "Then another came, saying, 'Master, here is your mina, which I have kept put away in a handkerchief. 21 For I feared you, because you are an austere man. You collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.' 22 And he said to him, 'Out of your own mouth I will judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I was an austere man, collecting what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow. 23 Why then did you not put my money in the bank, that at my coming I might have COLLECTED IT WITH INTEREST?' 24 "And he said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina from him, and give it to him who has ten minas.' 25 (But they said to him, 'Master, he has ten minas.') 26 'For I say to you, that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. 27 But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and slay them before me.' "

Luke 19:13-27 (NKJV)

Clearly, we are commanded to do business. But with whom should we do business? Are we to do business with just anyone? Are there scriptural injunctions with respect to business partnership for the Christian?

To answer these question, we must first of all understand that our lives and the things we do must glorify God. Let's understand upfront that when we ask the question of who should we do business with, we are not talking about those to whom our businesses will render services to, but with whom we are rendering this service. In other words, to put it plainly, WHO SHOULD BE YOUR BUSINESS PARTNER?

In my years on earth, especially when I began searching to know how business should be done, I have watched a common trend among the most flourishing business communities in our age. I have followed how the Jews and the Chinese do their businesses. I have come to the conclusion that they form business partnership most often with those of their kind. In other words, a Jew prefers to go into business partnership with a fellow Jew and the Chinese love to go into business partnership among themselves. That's why the Jewish and the Chinese business communities are the most flourishing in the world.

Christians are in the world but are not of the world. We are supposed to partner with other Christians and build mighty business empires. It is only in the Christian circles that I have observed with regret that we refuse to team up and do a flourishing business.

Scripture clearly says that we are all members of one body. Just as we should synergize and coordinate to do the business of witnessing Christ to the world, we should in like manner be one body in our circular business partnerships.

I know some may say they do not see any problem with being in business partnership with someone who does not know Christ. My question is, how does the Bible describe the one who knows Christ and the one who does not know Christ? What does the Bible say about fellowship concerning these two? Let's find out from scripture.

In the Book of Ephesians, Paul wrote to the believers: "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light (Eph.5:8 NIV). In other words, before, you were darkness, but now that you have believed in Jesus and received Him in your life, you are light. Paul also wrote, this time to the believers in Thessalonica: "You are all children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to the darkness (1 Thess. 5:5 NIV).

Light does not fellowship in darkness in any way. Scripture admonishes us instead to come out from among darkness. Bringing this in context with what we are discussing, we can say, HAVE NO BUSINESS PARTNERSHIP WITH THOSE WHO ARE IN DARKNESS.

Let's take a look at these scriptures:

For no man ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and carefully protects and cherishes it, as Christ does the church, Because we are members (parts) of His body.

Ephesians 5:29-30 (AMPC)

So we, numerous as we are, are one body in Christ (the Messiah) and individually we are parts one of another [mutually dependent on one another].

Romans 12:5 (AMPC)

Therefore, rejecting all falsity and being done now with it, let everyone express the truth with his neighbor, for we are all parts of one body and members one of another.

Ephesians 4:25 (AMPC)

For no man ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and carefully protects and cherishes it, as Christ does the church,

Ephesians 5:29 (AMPC)

Clearly, the Bible paints the picture of all Christians (Believers of Jesus Christ) as members of the same body who are parts one of another, mutually dependent on one another, to nourish and carefully protect and cherish one another. One of the ways to cherish one another is to promote one another's business, even to getting into serious business partnerships.

I believe strongly that a true believer of Jesus Christ should not get into business partnership with an unbeliever. Scripture is very clear:

Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers [do not make mismatched alliances with them or come under a different yoke with them, inconsistent with your faith]. For what partnership have right living and right standing with God with iniquity and lawlessness? Or how can light have fellowship with darkness? What harmony can there be between Christ and Belial [the devil]? Or what has a believer in common with an unbeliever? What agreement [can there be between] a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them and will walk in and with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. So, come out from among [unbelievers], and separate (sever) yourselves from them, says the Lord, and touch not [any] unclean thing; then I will receive you kindly and treat you with favor, And I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

2 Corinthians 6:14-18 (AMPC)

It is very clear. There should be no fellowship/partnership between and unbeliever and a believer. This includes business partnership. The call is to come out from such partnership if you are already in one and be separate. In other words, separate yourself from business partnerships with unbelievers and form business partnerships with believers. It is a clear call.

So, the answer to the question, with whom should a Christian partner in business is, with other Christians. Let Christians with like ideas come together and build mighty business empires. If the people of the world who do not have the mind of Christ can come together and partner in business, creating magnificent business empires, what about believers of Jesus Christ with the mind of Christ and the wisdom of God?

It is time for Christians to come out from among unbelievers, and come together with Christians and partner in businesses. God will be with us and will bless such business and take them to heights that eyes have not seen or ears heard, in the name of Jesus Christ.

WORD DECLARATION WHEN TAKING COMMUNION

John 6:48-58 New King James Version (NKJV)

I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.” The Jews therefore quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?” Then Jesus said to them, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For MY FLESH IS FOOD INDEED, AND MY BLOOD IS DRINK INDEED. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. This is the bread which came down from heaven—not as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. HE WHO EATS THIS BREAD WILL LIVE FOREVER.”

As I eat the bread from heaven through this communion, I SHALL NOT DIE BUT LIVE TO PROCLAIM THE WORKS OF GOD.

As I partake of the FLESH of Jesus through this communion, I SHALL LIVE FOREVER according to scriptures.

Life is in the blood. As I eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink His blood via this Communion, His very life surges into me.

By this Communion today, I cannot be down for any reason because partaking in the Communion raises me up.

By this Communion, I am connected to Jesus and Jesus is connected to me. His very life therefore flows in and through me. Whatever could not/cannot put Jesus down cannot put me down.

By this Communion, I am in total communion with the resurrected Christ, and IN Him who is seated in the right hand of God the Father, the position of authority, far above principalities and powers and spiritual wickedness in high places. In this far above position, I exercise authority and manifest dominion today and always in ALL areas of life.

As I feed on this Communion, I LIVE because of CHRIST WHO LIVES. Whatever cannot afflict Jesus Christ, cannot afflict me. Whatever cannot oppress/suppress/depress/molest Jesus Christ, cannot affect me; whatever cannot keep Jesus Christ down cannot keep me down because by this Communion, I am in Him and He is in Me, Hallelujah!

By this Communion, I now renew my ETERNAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICY IN CHRIST, in the name of Jesus. I can therefore not die prematurely. I will only sleep when my mission on earth as KINGDOM AMBASSADOR is over and I am called back by the King of kings and the Lord of lords.

Where there is life, there can be no death. Communion infuses life. As I take this Communion, every spirit of death hovering around my life is bound and destroyed because by this Communion, I enhance my victory over death by taking in the very life of Christ that knows no death, Hallelujah!

The Son of man was manifested to DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL. By this Communion, every work of the devil manifesting or attempting to manifest in my life is permanently destroyed, in the name of Jesus Christ.

As I partake in this Communion, I DO SO IN REMEMBRANCE of the Finished Work of Jesus on the cross. By DECLARING HIS DEATH, I therefore receive all that is in the REDEMPTION PACKAGE FOR THE SAINTS, in the name of Jesus Christ.

By this Communion, the strength of God is infused in me as every form of weakness is destroyed permanently, in the name of Jesus.

Thank You Father! Thank You Jesus! Thank You Holy Spirit!

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I come today to ask you a very important and crucial question of life. Yes, I ask you this question because many people are mistaken to think that life here on earth is the only life we have. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book, the Bible, that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity is dependent on what you do now on earth to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a very interesting conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?"

(John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus clearly tells Nicodemus that except a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God or see it. Jesus went to explain that to be born again, is to be born of water and the Spirit. From scripture, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water and the Spirit is essentially to be born by the Word of God. This is exactly what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God."

(1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the word of God? The apostle Paul gave the answer when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved."

(Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

From what Paul says, two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe that He came to save mankind from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay, which is death: the wages of sin is death. You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. Our sins were all put on him as scripture says (Isa. 53:6) and He died in our place. You must also then believe that He was buried and on the third day He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these, and confess Jesus as Lord, then, you are born again.

Born again is not the name of a church as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born again Christian. Sorry: there is nothing like born again Christian. All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and savior.

It is outright foolishness to not believe the word of God and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, I beseech you, in the name of the Lord to follow God's ways as outlined in His word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation. YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are not sure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to just get born again now. Just as we have seen above, all you need to do is believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer, sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe that You sent Jesus Christ Your Son to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried and on the third day He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I therefore confess Him as Lord and savior of my life. I am now a new creation according to scriptures. Old things are passed away. I am now born again and all things have now become new. Thank You Lord for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a new born baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get yourself into a true Bible believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Also make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Read the Bible daily because God's word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Above all, do not forsake fellowship and live a consecrated life, set apart for God. God will therefore use you as a vessel of honor, blessing mankind, and giving Him glory.

Welcome to the family of God and God bless you!
