FEBRUARY 2019

EPISTLE

Pastor (Dr.) Sebastien-Caleb Kema Kema

Sing to the LORD a new song, because he has done miracles. By his right hand and holy arm he has won the victory. The LORD has made known his power to save; he has shown the other nations his victory for his people. He has remembered his love and his loyalty to the people of Israel. All the ends of the earth have seen God's power to save. Shout with joy to the LORD, all the earth; burst into songs and make music. Make music to the LORD with harps, with harps and the sound of singing. Blow the trumpets and the sheep's horns; shout for joy to the LORD the King. Let the sea and everything in it shout; let the world and everyone in it sing. Let the rivers clap their hands; let the mountains sing together for joy. Let them sing before the LORD, because he is coming to judge the world. He will judge the world fairly; he will judge the peoples with fairness (Psa. 98:1-8 NCV).

I welcome us all to the second month of the year of our LORD, 2019. We thank God for beginning with us from the very start of this year. We thank God for the platform of Fasting and Prayers we engaged in during our 7 Days Annual Fasting and Prayers Encounter. I believe that the benefits of Fasting and Prayers as outlined in Isaiah 58 are already manifesting in our lives and will continue to speak all through the year. To God alone, be all the glory. We thank God for ushering us into the second month of the year. What we know is that, He who began with us in January, will end with us in December and ultimately usher us into the New Year 2020.

February is the SECOND MONTH of the year. From Genesis 1:6-8, when it was the SECOND DAY OF CREATION, God did the work of SEPARATING WATER FROM WATER. What does this signify? As we are ushered into the second month of the year 2019, God will begin SEPARATING US TO HIMSELF so as to shift our focus from other things that compete our attention to His person, so that we can focus on Him and His Word and as a result have good success all through the year (Joshua 1:7-8).

In Genesis 2, God did establish many things for the man He had formed so that man could live the life He had planned for him. First, God sent rain so that the seed the man plants will grow and become fruits. He then puts man in the garden that He had planted so that the man would fulfill his purpose. This garden was well provided for, with all resources. Then God gave man a helper, the woman, who will partner with him to fulfil God's purpose. This month therefore, God will plant you in your Garden where you will be provided all that you need to fulfil God's purpose for your life for this year and beyond, in the name of Jesus Christ. It is therefore our month of DIVINE PLANTING. Remember, those that are planted in the house of God shall flourish in the courts of our God (Psa. 92:13).

2019, as we know is our year of Kingdom Focus. Nothing can stop a focused person. As an eagle, focused for the catch of a prey cannot miss the target, so too, as we stay focused on the plans God has for our lives this year, nothing can stop us from fulfilling God's purpose for our lives. Focus makes you unstoppable by all the devils from the pit of hell. When you fix your eyes on the goals of your life and refuse to be distracted even by the "Good things," you will fulfil God's purpose for your life and be a blessing to mankind, giving glory to God.

One of the ways God has dealt with people in scriptures is to give them a vision that is tied to their future. The case of Abraham is a glaring example. After questioning God as to who will be heir when he passed on since he had no children, God called Abraham out and gave him a vision of his future:

⁴ Then the LORD spoke to Abram and said, "That slave will not be the one to get what you have. You will have a son who will get everything you own. ⁵ Then God led Abram outside and said, "Look at the sky. See the many stars. There are so many you cannot count them. Your family will be like that." ⁶ Abram believed the LORD, and because of this faith the Lord accepted him as one who has done what is right.

Genesis 15:4-6 Easy-to-Read Version (ERV)

Abram believed God and focused on the vision God had shown him. But along the line, he got distracted from focusing on the vision to focus on his surrounding circumstances. This ended up with Abram sleeping with Hagar and the result was Ismael. Thank God Abram got back to his senses and refocused on the promise of God. Isaac was finally born and Abraham had a son in his old age.

Whenever we focus on the vision God shows us through His Word, it is guaranteed that the vision will manifest. When we get distracted and lose focus, there is a possibility for the vision to be aborted if we fail to refocus.

This month, the PROPHETIC THEME is:

VISIONFOCUS

All through this month, we shall go before God in prayers, fasting and Wordsearch to locate the vision God has for our lives both as a Church and as individuals for the year. We do this because scripture says:

¹⁸ Where there is no vision [no redemptive revelation of God], the people perish; but he who keeps the law [of God, which includes that of man]—blessed (happy, fortunate, and enviable) is he.

Proverbs 29:18 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition (AMPC)

In the above scripture, other versions of the Bible render the word, perish, as "cast off restraint." This actually means they run wild because of no self-control. Therefore, where there is no vision, the people run wild due to lack of self control. And if you cannot control yourself, you cannot focus on the vision God gives you and you will end up falling short of being where God has ordained for you to be in life. This will not be our portion as we ask God to baptize us with the Spirit of self-control, thereby enabling us not to be distracted, but stay focused on the vision and future He has ordained for each one of us.

May we all have a great time in God's presence all through this month of February, 2019, in the name of Jesus Christ!

Kingdom FOCUS greetings to you.
Jesus is Lord!

About the writer

Atem Agnes Nwotazea KEMA is the wife of Dr. Kema Kema. She's the ordained help for Dr. Kema Kema in ministry. Her main focus in ministry is PRAYERS. She coordinates an online prayer forum known as PRAYERS WORK where daily noon prayers on various topics are made. She is passionate to see those around her grow and mature to the fullness of Christ. Together with Dr. Kema Kema, they are blessed with four children.

"None of the daughters of Israel shall be a cult prostitute, nor shall any of the sons of Israel be a cult prostitute." You shall not bring the hire of a harlot or the wages of a dog into the house of the LORD your God for any votive offering, for both of these are an abomination to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 23:17-18

This is the beginning of a New Year, a time many people make vows to God, especially financial vows. And we have been told that if you make a vow you must keep to it. Because of this pressure, many turn to forget the above scripture. We forget that even though we must fulfill our vows, it is not every offering God accepts. The NIV renders the above scripture this way: "

No Israelite man or woman is to become a shrine prostitute. You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or of a male prostitute into the house of the Lord your God to pay any vow, because the Lord your God detests them both (Deut. 23:17-18 NIV).

Do not bring earning from such places to fulfil your vows. You may be thinking we don't even go to the shrine. Night clubs, bars, streets etc., where you sell your body to get money are also shrines. You may not sleep with men or women, but the fact that you earn money because you expose your body is an abomination to the Lord and such money is not accepted. There are other shrines that people go to prostitute to get money, where they do not necessary need to sell their bodies, we will talk on that another time.

If we make a vow and we are unable to fulfill that vow, we have a redeemer who redeems us even when we give nothing to Him. He paid the price for us to come to Him, not because of what we can give Him, but because He wants us to be with Him, fellowship with Him, obey His commands and live an honest life, pleasing and acceptable to Him. When we resolve in doing that, we will be able to give as we have and it will be a good gift acceptable to Him, because only Him can provide such gift/vow. Amen.

James 1:17 says - Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above.

INTIMATE WORSHIP

Pastor Crystabelle Ferim

INTIMACY is defined as close familiarity or friendship with another. In life we have many friendships who share love and items with us, in mutual affection. The same goes for Jesus who came because God loved us so dearly.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believes in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

You cannot be intimately connected to someone you do not love to a certain level. Our love for God is what deepens our intimacy in worshiping Him.

To worship God is to love Him. To worship Him is to pay allegiance to Him. The day you gave your life to Christ, you started a journey of intimacy in which, you started learning more about Him, and what He likes and dislikes. You embarked on a journey of intimacy.

Like a couple operates in marriage, so do we with our Father God. We ensure our spouse's needs are met daily. We work hard to see to it that there is dialogue among us and that we are clear in communication.

We do not intentionally hurt our spouses or go against their wishes. Whatever they want, we do our best to accomplish. We find out what their likes and dislikes are in order to create a loving atmosphere.

When we worship the Lord, we are building an intimacy that takes us deeper into His presence. We create an unbreakable bond/seal that carries us through our Christian lives. Our intimacy with God has to be daily and intentional. Intentional meaning, planned and purposeful.

Intimate Worship is worship without distractions. It is worship that goes beyond our emotions and eats us up. Like the scripture that says, "The zeal of your house has eaten me up" (Psa. 69:9), Worship needs to consume us to a level where we are one with God.

Intimate Worship calls us to an interlocked relationship when we are before the Father: One in which there is no separation of who we are and who God is. His zeal swallows us up and we are no longer seen. God is seen.

When you walk in intimate worship, your daily life represents Jesus. When people see you, they see Jesus. You become inexistent to the world, as Jesus shines through you. He takes over your emotions, pain, plans, struggles etc., and replaces them with His presence, His perfect presence.

Intimate Worship perfects you. Find your place, before His face, daily. Find the place of intimacy with God daily. That is where He wants you to be. Start today!

HANGING TOUGH WHEN YOU'D LIKE TO HANG IT UP

[How determination can keep you going]

Charles R. Swindoll

When Jesus tells us to “seek first the kingdom of God,” the very word seek implies a strong-minded pursuit (see Matthew 6:33). J. B. Phillips paraphrases the idea with “set your heart on.”

The Amplified Bible says, “Aim at and strive after.”

The Greek text of Matthew’s gospel states a continual command: “Keep on continually seeking.” The dominating thought is determination, which I define as “deciding to hang tough, regardless.”

All of this urges us to keep in mind the difference between natural sight and supernatural vision.

Sight and Insight

When we look at life with vision, we perceive events and circumstances with God’s thoughts.

And because His thoughts are higher and more profound than everyday horizontal thinking, they have a way of softening the blows of calamity and giving us hope through tragedy and loss.

They also enable us to handle times of popularity and prosperity with wisdom.

I’ll be frank with you. I know of no more valuable technique in the pursuit of successful living than sheer, dogged determination.

Nothing works in ministry better than these four traits:

- Persistence—persistence in godliness
- Determination to stay diligent in study
- Perseverance in the priorities of ministry
- Commitment in working with people

Hanging Tough

I often remind myself of those familiar words in 2 Timothy 4:2,

Preach the word; be ready in season and out of season.

That’s a nice way of saying:

Hang tough! Do it when it comes naturally and when it is hard to come by. Do it when you’re up; do it when you’re down. Do it when you feel like it; do it (more often) when you don’t feel like it. Do it when it’s hot; do it when it’s cold. Keep on doing it. Don’t give up.

That is persistence and determination in seeking the kingdom of God. That is hanging tough with dogged discipline.

Take it from one who has been in the ministry for over fifty years. In times when you get whipped, or even when you win, the secret is staying at it.

What do you think? What helps you hang tough when you’d like to hang it up?

Refuse to let the world corrupt you

“If your enemies are hungry, give them food to eat. If they are thirsty, give them water to drink. You will heap burning coals of shame on their heads, and the Lord will reward you.”

(Proverbs 25:21-22)

In the four gospels, we see Jesus give His disciples a completely different perspective on life. As God’s people, they had lived under laws that seemed good but were not entirely different from those practiced by their heathen neighbours. Jesus even asked them, “If you are kind only to your friends, how are you different from anyone else?” (Matt. 5:47). They claimed to be people of God but practiced hating their enemies just like their heathen neighbours did. But in Mathew 5:44-45, (reiterating the message of Solomon in our main text), Jesus taught them to love their enemies instead.

On another occasion He taught them about leadership (Matt. 20:25-28). Two of His disciples, James and John wanted to be promoted to the positions of second in command in the Kingdom of God. Their fellow disciples were indignant, but Jesus seized the opportunity to give them a teaching that is completely opposite to how the world views leadership. He responded by telling them that in the Kingdom of God, greatness is defined by how well we serve and how much we help others: whoever wants to be a leader among you must be your servant (Matt. 20:26).

We typically look at our leaders and judge them by how many people they are responsible for, how much influence they have and the decisions they make. And so if we are not careful, the tendency is to be more forceful, more demanding or get further ahead in life, trying to move up the corporate ladder. But Jesus says the real heroes, the ones He values most, are people who help others. He says we should measure our worth by the number of people we serve and how we make their lives better.

Dear friend, we are in the world but are not of the world (John 17:14, 16). Let us therefore refuse to let the world corrupt us as the Bible warns in James 1:27b. And how can we do that? By devoting our time to reading, meditating, studying and obeying the Word of God, which is the constitution of our heavenly Kingdom, where we actually belong. The Word of God is full of other teachings like the ones we have above that if we would take seriously and obey, we’ll be acting as true children of our Father in heaven. We’ll be that true light.

Prayer: Lord, I thank You for giving me a different perspective of life by Your Word. Help me by the power of the Holy Spirit to live a life that will point people to You. In Jesus’ Name, Amen!

Some Kingdom Partnership Principles

I have read from scriptures that the things written therein are for our examples: “Now these things befell them by way of a figure [as an example and warning to us]; they were written to admonish and fit us for right action by good instruction, we in whose days the ages have reached their climax (their consummation and concluding period) – 1 Cor. 10:11 AMPC. What this means is that we should study them and follow them by putting them into practice.

Let’s look at a business partnership recorded in scriptures from which we can learn some Kingdom Business Partnership Principles. In Matthew 25:14-30, Jesus tells this parable with respect to His second coming. But like I have said, we can learn some Kingdom partnership principles here.

PRINCIPLE 1 – Those who have the financial resources can partner with those who do not have the financial resources but have the ability to make profits from finances given to them to do business with.

First we see the Principle of Partnership from verses 14-15: “For it is like a man who was about to take a long journey, and he called his servants together and entrusted them with his property. To one he gave five talents [probably about $5,000], to another two, to another one—to each in proportion to his own personal ability. Then he departed and left the country. (Matt. 25:14-15 AMPC).

There are many rich Christians who want to do business but do not have this ability to make profits with what they do. On the other hand, there are some Christians without money who have the ability to make profits with whatever money is entrusted to them. These two, I believe can come together and form a partnership as they will agree for the mutual benefit of both of them.

PRINCIPLE 2 – It takes not just ability, but ability and faithfulness to be able to make profits with whatever is entrusted in your hands.

As a Christian investor, don’t just look for ability: look for a partner who is able but also faithful. Ability without faithfulness will not yield to profits. In the parable of the talents, the two servants (partners) who made profits were commended for their faithfulness: “And he who had received the five talents came and brought him five more, saying, Master, you entrusted to me five talents; see, here I have gained five talents more. His master said to him, Well done, you upright (honorable, admirable) and faithful servant! You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little; I will put you in charge of much. Enter into and share the joy (the delight, the blessedness) which your master enjoys. And he also who had the two talents came forward, saying, Master, you entrusted two talents to me; here I have gained two talents more. His master said to him, Well done, you upright (honorable, admirable) and faithful servant! You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little; I will put you in charge of much. Enter into and share the joy (the delight, the blessedness) which your master enjoys. (Matthew 25:20-23 AMPC)

PRINCIPLE 3 – Not all Christians have the ability to turn what is entrusted to them into what will bring profit.

As a Christian investor, do not just partner with someone because he/she is a Christian. There are many able but lazy and “unfaithful Christians” out there. Such Christians will never make any profits with whatever you entrust them with. Avoid any business partnerships with such. “He who had received one talent also came forward, saying, Master, I knew you to be a harsh and hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you had not winnowed [the grain]. So I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is your own. But his master answered him, You wicked and lazy and idle servant! Did you indeed know that I reap where I have not sowed and gather [grain] where I have not winnowed? Then you should have invested my money with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent away from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents” (Matt. 25:24-28 AMPC).

NEVER SAY NEVER

Princess Clinton

I have learned over the years that saying never is not the best, especially when it comes to things that are not bad.

Yes, it is amazing to be strong willed and have a resolve but think through it again. You just might be putting an end to pursuing your purpose in life because of a Never, you said.

I have loved teaching but not in a formal setting: reason being that though smart and intelligent, I was a very naughty student. So in my mind as per the law of sowing and reaping I will get the same treatment I gave to my own teachers. Funny enough every other teacher complains but me.

God just favored me I guess.

So the next time you want to say NEVER, think it through. Do not miss out on God's best for you because of a decision you made out of reasons that do not really fit in.

Love y'all real much.

CHRISTIANPRENEURSHIP CONTINUES HERE

PRINCIPLE 4 – Faithfulness in Kingdom Business Partnerships pays dividends.

The servants (partners) who made profits for their master were put in charge of MUCH because of their FAITHFULNESS IN LITTLE: "His master said to him, Well done, you upright (honorable, admirable) and faithful servant! You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little; I will put you in charge of much. Enter into and share the joy (the delight, the blessedness) which your master enjoys... His master said to him, Well done, you upright (honorable, admirable) and faithful servant! You have been faithful and trustworthy over a little; I will put you in charge of much. Enter into and share the joy (the delight, the blessedness) which your master enjoys" (Matt. 25:21, 23 AMPC).

In conclusion therefore, let's understand that the end time Church is supposed to be the Church that stands out in society at the top of the mountains: "It shall come to pass in the latter days that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be [firmly] established as the highest of the mountains and shall be exalt- ed above the hills, and all nations shall flow to it. And many people shall come and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob, that He may teach us His ways and that we may walk in His paths. For out of Zion shall go forth the law and instruction, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem" (Isa. 2:2-3 AMPC).

The end time Church is supposed to be the pacesetter in the different worlds of our society. But this can only happen when meaningful, truthful and profitable partnerships are made by those who make up the Church.

My prayer is that those Christian investors who are looking for those who can steward their financial resources to bring profits will be connected to able and faithful Christians who will do their work with the fear of God, bringing profits both to the investor and to them according to agreed terms.

The Church MUST STANDOUT! May these principles outlined help us into meaningful partnerships that will make us standout!

Kingdom Focus Greetings.

WORD DECLARATION WHEN TAKING COMMUNION

John 6:48-58 New King James Version (NKJV)

I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.” The Jews therefore quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?” Then Jesus said to them, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For MY FLESH IS FOOD INDEED, AND MY BLOOD IS DRINK INDEED. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. This is the bread which came down from heaven—not as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. HE WHO EATS THIS BREAD WILL LIVE FOREVER.”

As I eat the bread from heaven through this communion, I SHALL NOT DIE BUT LIVE TO PROCLAIM THE WORKS OF GOD.

As I partake of the FLESH of Jesus through this communion, I SHALL LIVE FOREVER according to scriptures.

Life is in the blood. As I eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink His blood via this Communion, His very life surges into me.

By this Communion today, I cannot be down for any reason because partaking in the Communion raises me up.

By this Communion, I am connected to Jesus and Jesus is connected to me. His very life therefore flows in and through me. Whatever could not/cannot put Jesus down cannot put me down.

By this Communion, I am in total communion with the resurrected Christ, and IN Him who is seated in the right hand of God the Father, the position of authority, far above principalities and powers and spiritual wickedness in high places. In this far above position, I exercise authority and manifest dominion today and always in ALL areas of life.

As I feed on this Communion, I LIVE because of CHRIST WHO LIVES. Whatever cannot afflict Jesus Christ, cannot afflict me. Whatever cannot oppress/suppress/depress/molest Jesus Christ, cannot affect me; whatever cannot keep Jesus Christ down cannot keep me down because by this Communion, I am in Him and He is in Me, Hallelujah!

By this Communion, I now renew my ETERNAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICY IN CHRIST, in the name of Jesus. I can therefore not die prematurely. I will only sleep when my mission on earth as KINGDOM AMBASSADOR is over and I am called back by the King of kings and the Lord of lords.

Where there is life, there can be no death. Communion infuses life. As I take this Communion, every spirit of death hovering around my life is bound and destroyed because by this Communion, I enhance my victory over death by taking in the very life of Christ that knows no death, Hallelujah!

The Son of man was manifested to DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL. By this Communion, every work of the devil manifesting or attempting to manifest in my life is permanently destroyed, in the name of Jesus Christ.

As I partake in this Communion, I DO SO IN REMEMBRANCE of the Finished Work of Jesus on the cross. By DECLARING HIS DEATH, I therefore receive all that is in the REDEMPTION PACKAGE FOR THE SAINTS, in the name of Jesus Christ.

By this Communion, the strength of God is infused in me as every form of weakness is destroyed permanently, in the name of Jesus.

Thank You Father! Thank You Jesus! Thank You Holy Spirit!

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I come today to ask you a very important and crucial question of life. Yes, I ask you this question because many people are mistaken to think that life here on earth is the only life we have. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book, the Bible, that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity is dependent on what you do now on earth to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a very interesting conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?"

(John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus clearly tells Nicodemus that except a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God or see it. Jesus went to explain that to be born again, is to be born of water and the Spirit.

From scripture, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water and the Spirit is essentially to be born by the Word of God. This is exactly what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God."

(1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the word of God? The apostle Paul gave the answer when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved."

(Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

From what Paul says, two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe that He came to save mankind from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay, which is death: the wages of sin is death. You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. Our sins were all put on him as scripture says (Isa. 53:6) and He died in our place. You must also then believe that He was buried and on the third day He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these, and confess Jesus as Lord, then, you are born again.

Born again is not the name of a church as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born again Christian. Sorry: there is nothing like born again Christian. All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and savior.

It is outright foolishness to not believe the word of God and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, I beseech you, in the name of the Lord to follow God's ways as outlined in His word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation. YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are not sure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to just get born again now. Just as we have seen above, all you need to do is believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer, sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe that You sent Jesus Christ Your Son to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried and on the third day He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I therefore confess Him as Lord and savior of my life. I am now a new creation according to scriptures. Old things are passed away. I am now born again and all things have now become new. Thank You Lord for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a new born baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get yourself into a true Bible believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Also make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Read the Bible daily because God's word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Above all, do not forsake fellowship and live a consecrated life, set apart for God. God will therefore use you as a vessel of honor, blessing mankind, and giving Him glory.

Welcome to the family of God and God bless you!
