EPISTLE

Pastor (Dr.) Sebastien-Caleb Kema Kema

The LORD rules! Let the earth rejoice! Let all the islands celebrate! Clouds and thick darkness surround God. His throne is built on righteousness and justice. Fire proceeds before him, burning up his enemies on every side. His lightning lights up the world; the earth sees it and trembles! The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of the whole world! (Psa. 97:1-5 CEB).

By divine appointment before the very foundations of the world to be part of this first day of the month of March 2019, I salute and welcome us all in the name of Jesus. Let's thank our God and Father who has brought us this far since the year began. Father, we are grateful and thankful to You for Your love, Your care, Your protection, Your provision, Your guidance and above all, Your compassion towards us since the year began. We thank You for Your life in us that makes us to be partakers of this new month. All glory to You Lord. Thank You!

The month of March is the THIRD MONTH of the year. Land, the natural habitation of man and other animals was created on the third day. Water, which is sometimes symbolic to trouble in scripture (See Isaiah 43:2) was created on the third day. Land was created to provide a safe habitation for man from the troubled waters. With this understanding, in this third month of the year, God will provide a place of safety for you from the troubled waters of life, in the name of Jesus.

March is the THIRD MONTH of the year. In Genesis 1:11-13, God commanded the land to produce. This is symbolic. Why? Because beginning from this month, you will begin producing in areas of your life where many, and even you, thought were barren, in the name of Jesus Christ! From this month and beyond, everyone will begin to see your productivity in different areas of your life as you discover, develop and release your God-given potential. It is therefore our month of COMMENCEMENT OF FRUITFULNESS that will go from glory to glory until the end of the year and beyond.

March is the THIRD MONTH. The number 3 is the number of THE RESURRECTION. After Jesus was crucified and buried, on the third day, He resurrected in newness of life. Just as Jesus resurrected in newness of life on the third day, this third month of the year, God will cause all your dead Kingdom visions and dreams to resurrect, in the name of Jesus Christ. Anything dead in your life that is supposed to be alive MUST resurrect this month by the power of God, in the name of Jesus.

2019, as we know is our year of Kingdom Focus. Nothing can stop a focused person. As an eagle, focused for the catch of a prey cannot miss the target, so too, as we stay focused on the plans God has for our lives this year, nothing can stop us from fulfilling God's purpose for our lives. Focus makes you unstoppable by all the devils from the pit of hell. When you fix your eyes on the goals of your life and refuse to be distracted even by the "Good things," you will fulfil God's purpose for your life and be a blessing to mankind, giving glory to God.

In Habakkuk 2:2, we read the following words:

Habakkuk 2:2-3 English Standard Version Anglicised (ESVUK)

² And the Lord answered me: "Write the vision; make it plain on tablets, so HE MAY RUN who reads it.

When God gives us a vision, we must write the vision and make the vision plain. But just writing the vision and making it plain is not enough to bring the vision to reality. That's why God continues to tell us the purpose for writing the vision plainly: so as to run with the vision. In other words, to pursue the vision until it manifests.

But to run or pursue our vision to manifestation, we must not run aimlessly. Aimless running is not profitable running (running to win a prize). It is only those who run a race, following the rules of the race without any distractions who are guaranteed to win a prize.

As Kingdom citizens we are in a race and this race is one for the pursuance of our God-given vision. We must run this race cautiously, patiently, and with total focus on the One who gave us the vision because He is the One to order our steps towards the manifestation of the vision. That's why scripture says:

Hebrews 12:1-2 English Standard Version Anglicised (ESVUK)

¹ Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also LAY ASIDE EVERY WEIGHT, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ² looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

This month therefore, the PROPHETIC THEME is:

FOCUSED RUNNING

Understanding Staying Focused while Running with Your God Given Vision

All through this month, we are going to learn from scriptures what we need to put in place and what we need to effectively run the race of our God given vision with focus so as to win the prize of this race, which is the manifestation of the vision.

With the desire and determination for the God given vision for the year to become a reality, coupled with faith, patience and the grace of God on our side, I believe we can all achieve what we set our minds at.

With the vision known, if we set boundaries and discipline ourselves (Prov. 29:18), we can clearly focus to run the vision race to the finish line.

As we begin the month on the altar of Fasting and Prayers, I pray that God will indeed order our steps in His Word, directing us as we pursue the vision for the year in every area of our lives to manifestation, in the name of Jesus Christ!

Jesus is Lord
Kingdom Focus Greetings.

TESTIMONIES

Delivered from fear

Last year 2018, in the month of November, I can't really remember the exact date, I felt some pains in my left breast. First I thought I slept on it, and therefore waved it, saying that it will go away. But it didn't go after some days. So I decided to tell my husband. I told him that I can feel some hardness on my breast. He felt it and said he can't feel anything different. When he realized that I was serious he asked me to go to the hospital, after a few moment he told me to anoint it for one week, declaring the healing Word over it and that if there is no change then, I should take it to the hospital.

Unknown to him, I had already started anointing my breast before he said so. As the days passed by, fear of the unknown kept increasing in me. I started searching for symptoms of breast cancer. The more I search, the more fear gripped me. My countenance changed, and I was no more the happy lady I use to be.

One day I remember what my husband and I used to say: "that many people who die of terminal deceases did not actually die of the deceases that they were diagnosed of, but of fear." That was the moment my identity in Christ came back to me. I tried to pray, but I could not. So, I went to YouTube and searched for healing scriptures. I listened to them everywhere I went and do still listen to them today and confessed them to myself. Then to crown it all the month of December came and it was proclaimed the month of Joy and rejoicing in our fellowship. I keyed into Word and decided to work out the Word of joy and rejoicing. We were asked to do midnight praise just to rejoice in the presence of God. The moment I started that, my joy returned: there was no more pain, no depression, no more down casting of the face.

Today the 12th of February, as I write this testimony, there is no more pain, and fear has been defeated, to the glory God. Amen!

Sister Agnes Kema

On Dec 29th, 2018, Esther my sister in the Lord came to do my hair. The moment she got into my house, I heard a voice, "your passport." Immediately, I got into the room where I kept my passport but couldn't find it. I looked everywhere in my room but couldn't find it. After doing my hair, I took my time, checking one dress, shoes book, file to another but my passport was nowhere to be found. On the 30th, I did same thing but my passport was nowhere. I started being so worried because if there's one document I don't clown and know how to protect, it's my passport.

Before I went to bed that night, I prayed reverently and heaven heard and answered me.

When I fell asleep, I had this revelation. Someone entered my room: a very black man dressed in a blue hoodie. I couldn't see his face because his face was covered. He held a document in his hands and when I looked at it, it was my passport. I got up from bed, went and knelt down before him. He handed my passport to me and then with tears of joy, I said "Thank you".

I got up from that dream with those tears running down my face. Since I was really sleepy, I fell asleep again. When I finally got up in the morning after my morning prayers, then I remembered the dream. Immediately I got up and went to the place in my room where the man handed me the passport. Behold, my passport was lying there, with every indication that someone just dropped it there. I didn't know what to say and think. I couldn't understand how the devil wanted to disappear my passport spiritually.

It should be noted that I was preparing to extend my residence while the devil was preparing to disappear my passport but the God we serve was watching my back. On the 31st of January 2018, God gave me back my passport. He gave me the passport as we got into the year 2019.

To God be the glory in Jesus name. Amen.

BE A MAN/WOMAN OF GOOD REPUTATION

— Agnes N. Kema

"Therefore, brethren, select from among you seven men of good reputation, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task.

Acts 6:3

Are you a man or a woman of good reputation? I ask this question not only to you, but to myself. Are we men and women of good reputation?

I know many will rush to say: "Yes I am." And when you ask them what makes you think you are?, you will hear answers like: "I am a good Christian, I go to church, I give to the poor, I have good connections, I have a good job, I am from a reputable family, I am royalty and the list goes on." All these do not make one a person of good reputation.

What qualifies one then to be a person of good reputation? Apostle Paul gives us the answer in the above verse?

And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

Acts 6:1-3 King James Version (KJV)

Men of honest report! Can you be counted among? What are people saying about you? Are they giving good report about you? If someone comes to your neighborhood will they get a good report when your name is mentioned? What your church people are saying about you, can your co-workers be saying the same? Can your family members give an honest report about you?

We may say there are people who will never speak well about us, no matter what you do. That may be true in a sense. But all in all, good deeds never hide; friendliness never goes unnoticed; and honesty never go unnoticed. When you live a good and honest life, the right kind of people will come to you. Your light will shine even before kings and princes.

One thing I will say is that living an honest life pays. No matter your situation and circumstance, if you are honest, peaceful and loving, you will never regret it. Some people may call it foolishness, but the end will tell.

I pray you and I strive to live a good reputable life by the grace of God, in Jesus name. Amen

CONTINUATION OF EPISTLE FOR FEBRUARY 2019

1 Corinthians 9:24-25 New Century Version (NCV)

²⁴You know that in a race all the runners run, but only one gets the prize. So run to win! ²⁵ All those who compete in the games use self-control so they can win a crown. That crown is an earthly thing that lasts only a short time, but our crown will never be destroyed.

Hebrews 12:1-2 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition (AMPC)

¹ Therefore then, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses [who have borne testimony to the Truth], let us strip off and throw aside every encumbrance (unnecessary weight) and that sin which so readily (deftly and cleverly) clings to and entangles us, and let us run with PA- TIENT ENDURANCE and STEADY AND ACTIVE PERSISTENCE the appointed course of the race that is set before us, ² LOOKING AWAY [FROM ALL THAT WILL DISTRACT] TO JESUS, Who is the Leader and the Source of our faith [giving the first incentive for our belief] and is also its Finisher [bringing it to maturity and perfection]. He, for the joy [of obtaining the prize] that was set before Him, endured the cross, despising and ignoring the shame, and is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

THE ACT OF DEPENDENT WORSHIP

Pastor Crystabelle Ferim

Hello Prophetic Worshipper, did you know that worship is dependence and a time of waiting? Yes it is like no other thing in life, because it causes you to direct your focus on one and only one person - God.

In my earlier years as a believer, I used to try to work on my worship by doing things that seemed right and things I saw others do. I would kneel down because others did and use certain words just like the rest of the congregation did. My results were limited because I was running in the shadow of other people.

What I really needed to do was build a dependence in and on God that would absolutely take me into His courts. In building this dependence, I learned that my worship was unique, like no one else's. I realized that depending on God was the act of sincerity and total abandonment. I had to come to God just as I was and be vulnerable before Him.

Oh I remember the first time I truly let God take over my worship at a service. While worship was going on I got into another level and what ensued was tears, a new song and lots of peace. I worshipped... I could not stop. I told God just how I felt about Him and how much I depended on Him. While the others stopped, I could not, I stayed on a little bit more. After a while I realized I pulled everyone my way, worshipping with my song, worshipping deeper. At the end of the service the Pastor said to me: "I love the way you worship." I was shocked because, that was not my intention, to get noticed. I had just found my niche and I was not going to let go.

Here is the thing, if we are totally dependent on God in worship, where we put all distractions away, then He takes us into His deep, a place in which we perceive nothing but God.

Over the years, my worship has been dependent on the Word of God. The following verses have meant the world to me:

Psalm 42:7

"Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me."

Psalm 63:1-3

God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.

Isaiah 40:31

But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Those who totally depend on God in worship, and not on their abilities and know-how, often find themselves in the deepest parts of God's courts. Today, let go and let God in the place of worship. Make it about God, make it count: Be dependent.

THE CALL TO REVOLUTIONARY LEADERSHIP

Pst Mrs. Sidonie Che N

Dear Servant of God, I bring you Calvary greetings in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Thanks be to God who has triumphantly brought us to this year 2019 and for His divine power that has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to His own glory and excellence, by which He has granted to us His precious and very great promises, so that through them we may become partakers of the divine nature (2 Pet. 1:3-4). The Bible also indicates in the book of Eccl. 7:8 that better is the end of a matter than the beginning. And drawing from Haggai 2:9, the Glory of this Your 2019 shall be greater than the former year for the Lord your God is He who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies, to give you the victory (Deut. 20:4).

I would use this opportunity to first appreciate and congratulate you dear Servant of God. Drawing inspiration from Paul's letter in 1 Thessalonians 5:12-13, I commend your competence, your patience and kindness, your bravery, diligence, compassion and above all your commitment to Jesus and His mission. There were days you had personal heartbreaks, sadness, doubt, disappointment, devastation, hurt feelings, sleepless nights and unspeakable pain yet you kept pushing on with the good fight of faith. I thank God for you dear Pastor.

Charles Spurgeon once said, "Whenever God means to make a man great, He always breaks him in pieces first." You might be going through situations and challenges right now that has made you appear as pieces. It might be with your family, it might be with your beloved spouse, might be you just had a failed relationship, it might be with your ministry, your church members, business challenge, or any other struggle but James 1:2-3 says this: "My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience."

Dear Man/Woman of God, it is against this backdrop of confusion, suffering and pain that we see a man like Elijah in 1 Kings Chapter 18 emerged as a Leader and his ministry was marked with power, culminating with revolutionising the land. This revolution brought an end to Baal worship and the repairing of the altar of God that was desecrated through the abominable practices of Ahab and his wicked wife Jezebel (1Kings 18:30).

Pause and think for one minute dear Pastor: what would have happened if Elijah gave up on his ministry because there was famine in the land (1Kings 18:2)? Imagine if he would have given up on his ministry because he had to depend on a poor widow for feeding; think about the fact that he had to suffer the embarrassment of running from place to place because one demonic couple wanted his life. As I speak to you right now, might be you are like Elijah and you are being pursued by witch craft powers, might be you laid hands on a member in your church and the powers fighting your church member is oppressing you; might be you are barely able to feed and fend for your family; it might have to do with roving from one ministry or one town to another just because God is sending you to one 'Ethiopian Eunuch, like in the case of Phillip in Acts 8 thereby leaving behind your comfort zones and sleeping in a cave like David just to obey your God.

Listen to me Dear Servant of God: it is because God is preparing you as a Kingdom Revolutionist; to take over individuals, families, nations, institutions, atheists, occultists, witches for Christ. That is what came out of Elijah after he went through all those trials and difficulties. He emerged as a revolutionist and changed the status quo of his time which was the worship of idols and the practice of witchcraft. God uses only prepared vessels and some of the challenges in your life right now dear Pastor, is Heaven getting ready to birth you as a divine arrow, and shoot you against the kingdom of darkness (Psalms 127:4).

Look at the nations around the world today: many are groaning and waiting for your manifestation dear Revolutionary Pastor. The writer of the book of Romans makes this clear in Chapter 8:19-23. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God (Rom. 8:19)

Who is he talking about here? Is it not you? What would have happened if our Fathers gave up? Worst things would have happened if those who went ahead of us gave up because of the affliction and sufferings they had to go through. Man of God/ Woman of God, the nations are waiting for you. Families are waiting for you. Children are waiting for you.. Other Servants of God are waiting for you. The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 10:13 (NIV), No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it." Praise God!

Therefore, Man/Woman of God, refuse to stop what you have been handpicked by God to do. Refuse to remain on the floor. Refuse to give in to the devil's schemes. Refuse to allow your feelings and what others are saying influence you and the ministry. Instead, pick up your armor and march unto victory.

As I write this, I remember a popular lyric we used to sing thus: "March onto victory. The Lord has answered, march onto victory, we are more than conquerors..."

Is that not what the Bible says about you in Romans 8:35-37? "Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: "For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us." You are more than a conqueror dear Pastor!

I know we live in times when our congregation and the (Acts 1:8/John 15:16/Acts 2:37/41)

PRAYER DECLARATION

The Word of God is Yes and Amen and it is settled forever in heaven. The third day is the Day of creation that God created land, the habitat for the man after His image and likeness so that he would be safe from the troubled waters of life. This month, I believe and I declare that no troubled water is going to drown me for my God is taking me to the place of safety, in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

This month of March for the ECDOC Family which I belong has been declared our month of COOMENCEMENT OF FRUITFULNESS. By this prophetic Word, I declare that no area of my life will be barren as from this month henceforth. I shall begin to bear fruit in all the works of my hands and in all that I do. Nothing around me shall be barren in the name of Jesus. It is my month for the commencement of Uncommon Fruitfulness in my life. Hallelujah!

The number 3 represents RESURRECTION. On this third month of the year, I decree and declare that all my dead divine dreams are coming back to life and by the empowerment of God in my life, as I run with focus, these dreams and visions will become reality, in the name of Jesus Christ.
(Genesis 1:9-13/Isaiah 43:2/Romans 8:11/Romans 6:4/Colossians 3:10)

Radical Trust

In the LORD I put my trust, How can you say to my soul, "Flee as to your mountain?"
(Psalm 11:1)

Whenever I read the Psalms, I am always fascinated by David's radical trust in God. His was a quiet life until he began serving King Saul. One thing led to another and before he knew it he became a fugitive in his own native land. He was constantly hunted by King Saul, and lived in constant danger.

Psalm 11 is a Psalm he wrote in one of those times. And in such a time, his friends advised him to, "Flee as a bird to your mountain." Now take note that his friends were well intentioned like many of us would be if our friends or loved ones were in danger. But in spite of their good intentions, the advice they gave him was the advice of fear.

Now David was wise and godly enough to know that the advice of fear couldn't stand with the position of trust in God. To heed this advice of fear would be compromise. So we see him in our key verse above react with near outrage: "In the LORD I put my trust; How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain?"'" David knew that the safest place to stand was in radical trust in the Lord not to flee to some mountain.

And that goes for us too. God is the only and safest mountain we should run to in times of danger. David's friend's advice to him though well-meant was ungodly and faithless. David's friends remind me of Peter. His advice to Jesus in Matthew 16:22-23 to not go the way of the cross was also well intentioned. But he was actually being used by the devil.

Dear friend, like David, let our trust in our God be always radical no matter the circumstances. On the one hand let us be careful about the advice we take from our friends. Always examine their advice in light of the word of God. On the other hand, let us be careful the advice we give to others. We must make it our goal to live a quiet life, minding our own business and not be busybodies (1 Thess. 4:11, 1 Tim. 5:13). Let's not be overconfident as Job's friends were and ended up only adding him more pain and sorrow.

Confession:

In the LORD, I have put my trust. I will not fear what man or the devil can do to me.

DO BUSINESS UNTIL I COME

Honesty in Business

There is a Dutch proverb that says, "Honesty is the soul of business." Harvey S. Firestone says, "I believe fundamental honesty is the keystone of business." I can't agree better with this. Every business, especially Christian business anchors on honesty. This is because honesty, which is an aspect of truth, is a vital key to success in business. Just as the soul that sins shall die, and honesty is the soul of a business, when a business is not an honest one, it is a dead business even before it begins.

What is honesty? Honesty is truthfulness. Wikipedia defines honesty as: "Honesty is a facet of moral character that connotes positive and virtuous attributes such as integrity, truthfulness, straightforwardness, including straightforwardness of conduct, along with the absence of lying, cheating, theft, etc. Honesty also involves being trustworthy, loyal, fair, and sincere."

Why is Honesty Important in Business, especially in Christian Business? As Christians, we must understand that we are called to do everything as doing it to the Lord (Col. 3:23). So, that business you are in or plan to get into, should be viewed as God's business, and you are just a steward. As God's business therefore, you must do it with honesty because God is identified with truth, an aspect of honesty, which is God... I am the truth (John 14:6).

Dishonesty is an abomination to the Lord. Scripture says:

¹⁴ Don't have two different sets of measures in your house, one large and one small. ¹⁵ You must have true and honest weights and measures so that you will live a long time in the land the LORD your God is giving you. ¹⁶ The LORD your God hates anyone who *is dishonest and uses dishonest measures.

Deuteronomy 25:14-16 New Century Version (NCV)*

Too many, in an attempt to get much profit indulge in dishonest activities in their businesses. God wants us to have TRUE and HONEST WEIGHTS. In other words, every business we do, we must do it with total honesty.

From the above scripture, we see that when you do honest business, you live long and this implies that your business too will last long, wherever you are. God hates dishonesty and therefore will not bless businesses with dishonest practices. God cannot bless what He hates.

What are the Areas of Honesty in Business as a Christian?

a. Honesty To The Government

- ❖ Pay Your Taxes
- ❖ Pay your Bills

b. Honesty As An Employer

- ❖ Pay your employees honest salaries
- ❖ Pay your employees on time Lev. 19:13

c. Honesty as an Employee

- ❖ Do not do eye service only (Eph. 6:6)
- ❖ Faithfully do your work
- ❖ Be diligent at your work

d. Honesty to your Customers (Clients).

- ❖ Use honest weights Deut. 2:14-16
- ❖ Tell them the truth about the services you render. Do not exaggerate society puts pressure on you to compromise the message God gave you in the beginning. We live in times when the devil is cunningly creeping into our pulpits to suffocate us with what he wants us to preach. But you and I know that the nature of the work of the pastor is not to be defined by the culture, congregation or the pastor himself: but by the Lord.

When we look at our fathers in the Bible and at examples like the man Elijah who confronted 850 false prophets in a day and stopped false worship (1 Kings 18:19, 40), and some other persons like Paul who went about turning cities upside down (Acts 17), dear Man/woman of God, you notice that their preaching was bold, visionary, revolutionary and soundly biblical, and many of their sermons worked to rally their people to the patriotic cause, but within the framework of a Kingdom vision.

That kind of preaching-and thinking-is rare in our churches today. And that's why as we approach the first quarter of this year, 2019, Dear Pastor, you should be encouraged to rethink on your calling as a preacher, especially in the light of how many nations, churches and individuals around the world are in great need for revival, renewal, and reawakening.

In Matthew 14 we read about an amazing and beautiful story of a Revolutionary Leader called Jesus who fed a multitude with just five loaves of bread and two fish. And 5000 people ate and there were still twelve baskets full of left over! But before the miracle of multiplication could take place, it says in verse 19 that Jesus, "took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He blessed the food, and breaking the loaves He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the crowds." Dear Pastor, do you see what I am seeing from this? It says Jesus did two things: first, He blessed the food, and second, He broke it.

Jesus blesses only what He breaks. God can multiply only what has been broken. Do you want God to take your little life and do something mighty with it? Do you want to be blessed and be a blessing to multitudes? Do you want to be Revolutionary leader like Jesus, Elijah, Paul etc.? Then you need to permit God take you through that fire and after you are broken, you shall emerge as a revolutionary in this present time. Verse 20 say: "They picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve full baskets" (NAS). At the end of your life dear Pastor, when all is said and done, and everything has been consumed, the only parts of your life that will have lasting value are the broken pieces. The way the world looks at things is so different from the way God looks at them. The world values the lofty, powerful, proud, and big. God values a broken and a contrite heart, a heart that is humble and bowed low before the King. In Isaiah 66:2 the Lord says, "This is the one I esteem: he who is humble and contrite in spirit, and trembles at my word" (NIV). The psalmist says in Psalm 51:17, "The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise" (NIV).

Dear Pastor, as I conclude on this I encourage you to stay humble, passionate, and let nothing move you. Be the Revolutionary! Above all, I re-echo the word of Dr. Kema Kema (the Visionary of the I Testify Magazine): and he says, "Stay focused this year." Hallelujah!

Be a Revolutionist!

Grace & Peace,
Your beloved Sister in Christ,
Pst. Mrs. Sidonie Che N.

Some Quotes on Honesty in Business.

- ❖ In business, sharp practice sometimes succeeds, but in art honesty is not only the best but the only policy (W. Somerset Maugham).
- ❖ Honesty is the best policy (Benjamin Franklin).
- ❖ The only policy for business is honesty. When you are passionate of something and you do it honestly, you will succeed (Status-Mindcom).
- ❖ Honesty is the first chapter in the Book of Wisdom (Thomas Jefferson).
- ❖ Whoever is careless with truth in small matters cannot be trusted with important matters (Albert Einstein).
- ❖ Honesty is the fastest way to prevent a mistake from turning into a failure (James Altucher).

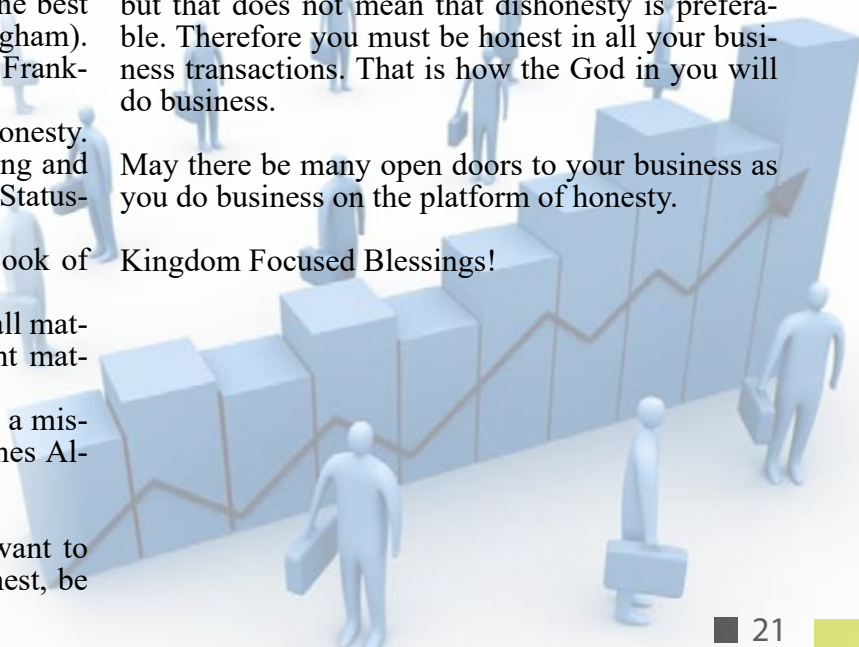

Let me conclude with this quote: "If you want to be trusted, be honest. If you want to be honest, be truthful. If you want to be true, be yourself." Unless you are yourself, not trying to impress others, you cannot be truthful and truthfulness and honesty are always together.

Honesty will, at times, hurt someone's feelings, but that does not mean that dishonesty is preferable. Therefore you must be honest in all your business transactions. That is how the God in you will do business.

May there be many open doors to your business as you do business on the platform of honesty.

Kingdom Focused Blessings!

WORD DECLARATION WHEN TAKING COMMUNION

John 6:48-58 New King James Version (NKJV)

I am the bread of life. 49 Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which comes down from heaven, that one may eat of it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever; and the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.” The Jews therefore quarreled among themselves, saying, “How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?” Then Jesus said to them, “Most assuredly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. Whoever eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. For MY FLESH IS FOOD INDEED, AND MY BLOOD IS DRINK INDEED. He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him. As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me will live because of Me. This is the bread which came down from heaven—not as your fathers ate the manna, and are dead. HE WHO EATS THIS BREAD WILL LIVE FOREVER.”

As I eat the bread from heaven through this communion, I SHALL NOT DIE BUT LIVE TO PROCLAIM THE WORKS OF GOD.

As I partake of the FLESH of Jesus through this communion, I SHALL LIVE FOREVER according to scriptures.

Life is in the blood. As I eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink His blood via this Communion, His very life surges into me.

By this Communion today, I cannot be down for any reason because partaking in the Communion raises me up.

By this Communion, I am connected to Jesus and Jesus is connected to me. His very life therefore flows in and through me. Whatever could not/cannot put Jesus down cannot put me down.

By this Communion, I am in total communion with the resurrected Christ, and IN Him who is seated in the right hand of God the Father, the position of authority, far above principalities and powers and spiritual wickedness in high places. In this far above position, I exercise authority and manifest dominion today and always in ALL areas of life.

As I feed on this Communion, I LIVE because of CHRIST WHO LIVES. Whatever cannot afflict Jesus Christ, cannot afflict me. Whatever cannot oppress/suppress/depress/molest Jesus Christ, cannot affect me; whatever cannot keep Jesus Christ down cannot keep me down because by this Communion, I am in Him and He is in Me, Hallelujah!

By this Communion, I now renew my ETERNAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICY IN CHRIST, in the name of Jesus. I can therefore not die prematurely. I will only sleep when my mission on earth as KINGDOM AMBASSADOR is over and I am called back by the King of kings and the Lord of lords.

Where there is life, there can be no death. Communion infuses life. As I take this Communion, every spirit of death hovering around my life is bound and destroyed because by this Communion, I enhance my victory over death by taking in the very life of Christ that knows no death, Hallelujah!

The Son of man was manifested to DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL. By this Communion, every work of the devil manifesting or attempting to manifest in my life is permanently destroyed, in the name of Jesus Christ.

As I partake in this Communion, I DO SO IN REMEMBRANCE of the Finished Work of Jesus on the cross. By DECLARING HIS DEATH, I therefore receive all that is in the REDEMPTION PACKAGE FOR THE SAINTS, in the name of Jesus Christ.

By this Communion, the strength of God is infused in me as every form of weakness is destroyed permanently, in the name of Jesus.

Thank You Father! Thank You Jesus! Thank You Holy Spirit!

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I come today to ask you a very important and crucial question of life. Yes, I ask you this question because many people are mistaken to think that life here on earth is the only life we have. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book, the Bible, that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity is dependent on what you do now on earth to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a very interesting conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?"

(John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus clearly tells Nicodemus that except a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God or see it. Jesus went to explain that to be born again, is to be born of water and the Spirit.

From scripture, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water and the Spirit is essentially to be born by the Word of God. This is exactly what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God."

(1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the word of God? The apostle Paul gave the answer when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved."

(Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

From what Paul says, two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe that He came to save mankind from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay, which is death: the wages of sin is death. You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. Our sins were all put on him as scripture says (Isa. 53:6) and He died in our place. You must also then believe that He was buried and on the third day He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these, and confess Jesus as Lord, then, you are born again.

Born again is not the name of a church as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born again Christian. Sorry: there is nothing like born again Christian. All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and savior.

It is outright foolishness to not believe the word of God and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, I beseech you, in the name of the Lord to follow God's ways as outlined in His word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation. YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are not sure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to just get born again now. Just as we have seen above, all you need to do is believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer, sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe that You sent Jesus Christ Your Son to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried and on the third day He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I therefore confess Him as Lord and savior of my life. I am now a new creation according to scriptures. Old things are passed away. I am now born again and all things have now become new. Thank You Lord for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a new born baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get yourself into a true Bible believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Also make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Read the Bible daily because God's word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Above all, do not forsake fellowship and live a consecrated life, set apart for God. God will therefore use you as a vessel of honor, blessing mankind, and giving Him glory.

Welcome to the family of God and God bless you!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION FOR THE YEAR 2019

Kingdom Focus

I am a focused kingdom child. My eyes are fixed on Jesus; my heart is steadfast; my mind is stayed on God and set on things above and not on things on earth.

I refuse to look to the left or to the right. I am focused by the grace and power of God in my life, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of my faith in order to fulfil purpose for the benefit of mankind and to God's glory, in the name of Jesus.
