EPISTLE

Pastor (Dr.) Sebastien-Caleb Kerna Kerna

The LORD rules! Let the earth rejoice! Let all the islands celebrate! Clouds and thick darkness surround God. His throne is built on righteousness and justice. Fire proceeds before him, burning up his enemies on every side. His lightning lights up the world; the earth sees it and trembles! The mountains melt like wax before the LORD, before the Lord of the whole world! (Psa. 97:1-5 CEB).

Dearly beloved, with a grateful heart to our father and God and to our Lord Jesus Christ and the blessed Holy Spirit, I welcome us all into this glorious month of MAY, the FIFTH Month of this year 2019. We thank our God for His faithfulness to keep the promises in His Word concerning our lives all through last month and the previous months since the year 2019 began. God has done marvelous and wonderful things and He keeps on doing great things for/in us. To Him alone, we give all the glory.

May, is the FIFTH MONTH of the year. In Biblical numerology, the number five (5), represents GOD'S GRACE, goodness, and favor toward humans. It is mentioned 318 times in Scripture. When we multiply this number of grace by itself, we have twenty-five (25), which represents 'grace upon grace' (John 1:16). The Ten Commandments contains two sets of five commandments. The first five commandments are related to our treatment and relationship with God, and the last five concern our relationship with other humans.

This month is, therefore, THE MONTH OF DOUBLE GRACE. God will supply His grace in abundant measures to us to help and enable us to fully engage and achieve success in anything we venture into that is in line with His will for our lives. God's favor will be unleashed to us in exceeding measures to help us succeed in everything our hands find to do. Whatever we have called this month will answer to its name. Remember: whatever Adam named the animals, so were they known (Gen. 2:19). Whatever we have called this month prophetically will manifest in your life and my life, in the name of Jesus Christ.

2019, as we know is our year of Kingdom Focus. Nothing can stop a focused person. As an eagle, focused for the catch of prey cannot miss the target, so too, as we stay focused on the plans God has for our lives this year, nothing can stop us from fulfilling God's purpose for our lives. Focus makes you unstoppable by all the devils from the pit of hell. When you fix your eyes on the goals of your life and refuse to be distracted even by the "Good things," you will fulfill God's purpose for your life and be a blessing to mankind, giving glory to God.

Apostle Paul makes us understand from scriptures that we all have a race that is set before us. He encourages that we run the race with patience and endurance, looking unto Jesus (Heb. 12:1-2). The reason he says we should look unto Jesus is so that we are not distracted. Paul himself practiced this. That is why writing to the believers in the Church of Philippi, he said:

Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:13-14 (NKJV)

Paul here was saying, "I do not condone with distractions. I forget the past and I press forward. I am a focused person." No one can be distracted and focused at the same time. Distractions are enemies to a focused lifestyle. Distractions are enemies of success because focus, is a foundational platform for success. God Himself understood this and that is why He told Joshua when He was commissioning him as leader of the Israelites in the desert:

*"Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them—the children of Israel. Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the Great Sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your territory. No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life; as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not leave you nor forsake you. Be strong and of good courage, for to this people you shall divide as an inheritance the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, that you may observe to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; DO NOT TURN FROM IT TO THE RIGHT HAND OR TO THE LEFT, that you may prosper wherever you go. This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and of good courage; do not be afraid, nor be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go."*

Joshua 1:2-9 (NKJV)

When God told Joshua not to turn from the Word of God to the right hand or to the left, He was instructing Joshua to make sure he is not distracted because that will prevent him from succeeding. Distractions are thus an enemy to success in any area of life including winning the prize of the race that God has set before us.

This month, therefore, our prophetic theme is:

NO DISTRACTIONS

SETTING YOUR EYES ON THE PRIZE OF THE HIGH CALLING OF GOD IN YOUR LIFE

1 Kings 20:39-40/Matthew 6:22-23/Proverbs 4:25/Hebrews 12:1-2

All through this month of May, we are going to study scriptural accounts of both those who were distracted and those who were not distracted from the calling of God in their lives. We are going to see how distractions in life can derail a man from fulfilling God's purpose for his life. We will also identify some of the common distractions of today that may hinder us from fulfilling purpose. We are going to also see how we can put away these distractions so that we can win the prize of the race set before us as we focus on the finish line.

We will begin the month on the altar of Fasting and Prayers, as our custom is. My prayer is that on this prayer and Fasting altar, we will be connected to the Spirit that Jesus had, the Spirit of FOCUS that made Him focus only on the mission that He was sent here on earth to accomplish. As we fellowship with the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit on the altar of Fasting and Prayers, and as we engage the WORD platform, may our eyes be opened to see the things that are out to distract us from fulfilling God's call in our lives and take necessary steps to stop these distractions, in the name of Jesus Christ.

May your time and my time in His presence all through this month be a glorious, life-changing and profitable one!

Jesus is Lord

Kingdom Focus Greetings.

TESTIMONIES

I remember when I became born again. I also remember the times when I sinned and felt condemned. I developed a sin consciousness that told me I was just a sinner saved by Grace. Even preachers would say that as a Christian, I was nothing but a sinner.

I believed them. At that time, I did not expect God to show up in my prayer time. I felt that either I was not worthy or that God was too busy to answer a sinner like me. Each time I would pray, I would repent of my sins and kept repeating the same confession each time I go before God. I did this out of habit because I was trained to be sin conscious. I became stagnant, and had so much confidence in my old sins...nothing was working in my spiritual life.

I wanted more of God but I was short of. I spent several hours in the Word and went to Church and Bible studies... but nothing changed. I was desperate... I was hungry... I needed God but God was so far from me; not because God wanted to be far from me, but because I had a wrong mindset. I was a Christian but felt completely empty. I was like an empty basin under the rain.... Worst still, I considered myself as unworthy... unworthy to stand before His presence, unrighteous, a sinner.... those were my daily confessions.

But one day....I came across these scriptures (Romans 3, 2Corinthians 2). That was the day my paradigm shifted and since then, things have changed and I'm growing daily in His grace and love.

Lesson: (Romans 3: 20-26): Righteousness = Justification and we're justified by Faith. The word justified means: Declared righteous. So when we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Don't let your past, your sins hold you down. Jesus paid the price for your justification. Jesus loves you for who you are and He's always ready to mold, shape and transform your life to His image and likeness. Jesus doesn't condemn! The Bible says there's therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus (Rom. 8:1).

As the Holy Spirit is ministering to you right now, surrender your life to Jesus: repent of your sins and follow Him....

 I want us to know that the battle is not won just because we have received a new nature. Our flesh still wants to return to some of the same sinful things we did prior to our acceptance of Christ. We have to renew our minds to the reality that we are no longer the same person we used to be. We have a new nature. We are now by nature the righteousness of God.*

My new identity is: "I am the righteousness of God in Christ."

Jesus loves you. May the Lord bless you and cause His Light to shine upon you and give you peace.

Much Love.

BE LOVE, AS YOUR FATHER IN HEAVEN IS LOVE

— Agnes N. Kema

Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.
1 John 4:8 (N I V)

As children of God, we have been commanded to love. Why? Because our Father in heaven is love. But how? How can we show or reflects the kind of love that God is?

You can only give/share/reflects what you have. If you don't have God's kind of love, you will not be able to love as He loves.

Being love as God is, will need sacrifices which may take you out of your comfort zone. This is exactly what Jesus did. He left the comfort of heaven, sacrificed His life in order to reconcile us to God, the Father. If God first loved us sinners and called us to Himself, we must also demonstrate this kind of love to the unbelievers, the poor, the weak, the homeless etc.

We can only love like God, when we make the decision to love others, no matter what they do; no matter their conditions; no matter their status. Not every rich man has love or is shown love. This is where we can step in to share the love of God in their hearts whenever the situation arises, not expecting anything back. We demonstrate God's love when we are there for the poor, the weak, the sick, those in prison, knowing fully well that they can never reward you for doing what you are doing. And while you are sharing God's love, let the joy of God be seen also in you. Amen

To love is a decision only you can make. No man can make that decision for you, not even God. He has given us the freedom to do what we know is right. He has also given us the grace to overcome the flesh, so as to act according to His will.

I pray that we will not give excuses why we cannot love in the manner God wants us to: but will sacrifice our time, money and others resources just to show love to God's creations, in the name of Jesus. I pray that we will make a commitment today to leave our comfort zones and begin to demonstrate the love of God. Amen.

POST-RESURRECTION ENCOUNTERS WITH THE RISEN LORD

(40 DAYS OF HIS MANIFEST PRESENCE)

Dr. Sebastien-Caleb Kema Kema

³ to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them during forty days and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

Acts 1:3 (NKJV)

³ For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴ and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures, ⁵ and that He was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve. ⁶ After that He was seen by over five hundred brethren at once, of whom the greater part remain to the present, but some have fallen asleep. ⁷ After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. ⁸ Then last of all He was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.

1 Corinthians 15:3-8 (NKJV)

The grave could not contain Jesus. The grave could not hold Him captive. In fulfilment of prophecy, three days after He was buried, He rose from the dead. After rising from the dead, scripture is clear that he showed Himself to His disciples for 40 Days before He was taken up to heaven. From the encounters He had with His disciples within these 40 Days, and they benefited. What were these benefits?

1. He opened their eyes to understand scriptures (Luke 24:16-31/45).
2. He unveiled God's plan and purpose for their lives (John 21:15-17).
3. He ended their toil and supernaturally gave them a breakthrough from their labors (Jhn 21:5-6).
4. He unveiled to them the deep secrets of the Kingdom (Acts 1:3).
5. He calmed the storms of their lives (John 20:21).
6. He unleashed miracles, signs, and wonders (Acts 1:3).
7. He breathed into them the breath of Life, the quickening Spirit that quickened their mortal bodies (John 20:22/Romans 8:11).

But from scriptures, we also understand that, Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever (Heb. 13:8). Thus, what He did to the disciples of old, He can still do today if we will only rightly position ourselves as the first disciples did. How should we position ourselves during these 40 days post-resurrection and pre-ascension, in order to receive the benefits just like the disciples of old?

1. Engage in effective Praise and Worship of God (Luke 24:36-40, 53/Psalm 22:3).
2. Engage the altar of Fasting and Prayers (Acts 10:9-24/29).
3. Engage in Effective Study and meditation of the Word (1 Samuel 3:21/Joshua 1:8/Psalm 119:99).
4. Commit to effective and profitable kingdom service (Mark 16:14-20/John 14:21).
5. Commit to Church Service and Fellowship (Psalm 132:14-15/Zephaniah 3:17).

As you commit yourself to have an encounter with the risen Lord, He will manifest Himself to you, for your benefit and benefit of others and to the glory of His name.

JESUS IS RISEN! JESUS IS ALIVE! JESUS IS LORD!

PRACTICING GOD'S PRESENCE

Pastor Crystabelle Ferim

To Practice God's presence, we must always be in His Presence

As a youth in the church, I was part of our choir and I enjoyed Saturday evening sessions with new songs and opportunities to dance and make melody. One of the key focuses of our meetings was ensuring that we had pre-practiced before we came. This was serious because we had to prove we knew the songs by singing them exactly like the artist or at least close to what we had listened to.

Many weeks we had shamefaced people who had forgotten to rehearse and could not follow everyone else. Practice, which is defined as the application of an idea, is a necessity for anything we want to be experts in.

Many people ask how one can practice God's presence. Let's look in the manual. The Psalmist says:

¹O God, You are my God; Early will I seek You; My soul thirsts for You; My flesh longs for You In a dry and thirsty land Where there is no water. ²So I have looked for You in the sanctuary, To see Your power and Your glory. ³Because Your lovingkindness is better than life, My lips shall praise You. ⁴Thus I will bless You while I live; I will lift up my hands in Your name. ⁵My soul shall be satisfied as with ⁶marrow and fatness, And my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips. ⁷When I remember You on my bed, I meditate on You in the night watches. ⁸Because You have been my help, Therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice. ⁹My soul follows close behind You; Your right hand upholds me.

Psalm 63:1-8 New King James Version (NKJV)

There are certain steps to take in practicing God's presence. According to the above Psalm, lovers of God must:

1. Seek God Early.

God should be the first one we talk to in the morning. We must not just say hello but look put for Him. When we seek Him with all our hearts, we will find Him.

2. Our Souls must Thirst for God.

Psalm 42:7 says as the deer pants for the waters so we must long after God. Until we are thirsty, we cannot be filled. A Christian who has lost their sense of thirst is a dead Christian. To practice God's presence we must keep our thirst for God alive.

3. Our flesh must Long for God.

See, our flesh very often has it's own desires, but if we can subject those desires to the will of the Father, then we stand a better chance of having the Spirit lead us and staying in the atmosphere of His presence.

4. We must Look for God in the Sanctuary.

Staying together in the company of other believers will encourage you. Fellowship in the house of God will keep you vibrant for Him. Do not forsake the assembling of yourselves together.

5. Remember Him upon your Bed and Meditate on Him Late at Night.

God is 'an every second' or every day issue. There is never a time we can just let up on God or take a break. Just as we seek Him early we should meditate upon Him in the night watches. To practice His presence, we must always be in His presence.

6. Our Souls must Follow Hard after Him.

That is called desperation. We must get to a point of desperation with the Lord. Anything outside of that is a child's play.

Practicing God's presence is intentional. It takes the entirety of our beings. Once you get familiar with His presence, then we know His heart.

Start today. You have no time to waste

PASTORS ACCORDING TO GOD'S HEART

and I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding (Jeremiah 3:15).

The call of a Pastor or a Minister into the ministry of the Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ (in whatever capacity you are called into) is one of the greatest privileges any man or woman can ever have. What an honour to have a part in influencing lives on matters that have eternal significance and reward!

This "Holy Assignment" however, because of the varied and complex responsibilities that it entails sometimes seems so daunting, challenging and frustrating too! During such moments, some Servants of God would feel so overwhelmed and would wish to back-out - drop the cherished plough or look back! Quite often, these experiences happen during some moments of solitude, meditation or self-appraisal, when the Man or Woman of God will suddenly hear a voice - very authoritative and audible (and sometimes very still), but questioning: "Are you sure you are really called by God!" Interestingly too, this voice sometimes also comes from significant others - real flesh and blood: some members of your flock, counselees, board of directors or deacons, presbytery, senior or junior colleagues, staffs, spouse, children, neighbours, friends, family members or the press and more.

Know that you are not the first Man or Woman of God who has heard such a voice questioning your call into ministry. Both the veterans and the young ministers of the Gospel of Christ are hearing such voices. Even those who had labored in the Service of our Lord Jesus Christ in generations past and are now resting with the Lord also heard such a voice. Some of them fell prey and had a shipwreck in their ministries. Others rose up in faith, renewing the strength in the Lord through the Word and in the power of the Holy Ghost; continuing steadfastly in the faith, and in the Service of the Lord Jesus, doing exploits for the Kingdom of our Christ, winning the "trophy" of persistence and patience in ministry and eventually left us such visible legacies that will remain a mighty blessings to this generation and those to come! I trust you will be among the overcomers, in Jesus Name!

Now, the Lord God, the Lord of the Work has not left His Servants without a word of exhortation, comfort and encouragement. Jeremiah 3:15 which is our text of reference, succinctly declares to us that the Lord himself is the Caller and Giver of His Pastors - according to His heart and not according to man's whims, caprices, policies, principles and practices nor any merit on our part. The Lord does not call only those who are strong or the rich, the educated, intelligent or talented. "For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called, but God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty" (I Corinthians 1:26-27). Yes, those He saves, He nurtures, matures, equips and calls for the Work He has divinely prepared for them.

The famous Apostle Paul also faced such challenging times in the course of his ministry and I think, reasons he made it a point of absolute importance, to assert in almost all his Epistles his calling. I remember one beloved Minister who often says this: "If nobody encourages me, I will encourage myself by myself!"

"Paul a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God (Romans 1:1);

"Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead" (Galatians 1:1);

"But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles

PRAYER CONFESSIONS AND DECLARATIONS

THANKSGIVING 1: Father, in the name of Jesus, thank You for hearing and answering all our prayers, both as individuals and as a Church all through this Fasting and Prayer month of January 2019. We are grateful that You inclined Your ears to our prayers and answered them all. Let Your name be praised forever.

(Isaiah 65:24/Psalm 66:19)

THANKSGIVING 2: Father, in the name of Jesus, thank You for empowering every ECDOC Family Member and all our partners and friends and members of all the Churches we are divinely connected to, to go from strength to strength from the altar of Fasting and Prayers all through this month of January 2019.

(Psalm 84:7/Isaiah 40:31/Isaiah 45:24)

KINGDOM ADVANCEMENT PRAYER 1:

Father, in the name of Jesus, let Your Angels take over our harvest fields of ECDOC and the harvest fields of all our partners and friends, and all the Churches we are connected to, drafting in abiding multitudes all through this year.

(Matthew 13:39/Revelation 14:15)

KINGDOM ADVANCEMENT PRAYER

2: Father, in this month of Divine Planting, ESTABLISH ALL NEW CONVERTS AND NEW MEM-

BERS here in ECDOC and in all True Bible Believing Churches worldwide, especially the Churches we are directly connected to, including all those of our partners for their proper nourishment and growth.

(Psalm 92:13-15/John 15:16/Isaiah 60:21/Isaiah 61:3)

PRAYER DECLARATION: Scriptures instructions are given for my benefit. God has not changed. The scriptural instructions He gave one that are eternal biblical principles are still relevant today. When God told Joshua during His commission service, after the death of Moses, as the next leader of Israel, not to look to the left or to the right as he meditated on the Word of God, God meant that Joshua should not be DISTRACTED..

This month is the month of NO DISTRACTION. I refuse to be distracted by anything that seeks y attention. I refuse to be distracted by even the things that are good but are not from God. I refuse to be distracted by what is not beneficial to the call of God in my life. With God as my helper, I will not be distracted; I will remain fixus and fix my eyes on the mark of the priz of the high calling of God in my life. Hallelujah!

UNANSWERED PRAYER

Sister Lily Boshey

How the King rejoices in your strength, O LORD! He shouts with joy because you give him victory. For you have given him his heart's desire; you have withheld nothing he requested.

(Psalm 21:1-2)

Just last week, I was desperately in need of money. I almost had no money to feed on, and to make things worse, I had a debt to pay and the deadline was fast approaching. I set out to borrow and praise God, after knocking unsuccessfully at so many doors, one finally opened. I was able to pay my debt but still needed money for food. I had cried out to God and lo and behold, just some few days after, I received a miraculous call for a five days holiday job. The Lord answered my prayer. And I'm still thrilled.

In Psalm 21, we see an attitude that is worth emulating by every believer-the attitude of thanking God for answers to prayers. In the previous Psalm, the people had joined their king, David, to pray for victory and protection as he went into battle. And in Psalm 21, it would seem that the victory prayed for and trusted in has been realized and David and his people thanked God for the victory given.

God had given him victory. Yes, He had given him his heart's desire and had not withheld anything he had requested for. Answered prayers should have a special place in the life of every believer. Every child of God should know the thrill of frequent wonderful answers to prayer. When a Christian does not enjoy the blessing of answered prayer it is because they are prayerless, praying wrongly or because of some hindrance in prayer.

Dear reader, there are many reasons why our prayers could go unanswered. And unanswered prayers should be regarded as a signal that there may be a problem. It could be the problem of selfish praying (James 4:3); it could be the problem of disobedience (1 John 5:14-15); it could also be because of unbelief (Mathew 17:20-21); it could be because of a bad marriage relationship (1 Peter 3:7). Our prayers could also go unanswered because of unconfessed sin (James 5:16), not praying according to God's will (1 John 5:14-15), sin against others (Mathew 5:23-24). We could also experience unanswered prayers if our prayers are cold and passionless (James 5:16-18) and so on. Nevertheless the avoidance of these things do not earn or merit God's response. Yet they are clearly hindrances to answered prayer.

Pause and reflect about your prayer life. Can you, like David and his people take joy in such a great and loving God who answers prayers? If not consider the points mentioned above or any others you may know, and do your best to work things out with God and begin to enjoy the thrill of answered prayer.

Prayer: Thank You Prayer Answering God. For You have given me my heart's desire and have withheld nothing I requested. Amen.

Kingdom Entrepreneurship and Characteristics

Caroline Bate

ALTHOUGH there are no required traits that all entrepreneurs must possess, there are certain characteristics that most successful entrepreneurs do share. According to the University of Illinois Center for Economic and Financial Education, the following characteristics are common amongst entrepreneurs:

1. Ability to Plan

Entrepreneurs are self-motivated, willing to work hard, having the ability to develop business plans that meet goals in a variety of areas, including finance, marketing, production, sales, and personnel.

2. Communication Skills

Entrepreneurs should be able to explain, discuss and sell their goods or services through good strategic communication channels.

3. Marketing Skills

Good marketing skills, which result in people wanting to buy goods or services, are critical to entrepreneurial success.

4. Interpersonal Skills

The ability to establish and maintain positive relationships with customers and clients, employees, financial lenders, investors, lawyers, and accountants, among others, is crucial to the success of the entrepreneur's business venture.

5. Basic Management Skills

Even if entrepreneurs hire others to deal with the day-to-day tasks of the business, entrepreneurs need to know whether their company has the correct resources.

6. Leadership Skills

The ability to develop a vision for the company and to inspire employees to pursue it is imperative for success.

I would like to add that after possessing all the above physical skills, nevertheless, a Kingdom entrepreneur still requires faith in God to succeed. A Christian should understand that working in faith is a virtue that pleases God and can move you to other different dimensions of breakthroughs in your business ventures.

On the issue of faith Jesus said, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it will obey you" (Luke 17:6 NIV). There is a deep spiritual meaning here. Notice how that Jesus said the tree is "planted in the sea" and not just carelessly 'thrown' or 'floating' upon the sea like sea weeds or other water plants do. This means that faith makes impossible things to happen not only spiritually but physically too since trees cannot naturally grow or be planted in water. Faith can 'plant' a tree in water as if that water is a natural dry ground. Faith can make an unusual place to become naturally usual.

So with your faith you can plant your business even in the most 'unnatural or unusual' place and "it will obey you" and it will succeed just like Isaac sowed in a famine land and reaped a hundred fold the same year (not another year... The same year) Genesis 26:12-33.

Until you leave your comfort zone, and begin, you will not understand how God can make the impossible possible in your life and business, as a kingdom focus entrepreneur. God wants to position you to different levels of authority and breakthroughs but do you have faith even if it is as small as a mustard seed?

It is possible to put goals and not achieve them. This so probably because we did not set SMART (Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant and Time-bound) goals; we did not ask the right questions; we did not connect with the right people; we did not take opportunities when the time was right; we kept procrastinating and lots more. or sites is a dangerous thing. It is like treading on dangerous waters.

Are you asking questions from professionals or just anybody because you think it is all information anyways? Mind you, you might be setting yourself up for failure.

Here we are emphasizing on asking questions. Are we asking questions at all? If we are not, why? If we are, are we asking the right questions? If we are, who are we asking these questions to? This brings me once again to the kind of people we are connected to, the kinds of sites we do research on and all.

Funny as it sounds, the Bible is one book with lots of answers but the Holy Spirit get to teach you all the truths in it. Connect with Him in a special way and ask those questions and thank me later.

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I come today to ask you a very important and crucial question of life. Yes, I ask you this question because many people are mistaken to think that life here on earth is the only life we have. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book, the Bible, that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity is dependent on what you do now on earth to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a very interesting conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?"

(John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus clearly tells Nicodemus that except a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter the Kingdom of God or see it. Jesus went to explain that to be born again, is to be born of water and the Spirit.

From scripture, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water and the Spirit is essentially to be born by the Word of God. This is exactly what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God."

(1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the word of God? The apostle Paul gave the answer when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved."

(Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

From what Paul says, two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe that He came to save mankind from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay, which is death: the wages of sin is death. You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. Our sins were all put on him as scripture says (Isa. 53:6) and He died in our place. You must also then believe that He was buried and on the third day He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these, and confess Jesus as Lord, then, you are born again.

Born again is not the name of a church as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born again Christian. Sorry: there is nothing like born again Christian. All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and savior.

It is outright foolishness to not believe the word of God and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, I beseech you, in the name of the Lord to follow God's ways as outlined in His word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation. YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are not sure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to just get born again now. Just as we have seen above, all you need to do is believe in your heart that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer, sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe that You sent Jesus Christ Your Son to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried and on the third day He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I therefore confess Him as Lord and savior of my life. I am now a new creation according to scriptures. Old things are passed away. I am now born again and all things have now become new. Thank You Lord for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a new born baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get yourself into a true Bible believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Also make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Read the Bible daily because God's word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Above all, do not forsake fellowship and live a consecrated life, set apart for God. God will therefore use you as a vessel of honor, blessing mankind, and giving Him glory.

Welcome to the family of God and God bless you!

PROPHETIC DECLARATION FOR THE YEAR 2019

Kingdom Focus

I am a focused kingdom child. My eyes are fixed on Jesus; my heart is steadfast; my mind is stayed on God and set on things above and not on things on earth.

I refuse to look to the left or to the right. I am focused by the grace and power of God in my life, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of my faith in order to fulfil purpose for the benefit of mankind and to God's glory, in the name of Jesus.
