THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE

Dr. Kema Kema

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh. For THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ,

(2 Corinthians 10:3-5 NKJV)

As believers of Jesus Christ, we are constantly in battle. The Bible is full of battle phrases such as, “Fight the good fight of faith” (1 Tim. 6:12), “We wrestle not against flesh and blood” (Eph. 6:12), “Resist the devil” (James 4:7), “Do not give satan a foothold” (Eph. 4:27). But we must understand that the battle we fight is not physical; it’s a spiritual one. Paul meant this when writing to the Corinthian believers: “For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh.”

Clearly, there is a war we MUST fight. There is no escaping. Becoming a Christian automatically enlists you in this fight. This a continuous battle that will end only when we are no longer in this world. As long as we are in this world, though not of this world, the fight is on.

The question is, WHAT IS THIS BATTLE? It is the battle for the control of the mind. Why the mind? The mind is the seat of our thoughts, which are very important. It is written: “... As a man thinks in his heart, so is he” (Prov. 27:3). So, your thoughts determine how your life goes. That’s why the first thing Satan attacks when he shows up, is your mind. This is what he did when he intruded the Garden of Eden. He flooded Eve’s mind and sowed seeds of doubt, causing her to doubt God’s Word, eventually leading them to disobey God.

The serpent was the shrewdest of all the wild animals the LORD God had made. One day he asked the woman, “Did God really say you must not eat the fruit from any of the trees in the garden?” “Of course we may eat fruit from the trees in the garden,” the woman replied. “It’s only the fruit from the tree in the middle of the garden that we are not allowed to eat. God said, ‘You must not eat it or even touch it; if you do, you will die.’” “You won’t die!” the serpent replied to the woman. “God knows that your eyes will be opened as soon as you eat it, and you will be like God, knowing both good and evil.” The woman was convinced. She saw that the tree was beautiful, and its fruit looked delicious, and she wanted the wisdom it would give her. So she took some of the fruit and ate it. Then she gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it, too. At that moment, their eyes were opened, and they suddenly felt shame at their nakedness. So they sewed fig leaves together to cover themselves.

(Genesis 3:1-7 NLT)

Satan has not changed. He is still doing the same today.

God understands this fight, so He has not left us without weapons: “For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God...” (2 Cor. 10:4). So, we have weapons to fight this fight. These weapons are not worldly. They are godly (WORDLY) weapons. They are MIGHTY weapons because the Almighty God provides them. These weapons are effective in fighting the battle of the mind.

The weapons of our warfare are very effective:

1. They are not CARNAL WEAPONS.
2. They are MIGHTY IN GOD.
3. They PULL DOWN STRONGHOLDS.
4. They CAST DOWN ARGUMENTS.
5. They Cast down ALL HIGH THINGS THAT EXALT THEMSELVES AGAIN THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOD.
6. They can BRING EVERY THOUGHT INTO CAPTIVITY TO THE OBE-DIENCE OF CHRIST.

WHAT ARE THESE WEAPONS? Writing to the believers in Ephesus, the Apostle Paul listed some of these mighty weapons of warfare: A final word: Be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on all of God’s armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all strategies of the devil. For we are not fighting against flesh-and-blood enemies, but against evil rulers and authorities of the unseen world, against mighty powers in this dark world, and against evil spirits in the heavenly places. Therefore, put on every piece of God's armor so you will be able to resist the enemy in the time of evil. Then after the battle you will still be standing firm. Stand your ground, putting on THE BELT OF TRUTH and the body armor of GOD'S RIGHTEOUSNESS. For shoes, put on THE PEACE THAT COMES FROM THE GOOD NEWS so that you will be fully prepared. In addition to all of these, hold up the SHIELD OF FAITH to stop the fiery arrows of the devil. Put on SALVATION as your helmet, and take the SWORD OF THE SPIRIT, which is THE WORD OF GOD. PRAY IN THE SPIRIT at all times and on every occasion. Stay alert and be persistent in your prayers for all believers everywhere. And pray for me, too. Ask God to give me the right words so I can boldly explain God's mysterious plan that the Good News is for Jews and Gentiles alike. I am in chains now, still preaching this message as God's ambassador. So pray that I will keep on speaking boldly for him, as I should (Eph. 6:10-20 NLT)

The weapons we are to fight with to win the battle of the mind are:

1. Truth (The Belt of TRUTH).
2. Righteousness (The Breastplate of RIGHTEOUSNESS).
3. Peace (The Gospel of Peace).
4. Faith (The Shield of Faith).
5. Salvation (The Helmet of Salvation).
6. God's Word (The Sword of the Spirit)
7. Prayer (Praying in the Spirit).

The charge is to PUT ON EVERY PIECE OF THE ARMOR. God has already provided them. Our responsibility is to put them on. When we do, we can stand our ground and resist the devil from destroying our minds.

May the grace of the Lord help us to obey the instructions ALWAYS to put ALL the armor of God so that CONTINUOUS VICTORY IN THE WAR OF THE MIND will be ours, in the name of Jesus Christ, amen!

TESTIMINIES

OVERCOME BY TESTIMINIES

And they have overcome (conquered) him by means of the blood of the Lamb and by THE UTTERANCE OF THEIR TESTIMONY, for they did not love and cling to life even when faced with death [holding their lives cheap till they had to die for their witnessing] (Revelation 12:11 AMPC)

TESTIMONIES IN THEMSELVES ARE TESTIMONIES, BUT THE POWER THEY CARRY IS UNLEASHED WHEN WE SPEAK THE TESTIMONIES TO THE HEARING OF OTHERS BY FAITH.

Christ overcame for us when He died on the cross and was resurrected because death could not hold Him captive. In Christ Jesus, therefore, we are overcomers.

We must maintain our overcomer's position in Christ. We must enforce the victory that Christ has given us. The good news is that God did not leave us empty. He has equipped us with every weapon we need to stay as overcomers in Christ. One such weapon is TESTIMONY.

The testimonies of God's doings in your life are a powerful weapon against the devil and his cohorts. The above scripture puts the power of the blood of Jesus and the power of testimonies in the same place. In other words, I believe this scripture is pointing to us that the same power the blood of Jesus unleashes on the enemy is the same power our testimonies do. Just as we use the blood of Jesus against the enemy by faith and overcome him, testifying by faith crushes and destroys the enemy. Faith is what unleashes the power in the testimonies. We must believe in our testimonies and recognize that God is the Mastermind behind everything.

We must testify in faith because FAITH IS THE VICTORY THAT OVERCOMES (1 John 5:4). There can be no talk of overcoming when faith is not in place. Faith is the trigger that unleashes the bullets in testimonies to destroy the devil. Testimonies in themselves are testimonies. But the power they carry is released when we speak the testimonies to the hearing of others by faith.

We understand from the scriptures that the spirit of faith believes and speaks (2 Cor. 4:13). So, we release the power that knocks out the enemy whenever we utter our testimonies by faith and with faith. David overcame Goliath using the testimonies of his mouth. Each time you are confronted with a problem or a challenge, remind the devil of what God has done for you. Tell the devil about the workings of God in your life. This is precisely what David did when he was face to face with Goliath (See 1 Samuel 17).

Below is the testimony of one of our sisters who was favored and treated differently while in detention and released by the words of her testimonies. Be blessed by it. Remember! God is no respecter of persons. What He does for one, He can do for you also. Key into this testimony and see it replicate in your life and walk out of any spiritual, mental, emotional, physical, or financial detention that the enemy may have out you.

TESTIMONY

I want to testify to God's goodness, divine favor, and grace. On the 25th of May, my colleague and I were arrested by the immigration police in the country I reside for teaching illegally. I teach in a school, and because the company that runs the school cannot get me a work visa, I am considered illegal. On the first day of the arrest, we were taken and questioned at the police station. The next day, we were transferred to the detention center.

When we were arrested, our phones were taken from us. But after questioning, they gave us the phones and asked us to contact our loved ones and inform them of the situation. I immediately dropped a note to Pastor Kema Kema but did not get an immediate reply.

At the detention center, we met other foreigners: a North Korean lady who had been there for three years and a Ugandan lady who had stayed there for three weeks. Upon arriving, I told them that I would be there for 15 days and be released, and the other lady I came with would stay there for 20 days and be deported because her documents were not current. The ladies we met there told us that from their experience, those who come there spend more days than said before they are released or deported. I told them my case was different, and God brought me there for a purpose. I also told them that I would spend less than or exactly 15 days there. The other girls laughed at me, not believing what I said.

I was never negative. I kept believing in God for my release. I was surprised at the excellent treatment my boss gave us. Two days into detention, she sent us money to buy food. She also told me they were waiting for me.

While there, I read the memoirs written by those who had been detained in the past and never saw anywhere anyone left the day they were told they would go.

On day 15 of my detention, the police came, opened the gate, and let me go. Something that had never happened because you are asked to sign some papers when you are released. I called my boss and informed her of my release. She asked me to meet her somewhere. When I got there, she was happy to see me and told me they had been waiting for me and were planning to get the proper documents for me to work legally.

My colleague is still there, one month plus. But I believe my positive confessions and trust in God, with unshakable faith, got me out of there. I want to give God all the glory. He heard my prayers and the prayers of those who interceded for my release. Let His name be praised. Hallelujah!

INVESTING IN THE LIVES OF YOUR CHILDREN

Atem N. Kema

Start children off on the way they should go, and even when they are old, they will not turn from it.

Proverbs 22:6 NIV

Are you a parent? Do you have people under your care? Are you overseeing a set of people?

If you fall into any of these categories, you are a parent. And we are commanded to bring up these children in the way they should go so that when you are not there, they will not turn away from such principles. In doing this, our mission as parents is complete.

But how can we invest in our children's lives or the lives of those under our care so that when they grow up or move away from us, they will keep to such principles? The truth is we can't, but by God's grace, it is possible.

ASK GOD FOR HELP

Whenever a new family member is added, there is unspeakable joy. And some people will be so happy and forget that this particular bundle of joy has come with many responsibilities. So from day one, while we celebrate their coming, let's ask God for help to bring them up in the way God wants us to. By ourselves, we will fail; by the wisdom of this world, we will fail double because the enemy will get a grip on our child (God forbid that should happen to any of our children in the name of Jesus. Amen). So we can only ask God for grace and wisdom in bringing them in the way they should go.

TEACH BY EXAMPLE

As parents or guidance, we are prompted to think that our kids or those under our care will deliberately listen to us because we are adults or older. That is so far from the truth. Instead, they copy what we do rather than what we tell them to do. So if we want them to pray, be a prayerful parent; if we want them to go to church, make going to church as important as going shopping. Never missed going to church for any reason, unless in the face of life and death. If we want them to be kind, let's show kindness without discrimination, and it will stick in their minds.

PRAY FOR THEM, AND NEVER STOP PRAYING FOR THEM

When children grow up and are about to leave their homes, about 90% of them always think of freedom. And it is at this time the enemy would want to make all your investment in their lives worthless. If you have never prayed for your children, this is the time to set aside time to pray for them. If you have been praying, pray like never before. So that all they have learned will keep coming to their minds and help them go through life. Pray for them to seek a place of true fellowship. Pray for the spirit of discernment for them. Pray for wisdom in decision-making for them, that they will not call you all the time for you to help them make the right decision, but they will make the right decisions on their own. Pray that they will not be ashamed of their faith in Christ, but they will be advocates of true Christianity. Whatever the Lord lays in your heart to pray for your children, whether young or old, do not hesitate. Get on your feet/knees and start praying. Lastly, pray that they will love the Word of God. They will enjoy reading, studying, and meditating on the Word of God as their lifestyle. When they do, their spiritual lives will grow so strong that you shall have rest in the Lord.

LET'S PRAY

Father, we thank You for the gifts of children, biological, spiritual, and foster children. You gave them to us because You know we are up to the task, so we thank You. Lord, by ourselves and our wisdom, we will not be able to bring them up in a manner pleasing to You. So we ask, Lord, that You teach us to bring them up in the fear of You. Please give us the wisdom to settle disputes lovingly. Teach us to be true to ourselves and them so that they will not be confused with what we are telling them to do and what we are doing. Only in Your grace can we bring them uprightly. Lord, we ask for and receive that grace today in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Every nation, tribe and organization have their own culture. They normally would not drift from it because, by their culture, we know and understand who they are.

The online dictionary defines culture as all the ways of life, including arts, beliefs and institutions of art population that are passed down from generation to generation. Because cultures are preserved, other generations can enjoy their richness.

An example of a passed-down culture is family recipes passed down from one generation to another. Any change of ingredients or steps renders the recipe faulty. It only brings out the right product when the recipe is followed correctly.

What is the Kingdom Culture for believers in an age when anything goes? Mathew 20 to 23 gives us the likelihood of the kingdom of God. A kingdom that welcomes everyone yet expects specific standards to be kept. Kingdom culture is living in such a manner that the kingdom of God is upheld and respected in every way and is reflected in a good light. We are children of grace, yet grace is not an occasion of the flesh. We cannot use the freedom God has given us to sin against Him.

Our Kingdom Culture is one of integrity, uprightness, love, holiness and sacrifice. Our culture is well understood by God and an expectation He has for us. Conversely, men judge our actions by what our kingdom proposes and what we exhibit. Because men watch us for the above, we must do like 2 Cor 8:21 says: "For we are taking pains to do what is right, not only in the eyes of the Lord but also on the eyes of man." Philippians 4:8 sums it up in the most amazing way: "Finally brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable; if anything is excellent or praiseworthy, think about such things."

A believer who practices the above verse can also showcase it to the world. When the world sees us, they must not be confused about who we are or are not. Our culture should permeate through our every action and speech.

Like every culture has principles and characteristics about them, so too does our Kingdom culture. We cannot adjust ourselves to other cultures to win them. We should rather present ourselves most uniquely to those around us, and those who have ears will hear and comply.

- A dying world does not need one more Christian to conform to its ways.
- A dying world does not need more encouragement toward destruction.
- A dying world does not need lukewarmness.
- A dying world does not need another Christian to tell them to do whatever they want.

What a dying world truly needs is a Christian who understands Kingdom culture and expresses it daily by demonstrating it through love yet uncompromising to its standards.

You have been called into a superior Kingdom; you cannot drag it in the mud. You need to uphold what you have been given and express the true beauty of a culture fueled by love and leading men to Christ.

FAITH IN GOD, THE ANTIDOTE TO FEAR

Lily Bosney

I look up to the hills, but where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth
(Psalm 121:1-2)

I look up to the hills, but where does my help come from? My help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth (Psalm 121:1-2). With wars in the nations, economic hardship, and pandemics, it is obvious we live in unusual times. Many live in fear of what the future may bring, but it shouldn't be the case for the child of God. God wants us to trust Him and not be afraid, to lean on Him and not on our understanding. Bible scholars say 365 times in the Bible that the child of God is commanded not to be afraid. This means, therefore, that we have a "don't be afraid" for every day of every year, for the rest of our lives, hallelujah!

When David wrote the Psalm above, he was saying that when we need help, we have to cast our vision not on our circumstances but far above them unto the Lord, where our help comes from.

WE HAVE TO CAST OUR VISION NOT ON OUR CIRCUMSTANCES BUT FAR ABOVE THEM UNTO THE LORD, WHERE OUR HELP COMES FROM.

Our circumstances make us look down and focus on all the wrong things, but the call for the child of God is for them to look up. To look up to Jesus.

The apostle Paul admonishes us in Colossians 3:1-3 to fix our eyes on Christ, our Saviour, who is from above so that we can always remember that we too are from above and our help comes from there.

God never told us that because we were His children, we'll be exempted from life's troubles. Jesus tells us that in this world we'll have many trials and sorrows, but that we should take heart for He has overcome the world (John 16:33). So the child of God has a choice to make when trouble hits, to either take heart, as Jesus commanded or to let their heart fail. When faced with circumstances beyond our control, we can either have a firm reliance on God or have an unhealthy alliance with fear. The choice is entirely ours to make.

David, though a mighty warrior, also faced circumstances that made him afraid, but he resolved to lift his eyes above his circumstances to God, who alone could help him. In one of his early Psalms, he says, "When I am afraid, I will trust in you." (Psalm 56:3). To remain in faith is our choice to make. 1 John 4:18 tells us that perfect love drives out all fear. So if we know that God is perfect love, then in order to drive out fear, we need to get more of Him. The way the believer deals with fear is to get more of Jesus and trust Him. And where else can we get more of Jesus than in our bibles? 2 Timothy 1:7 tells us God has not given us the spirit of fear. He's given us a sound mind instead. So as we navigate our everyday life, we have to trust God, read and study our Bibles and allow the Word of God to bathe our minds and enable us to get God's perspective of things.

The antidote to fear is faith. Faith in God. Precisely. Corrie Ten Boom, who survived a Nazi prison camp and had a remarkable ministry, said, "Worry does not empty tomorrow of its sorrows. It empties today of its strength." God wants His children strong in spite of the circumstances surrounding them. We are weakened by worry but strengthened by God. So in these unpredictable days that we live in, we know what to do, dear child of God; to not be afraid but lift and focus our eyes on the One who has our times in His hands.

CONFESSON:

God is my salvation. Therefore I will trust in Him and not be afraid. Hallelujah!

FOUR QUALITIES OF A CHRIST-CENTERED BUSINESS (AND WHAT A CHRIST-CENTERED BUSINESS IS NOT)

Darren Shearer

Should businesses be “Christ-centered”? Or is that calling reserved for your local church?

Most Christian business professionals are employed within “Babylonian” organizational cultures. Unlike Daniel, Shadrach, Meshech, and Abednego, these Christians in “Babylonian” businesses won’t be thrown into a lion’s den or a fiery furnace. However, the corporate cultures in which they perform their jobs usually discourage public expressions of their Christian faith. Yet, they can still make an impact for Christ from within these organizations.

For those of us that live in a free society and are called and gifted to be entrepreneurs and business leaders, how much more do we have opportunities to shape the culture of our businesses? We can dedicate our businesses to God and submit them to his purposes and strategies.

Before discussing what a “Christ-Centered Business” is, I must share what it is not.

IT’S NOT ABOUT ONLY HIRING CHRISTIANS

Refusing to hire anyone except Christians is illegal (at least in the United States). Not only is it illegal, but such a practice would also prevent a business from fulfilling a crucial part of its redemptive purpose: being salt and light among unbelievers in the workplace. Jesus spent a significant portion of his time with unbelievers. If we’re not working with unbelievers, our business probably isn’t being Christ-Centered.

IT’S NOT ABOUT BEING “CHURCHY.”

Being a Christ-Centered Business is not about packing your employees into the conference room, playing worship music, and bringing in your pastor to preach to them. It’s not about transplanting local church service models into a business setting.

IT’S NOT NECESSARILY ABOUT BEING FINANCIALLY PROSPEROUS

If we define prosperity only in terms of money and influence, it’s not enough to say, “Christ-Centered businesses prosper more than businesses led by non-Christians.” Many businesses led by non-Christians are on the Fortune 500, Inc. 500, and other lists of the most successful companies in the world. Jesus explains this phenomenon by saying God “causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous” (Matt. 5:45b).

IT’S ABOUT MORE THAN APPLYING TIMELESS PRINCIPLES

The Bible is full of practical business wisdom that has proven effective in the marketplace since the beginning of economics. Christians and non-Christians can apply the Bible’s timeless business principles and experience the benefits. Therefore, it’s possible to take business principles from the Bible and leave God out of your business. God is a person, not merely a set of timeless principles.

If there is more to being a Christ-Centered business than hiring Christians only, churchiness, financial prosperity, and the application of timeless wisdom, what are the qualities by which they can be recognized? Here, I will offer to share four of those indispensable qualities.

Quality #1

Eternal Return on Investment (EROI) is the Bottom Line

The bottom line for a Christ-Centered business is not merely financial, social, environmental, or anything else that is temporary. The bottom line for a Christ-Centered business is eternal. The Bible says, “...each man’s work will become evident; for the day will show it because it is to be revealed with fire, and the fire itself will test the quality of each man’s work. If any man’s work which he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward. If any man’s work is burned up, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved, yet so as through fire” (1 Cor. 3:13-15). If it doesn’t last in eternity, it’s not the bottom line.

Quality #2

Makes disciples of Jesus

I believe the ultimate purpose of a Christ-centered business is the same as for a Christian individual: “to make disciples of all nations” (Matt. 28:19). Making disciples of Jesus in a business setting may sound more complicated than it is. The Apostle Paul simplified and defined disciple-making with this invitation: “Imitate me as I imitate Christ” (1 Cor. 11:1).

Do the business practices of your company reflect the character of Jesus Christ? In other words, does your company treat your employees, customers, clients, and other stakeholders as Jesus would? Have you invited others to follow your example? If so, you are making disciples, followers of Jesus. It’s that simple.

Quality #3

Led and Empowered by the Spirit of God

If a company is in business to fulfill the mission of God, it only makes sense that God Himself would lead the company. He leads us through the presence and voice of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

When leading the children of Israel toward the Promised Land, Moses said to God, “If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here” (Exo. 33:15). He didn’t want to move anywhere unless he was following God.

When I first started out as an entrepreneur, I hired a web developer without first praying about whether he was the right choice. To make a long story short, I ended up losing $5,000 on account of this person and had nothing to show for it. Asking God first would have prevented the loss of six months, $5,000, and my peace of mind during that frustrating season.

Quality #4

Chooses to be Accountable to Godly Advisors

The Bible says, “Where there is no guidance, the people fall, but in the abundance of counselors there is victory” (Prov. 11:14).

There are many thought leaders in and around my industry that I respect for the advice that they share. The problem is that many of them do not know God. A diet of business advice and guidance fed primarily by non-Christian thinkers will condition a person to believe that God is irrelevant to their business. As Larry Burkett said in his classic, Business by the Book, “The difficulty isn’t the advice they give; it’s the advice they don’t give, specifically, the lack of spiritual insight.”[i]

Over the past several years, I have benefitted from the business wisdom of Christian thought leaders such as Dave Ramsey, Dan Miller, Michael Hyatt, John Maxwell, and others. At the same time, I must admit that a large percentage of the business books I have read and business podcasts I have listened to were presented by non-Christian thought leaders.

In your company, make sure that you prioritize the voice of counsel from those who share your Christian values.

What are some other qualities of “Christ-Centered businesses”?

Luke 19:13 Amplified Bible

So he called ten of his servants and gave them ten minas [one apiece, each equal to about a hundred days’ wages] and said to them, ‘Do business [with this] until I return.’

THE RIGHT MINDSET FOR SUCCESS

Albert Ako Taku

Pastor Albert Taku is the Founder and Lead Pastor of the New Life Apostolic Church London. He is also the Author of the Book finding purpose and fulfilling destiny. A book aimed at empowering young people to discover, pursue and fulfil their destiny. The book also comes with a workbook. He is a seasoned teacher of the word and runs an online weekly broadcast called Word of Life. The program is broadcast on Facebook and Zoom and aims to give the listeners practical principles to live a fulfilled and victorious Christian life.

The mind is a battleground; whether in sports, in the military or life, the mind is where most battles are won or lost. Before a boxing fight, the boxers engage in mind games to try and intimidate their opponents. They know that no matter how powerful their opponent is if they can succeed to destabilize or defeat them mentally, the rest of the fight will be easy. The devil knew this secret which is why in the Garden of Eden, he planted doubt in the mind of Eve. The simple statement "Has God really said..." Gen. 3:1 planted doubts in the mind of Eve. These doubts led her to doubt God's Word about her life and caused her husband to doubt and disobey as well. We are still suffering from the long-term effects today.

The Bible says as a man thinks in his heart (mind), so is he (Prov. 23:7). The mind has a direct influence on your wellbeing and success in life. The story is told of a Goat that was tied to a stick by a rope. It could only reach the grass as far as the rope would allow. When the rope was finally removed, the goat did not go beyond where it used to reach. It was not the rope holding it back this time; it was its mind doing so.

People from some parts of the world who were previously colonized are not held back today because of physical colonization but because of mental enslavement. As Jesus said to the disciples who had just believed in Him, '...if you continue in my word, you will know the truth and the truth shall set you free' (John 8:31-33), the believer has to get themselves into God's Word to discover truths that set them free.

One of the wrong assumptions believers have is that they think once you are born again, your mind is renewed. This is wrong because being born again only renews your spirit, not your mind. You are responsible for renewing your mind through the Word, prayer, submission to the Holy Spirit, and learning. Paul told the Romans, "Don't copy the behaviour and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God's will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect." (Rom. 12:2).

God transforms us by changing how we think, but we must let Him do so and not try to resist Him. When our minds are transformed, we can know God's will for our lives, like a radio tuned to the right frequency. If we cooperate with God and do our part, God can transform our minds into powerful weapons in His hands.

What, then, are the characteristics of a transformed mind that can turn us into winning Christians?

1. A winning mind is THE MIND OF CHRIST. It is submitted to God's will and is humble and willing to serve.
2. A winning mind KNOWS ITS IDENTITY. "As a man thinks in his heart, so is he..." (Prov. 23:7). If you think you are a chicken, you will crawl like a chicken; if you think you are an Eagle, you will aim to fly high as an Eagle. David and all the men of Israel were circumcised, so they should have known they were special because of the Covenant of Circumcision God made with Abraham. Yet when they faced Goliath, only David understood his true identity. His brothers and Saul, the king, ran into holes like little foxes. A Christian with a winning mind knows they are a royal priest, a peculiar person seated in heavenly places above principality and powers.
3. A winning mind is A VISIONARY MIND. When God called Abraham, he told him of a city, Abraham did not know where the City was, but he obeyed because he saw the invisible in his mind. The same is said of Moses "By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible" (Heb. 11:27).

People who change the world have a vision of how things should be. They then go forward to implement that vision to make it a reality.

4. A winning mind is a FOCUSED MIND. To achieve much in life, you have to be focused. Paul says I do not box like one boxing the air. I focus (1 Cor. 9:26).
5. A winning mind is A TRAINED MIND. To win in life's battles, the mind must be trained. 1 Corinthians 9:25 says that anyone who wants to win a crown goes into strict training. You cannot achieve much in life if you are not willing to be trained. Even if you have a skill, to develop that skill, you will have to be trained.

The Bible says by wisdom, a house is built, and by understanding, it is established; by knowledge, the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches (Prov. 23:3-4).

6. A winning mind is A DISCIPLINED MIND. Paul says, 'Join me in suffering, like a good soldier of Christ Jesus. A soldier refrains from entangling himself in civilian affairs, in order to please the one who enlisted him. Likewise, a competitor does not receive the crown unless he competes according to the rules' (2 Tim. 2:3-5). It will take a disciplined mind to focus on and work on your objectives.
7. A winning mind is A COURAGEOUS AND RESILIENT MIND. God told Joshua three times in the same Chapter of the Bible to be strong and courageous. (Joshua 1: 6,7,9). Courage is a mental thing. It is not the absence of fear but an assurance that no matter the situation, I can still win because God is on my side. God has not given us a spirit of timidity but courage and a sound mind. (1 Timothy 1:7).
8. A winning mind is A MIND THAT IS WILLING TO DO ALL THAT GOD COMMANDS. When God commanded Abraham to offer Isaac, the Bible says Abraham obeyed because he believed that God was able to raise Isaac back to life even if he sacrificed him (Heb. 11:19). When Shadrack Meshack and Abednego refused to bow down to Nebuchadnezzar's golden statue, they told him, we will not do this because we know our God will deliver us, but even if he chose not to, we will not (Dan. 3:16-18).

God is looking for such people who are willing to obey him no matter what. He will then show up on their behalf and make them the winners He meant them to be. "I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after My own heart, who will do all My will" (Act. 13:22). Because he had the same mind Christ had, he is now seated at the right hand of the father, crowned with Glory. May you develop a transformed mind, and may that make you the Champion God wants you to be.

PASTORS ENCOURAGEMENT

ENCOURAGEMENT

FOR PASTORS

BY DR. DOUGLAS GROOTHUIS

OCTOBER 31, 2022

The pastorate is no easy job, but those who have faithfully followed the call of God into church ministry can be encouraged in several ways.

The pastorate is no easy job. One wise pastor said, “Don’t be a pastor if you can be anything else.” Gregory the Great (540–604) wrote to a young man, saying that he who was free of the burdens of pastoral care should “not recklessly pursue them and who has already attained them might tremble for having done so.” Pastoral ministry requires several dimensions of leadership: the ability to preach and teach, to administer the ordinances of the church (such as baptism and communion), to help administrate the church’s business, and to demonstrate the classic pastor’s heart toward the hurting (Isaiah 50:4). Every pastor is a target since those with more spiritual influence are subject to the many “flaming arrows” hurled by the evil one (Ephesians 6:16). Nevertheless, pastors who have faithfully followed the call of God into church ministry can be encouraged in several ways.

SPEAKING TRUTH FOR THE WORLD

While physicians care for their patient’s physical and temporal needs, pastors minister God’s truth on matters of eternal concern. A pastor’s teaching and preaching are both a great responsibility and a high calling. Paul writes that “the church of the living God” is “the pillar and foundation of the truth” (1 Timothy 3:15). No other institution has that authorization or that opportunity, and pastors are the chief communicators of biblical truth in the church.

The very idea of truth is under siege today. People say, “That’s my truth,” or appeal to “lived experience” without further support for their views. They tie truth to subjective experiences and shifting opinions, not objective realities. Thus, their personal spirituality can be anything they find significant.

Biblically faithful pastors, however, can discern and teach objective truths about God, humanity, salvation, and godly living. In this, they stand with Jesus, who said, “If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free.” (John 8:31–32). Preachers may speak “as the oracles of God” (1 Peter 4:11, KJV) to truth-hungry congregations who must not live “on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God,” as Jesus said (Matthew 4:4). Pastors are merely earthen vessels for God’s truth, but God speaks to and through them, nevertheless: “But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us” (2 Corinthians 4:7). This should bring deep encouragement to pastors, come what may.

I experienced a ministry-defining moment as a young man when preaching a text from Malachi. At one point, a hush fell over the church, and I realized the Bible had a power that transcended my abilities. I was speaking, but God was leading by his “living and active truth” (Hebrews 4:12). Knowing that you have done your level best to bring God’s truth to a listening congregation should bring gratitude and satisfaction, as it has for me over many years of interim preaching.

PRAYING AND BEING PRAYED FOR

A prayer-less pastor is a contradiction, but a praying and prayed-for pastor will not likely remain discouraged for long. One prayer that can lift a tired or discouraged pastor out of the doldrums is affirming God’s truth despite one’s feelings. Consider David’s statement within a Psalm of lament. David desperately seeks God, as verse one makes clear: As the deer pants for streams of water, so my soul pants for you, my God (Psalm 42:1). But David admits his deep concerns to God: Why, my soul, are you downcast? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Savior and my God (Psalm 42:5). After writing of other areas of dire distress, David closes the Psalm by repeating what he wrote in verse five. He probes his own soul and rouses himself according to the goodness and power of God. David does essentially the same thing in Psalm 43. He is preaching the truth to himself about God. This kind of prayer has encouraged me over my 46 years of following Christ and can encourage pastors today.

While pastors are sometimes shy about relating their struggles and needs, they should solicit prayers from their co-leaders and congregations. The apostle Paul often did so: And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should (Colossians 4:2–4). After his memorable admonition to put on “the whole armor of God” and to pray all the time for all the saints (Ephesians 6:1–18), Paul writes: Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should (Ephesians 6:19–20; see also 2 Thessalonians 3:1–3).

SAVORING PASTORAL IMPACT

The Bible repeatedly tells us to be thankful for God’s gifts to us. For example, “Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus” (1 Thessalonians 5:18), and a dark root of unbelief and ungodliness is a lack of thanksgiving (Romans

1:21). As Francis Schaeffer wrote in his classic book, True Spirituality: “A quiet disposition and a heart giving thanks at any given moment is the real test of the extent to which we love God at that moment.” We can give thanks for our salvation at any time, but we can also remember God’s work in us through ministry. Again, we quote Paul: “But Timothy has just now come to us from you and has brought good news about your faith and love. He has told us that you always have pleasant memories of us and that you long to see us, just as we also long to see you. Therefore, brothers and sisters, in all our distress and persecution we were encouraged about you because of your faith” (1 Thessalonians 3:6–7).

Paul was delighted that those he ministered to appreciated his work and were strong in their faith and love. Pastors can reflect on how God has equipped them to perform their pastoral duties, such as leading people to saving faith, equipping the saints through teaching and preaching, discipling believers to grow in grace, conducting meaningful

“Pastors can reflect on how God has equipped them to perform their pastoral duties such as leading people to saving faith, equipping the saints through teaching and preaching, discipling believers to grow in grace, conducting meaningful events such as baptisms, weddings, and funerals, and much more.”

events such as baptisms, weddings, and funerals, and much more. Much encouragement is found in savoring the good things God has done through us and returning thanks to him. Psychologists realize that gratitude is the mother of happiness—something the Bible taught us long ago.

ENCOURAGEMENT IS AVAILABLE

There are many more streams of encouragement for pastors, including proper rest and recreation, the study of Christian testimonies, and adequate exercise, but I will let the Holy Scriptures have the last word for the pastors reading this by quoting this benediction: “May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ” (Romans 15:5–6).

WHAT IS A KINGDOM MAN?

By Tony Evans

A kingdom man places himself under God's rulership and submits his life to the lordship of Jesus Christ. He also understands the important role his wife plays in his success.

God told the Israelites, as described in Exodus 34:23, that three times a year, all of their males were to appear together before Him to receive instructions. Yet when God told them to appear, He specifically called them out before the "Lord God, the God of Israel." He called them to submit themselves to His complete authority. If the men submitted, they were told that they, and those connected to them, would receive God's covering, protection, and provision. But they would receive this only if they positioned themselves under His absolute rule. So essential was this element of rulership that God used three of His names as a reminder. The Israelites were told to appear before the

- Lord ('adown)
- God (Jehova)
- God of Israel ('Elohim)

God was in charge to the third power. In using three different names for himself, God emphasized His supreme authority over the men of the nation and their accountability to Him. The same principle of God's rulership that applied to the Israelites is no different from God's rulership today. He is God — Lord God, God of Israel, master, supreme God, ruler, and judge. A kingdom man, therefore, is one who places himself under God's rulership and submits his life to the lordship of Jesus Christ. A kingdom man is a man who rules according to God's rule.

Remember that to rule something does not refer to domination or illegitimate control. Humankind's misuse of the term rule through dictatorships and abusive relationships has distorted the legitimate call on man to rule under God's sovereign rule and according to His principles.

CREATED INCOMPLETE

When a kingdom man functions according to the principles and precepts of the kingdom, there will be order, authority, and provision. When he doesn't, he opens himself up and those connected to him to a life of chaos.

A man who is spiritually connected to God carries out the rule of God by combining the spiritual with the physical. An essential component of integrating the spiritual aspect into the physical rulership is an accurate understanding of the divinely intended function between a man and a woman. Much of the confusion surrounding marriages today stems from an inaccurate view of the nature of this relationship. When people read that God said it was not good for Adam to be alone, they frequently equate that to implying that God was assuaging Adam's loneliness by creating a woman. They equate it essentially and simply to companionship. Yet if only companionship were missing, we would more likely be reading that Adam was the one saying it was not good for him to be alone. Instead, it was God who made the statement. Adam didn't mention it at all.

The specific Hebrew words used to describe the woman as a helper made specifically for Adam do not refer in any form or manner to someone designed just to remove loneliness. Rather, only one apparent reason exists for God to say, "I will make him a helper fit for him" (Genesis 2:18), and that is because Adam needed the help.

While Adam had been created perfectly, he had also been created incomplete. God created Adam in such a way that the task of carrying out dominion could not sufficiently be done without assistance. Adam alone could not pull off God's design for his life. To advance into an even greater level of dominion, Adam needed help. This does not negate the value of companionship or that Eve met a need for companionship, but companionship was not God's primary concern when He created a woman. God's concern was empowering the man and, as a result, empowering both to exercise rule.

CREATED FOR MORE

The Hebrew words translated into helper suitable for him are important to examine because they are a lot more powerful than what we often give them credit for. These words are ezer and kenegdo. The word ezer occurs 21 times in the Old Testament, with only two referring to a woman. The remaining usages refer specifically to help coming directly from God in a superior form. For example, "Our soul waits for the Lord; He is our help [ezer] and our shield" (Psalm 33:20). The word kenegdo was added, which comes from neged meaning in front of or in sight of, to distinguish ezer from every other use in the Old Testament, which referred to a stronger help brought about by God. This is also translated to mean a completion of or a counterpart to, as in, a mate. Men, if your view of the woman you have married is simply someone who cooks, cleans your house, wipes noses, and drives the kids to soccer practice, you have not just missed the spiritual component of the nature of a relationship between a man and a woman, you have misused that relationship — to your detriment. If all you want is someone to do your chores, then I suggest you hire a maid because Eve was created for much more than that. Eve was created to provide what a contextual understanding of the multiple uses of ezer informs us is, a strong help in the counterpart position. Advancing in your destiny is a collaborative effort, men, if you want to advance well.

KINGDOM WOMEN WOMEN AND PRAYER

Shekinah Stephens

In Luke 18, Jesus uses a certain woman's persistence before a wicked judge to teach us that women ought always to pray and not faint. Prayer is a fundamental key in the life of a Christian. Women must understand this great assignment is from God and take advantage of it to bring about positive changes in their community.

WHY SHOULD YOU PRAY?

1. It is a command from the Lord (Luke 18:1).
2. Prayer brings about transformation (Matthew 17).
3. Prayer is the means through which we get answers. Ask, and you receive that your joy may be full (John 16:24 Matthew 7:7-8).
4. Prayer of intercession - Pray to create a positive atmosphere and possibilities in your territory and the life of your family members.
5. Prayer is a Weapon of Warfare to stand against the wiles of the enemy (Ephesians 6:10-12)

Women must pray and pray at all times. These are some reasons why Women should pray:

- In the place of prayer, she receives boldness and power.
- Prayer will give her direction for her life and family.
- Prayer brings joy, as in prayer, you communicate with the Lord.
- A Woman who is in the place of prayer can subdue the flesh and live in the spirit.
- In the place of prayer, she is fortified to stand against all the plans and activities of demon spirits.
- The scripture is filled with testimonies of praying women.

THE CALL TO INTERCESSION

Intercession or intercessory Prayer is praying to God on behalf of another. As an Intercessor, you mediate prayer between God and His people. It is not for your desires but for the will of God to be done on the earth. Intercessors stand as a bridge to bring God's purposes to the earth.

We will look at the Life of Anna, the Prophetess who spent her life praying down the promise of a Messiah, and she eventually got her answer before she died.

Luke 2:36-38

Anna, the Prophetess, had a consciousness that she had to pray down the will of God for His people Israel, the manifestation of the promise of the Messiah. She may not have shared her burden with her friends, but in the place of prayer, she continually poured out her heart to the Lord, interceding that scripture might be fulfilled. It is recorded that she prayed night and day.

When Baby Jesus was brought to the temple, she was present and thanked God because she saw the answer to her prayers.

Anna was not praying for herself. She took the burden of the Promised Messiah far beyond her needs and expectations and prayed until there was a manifestation. She believed that God was the one to reward her.

Intercessors bring the burdens, needs, and desires of others before the throne of God. It is time for women to stop crying, complaining or murmuring and instead enter into their closets and raise up prayers to God, for He is the controller of the universe: "Therefore I exhort first of all that supplications, Prayers, intercessions and giving of thanks be made for all men" (1 Timothy 2:1).

To be A Woman Who Intercedes, You must:

- Be a woman in good standing with God, righteous and a lover of God.
- Be a woman who is courageous, dedicated and not given to distractions.
- Be ready to endure, consecrate your life to God's use and be filled with God's Word so that your prayers can align with God's will and therefore receive answers.

Women who answer the call to intercede will encounter the Lord Jesus Christ and eventually grow into intimacy with Him.

Train up a child in the way He should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.
(Proverbs 22:6)

This is a very comforting promise to anyone who would engage in training their children in the fear and admonition of the Lord. Here are a few things to consider as we examine Christian Parenting:

DEAR PARENT:

You are a steward of a life that Almighty God created and entrusted in your care (Psalm 24:1). You are to enquire from Him to know the purpose for which your child was created, in order to partner with the Creator to see His purpose accomplished (Judges 13:8, 9). We are told that when the purpose of a thing is unknown, abuse (abnormal use) is imminent. Based on Isaiah 55:10-12, your child is a spoken Word from God that must accomplish the reason for which God sent him/her into the earth. Your children are not to be handled as your retirement plan; neither are they the channel through which you must fulfill your failed dreams. Do not push them into careers/profession and marriages based on your selfish ambition. Discover God's plan for them; then train them to fulfill purpose by giving them all the tools necessary to facilitate their navigation. The greatest gift any parent can give his/her child is revelation of Jesus and the ability to hear God's Voice.

Understand the shifting dynamics of parenting as their ages change, in order to shift accordingly. Know when to:

- Instruct and set boundaries (birth to adoles-

- cence) –
- Negotiate rewards and consequences as you make compromises (teen age and young adulthood)
- Stay clear of their decisions and trust what you had deposited in them during the instruction phase (adulthood), positioned as a voice of counsel when solicited.

These guidelines are to assist you make the right decisions in alignment with scripture, without negating the Voice of God and godly counsel. Establish your non-negotiables and follow through with discipline as necessary, in accordance with the Word (2 Timothy 3:16; Proverbs 22:15 Amp; Ephesians 6:4).

You are to train and not tame the child. Be intentionally present in your child's life, with a clear objective. You do not want to create a future prayer topic for your child by your current parenting methods. Do not turn an expressive and opinionated child into a non-expressive, timid and fearful adult by domestication techniques. Take the example of a child who is constantly reprimanded and harshly punished for "talking too much." The communicator in that child is suppressed to the point where they later have to stand on the prayer line to be delivered from the fear of public speaking and public opinion.

Be an example to your child in word and deed (Titus 2:7). Correcting your child on something you practice will cause resentment in your child towards you. If you badmouth the pastor and the church at home, your child will not respect the pastor or the church. Some wonder why some children are openly defiant towards going to church, meanwhile they overheard you gossiping about the church. They cannot show excitement regarding what you negatively criticize. Some children know their parents as the biggest hypocrites because of their double-faced and double-tongued attitude. The church is supposed to serve as an amplifier to your godly instructions. This backup would have been destroyed by your character. Give the church permission to step into your child's life and bring correction, without feeling attacked. Some parents see correcting their child as an attack on their parenting abilities. Providing discipline towards your child is not a poor reflection on your parenting. Appreciate the supportive role the church is meant to play because it will benefit you through and through. Some children will misbehave in the absence of their parents, but be the most well-behaved when their parents are present. Giving others permission to correct them will enhance their character. You must show honor for the church, in order for your children to do same.

*To all biological, step, bonus, foster, and spiritual parents: WE SALUTE YOU! Keep serving in this capacity even when you do not feel appreciated. Remember that you are a steward that must give account to the Owner (Luke 16:1, 10-12; Psalm 24:1). Stay faithful and joyful. JEHOVAH REWARDS!!!

ARE YOU A CHRISTIAN?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I am coming today to ask you a crucial question about life. Yes, I ask you this question because many people are mistaken to think that life here on earth is the only life we have. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book, the Bible, that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity depends on what you do now to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that, but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a fascinating conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things? (John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus tells Nicodemus that unless a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter or see the Kingdom of God. Jesus went on to explain that to be born again is to be born of water and the Spirit. From the scriptures, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit, and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water, and the Spirit is to be born by the Word of God. This is precisely what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God." (1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the Word of God? The apostle Paul answered when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved." (Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

Two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe He came to save humanity from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay: death: the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. As scripture says, our sins were all put on Him (Isa. 53:6), and He died in our place. You must also believe that He was buried, and on the third day, He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these and confess Jesus as Lord, you are born again.

Born again is not the name of a church, as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born-again Christian. Sorry: there is nothing like born again Christian. All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His Word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and saviour.

It is foolish not to believe God's word and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, in the name of the Lord, I beseech you to follow God's ways as outlined in His Word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation. YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN! If you are unsure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to be born again now. As we have seen above, all you need to do is believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe You sent Jesus Christ, Your Son, to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried, and on the third day, He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I, therefore, confess Him as Lord and Saviour of my life. I am now a new creation. According to the scriptures, Old things are passed away. I am now born again, and all things have become new. Thank You, Lord, for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a newborn baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get into a true Bible-believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Read the Bible daily because God's word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Also, make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Above all, do not forsake fellowship, live a consecrated life, and set apart for God. God will therefore use you as a vessel of honour, blessing humankind and giving Him glory.

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY OF GOD, AND GOD BLESS YOU.
