DEATH TO SELF PATHWAY TO GLORY

*And Jesus answered them,
"The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified and exalted.
I assure you and most solemnly say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone [just one grain, never more]. But if it dies, it produces much grain and yields a harvest. The one who loves his life [eventually] loses it [through death], but the one who hates his life in this world [and is concerned with pleasing God] will keep it for life eternal.
John 12:23-25 (Amplified Bible)*

*I assure you, believers, by the pride which I have in you in [your union with]
Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily
[I face death and die to self].
1 Corinthians 15:31 (Amplified Bible)*

THE command of God for His children found in Isaiah chapter sixty is for them to arise and shine (Isa. 60:1). The command is given because the empowerment to arise and shine is present: the GLORY of the Lord is risen upon you. The glory of the Lord must be in place if there must be any arising and shining. In other words, without the glory of the Lord, there can be no arising and shining.

There are many pathways to attracting the glory of the Lord. In Genesis chapter one, when Adam and Eve sinned, they were driven out of the Garden of Eden. Sin separated them from God. Why? They disobeyed God's revealed Word. They decided to please themselves instead of obeying God. They fell short of the glory of God because of sin (The sin of selfishness). Selfishness is a sin; where selfishness is present, God's glory cannot be.

John 12:23 talks about the hour for the Son of man to be GLORIFIED. But there is a process for this glory manifestation: "... unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone [just one grain, never more]. But if it dies, it produces much grain and yields a harvest." (V. 24)

It talks about a GRAIN of wheat. A grain is a seed. The glory of a seed is its fruit. In other words, the full manifestation of a seed is when it becomes a fruit with more seeds.

But for the seed to fully manifest, it must be buried in the ground to die. It is in death that it begins to grow. This is the picture Jesus painted, and He was speaking about His death, burial, and resurrection. Jesus had to die for our sins (He was selfless). He was buried, and resurrected in newness of life.

From 1 Corinthians 15:35-45, Paul talks about how when a seed is sown, it dies, and God gives it another body. He compared this with how the dead are raised. He writes: "So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power... It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body... (1 Cor. 14:42-45 NKJV).

For Jesus to be glorified, He had to die and rise from the dead. He was the seed sown with the body of sin but resurrected in glory. He had to die to be glorified. In like manner, the full potential within us can only manifest when we die. Apostle Paul said, "I die daily" (1 Cor. 15:31). To die, you must be crucified: "I have been crucified with Christ..." (Gal 2:20). To be crucified, you must carry your cross and follow Jesus (Luke 9:23). Every time you carry your cross, you die. But how do we die daily? Dying daily involves the following:

- a. Dying to sin (Rom. 6:11).
- b. Putting to death the deeds of the flesh (Rom 8:13/Col 3:5).
- c. Denying yourself (Gal 2:20/1 Cor 9:27).
- d. Presenting the members of your body as instruments of righteousness (Rom 6:13).
- e. Fleeing sin and Pursuing righteousness (1 Tim 6:11/Matt 6:33).
- f. Living a life of humility and obedience (Phil 2:5-11).
- g. Imitating Paul by dying daily (1 Cor 11:1/4:16).

The scriptures tell us that when Christ died, we died with Him (Rom. 6:8 /Col 2:20;3:3). As we choose to die daily, we will be glorified just as Christ died and was glorified. Every time one dies to sin, flesh self and the world, the glory of God will manifest. And just as Jesus resurrected in glory, you will rise daily in glory. The pathway to glory is death. Thus, the Prophetic Focus for this season is:

DEATH TO SELF The Pathway To Glory

We will be looking at:

1. What self is.
2. What death to self means.
3. Why we must die to self
4. How to die to self
5. The benefits of dying to self.

And many more, using the Word of God as our primary source of instruction.

Kingdom Manifestation Blessings!

TESTIMONIES

Overcoming By Testimonies

Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. And THEY OVERCAME HIM by the blood of the Lamb and BY THE WORD OF THEIR TESTIMONY, and they did not love their lives to the death.

(Revelation 12:10-11 New King James Version)

And they have overcome (conquered) him by means of the blood of the Lamb and by the utterance of their testimony, for they did not love and cling to life even when faced with death [holding their lives cheap till they had to die for their witnessing].

(Revelation 12:11 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition)

The context of these verses is the war in heaven that the dragon lost, and he was cast down on earth. But we understand that God has given the earth to man (Psa. 115:16). The devil who was accusing the brethren before God is now on earth and is waging war. How would the man who is the custodian of the earth fight this fight and come out victorious? The main scripture we are looking at tells us how. The victory will come using two weapons mentioned here, among many others: the blood of the Lamb and the Word or utterance of their testimony. For this article, we concentrate on the WORD OF THEIR TESTIMONY.

Notice that it says "the word or utterance of THEIR testimonies." Who are the THEY and THEIR mentioned here? Well, reading in context, verse 17 talks about those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. So those qualified are the heirs of salvation. God has provided various weapons for the heirs of salvation to overcome the enemy.

One such weapon is THE WORD OF TESTIMONY. The Amplified Bible calls it the UTTERANCE of their testimony.

An example of someone who used the testimony weapon and prevailed over the enemy is the shepherd boy David. When King Saul told David he was not a match to the giant Goliath defying the army of Israel, David TESTIFIED of his victory against a lion and a bear while he was keeping his father's sheep and said the Philistine, Goliath would not be a match. He said, "Your Majesty," ..., "I take care of my father's sheep. Any time a lion or a bear carries off a lamb, I go after it, attack it, and rescue the lamb. And if the lion or bear turns on me, I grab it by the throat and beat it to death. I have killed lions and bears, and I will do the same to this heathen Philistine, who has defied the army of the living God. The LORD has saved me from lions and bears; he will save me from this Philistine." (1 Sam. 17:34-37 GNT).

Confronted by Goliath, who tried to torture David mentally with words, David fired back with words of faith. I believe these words killed Goliath even before he was physically dead.

As we know, there are three different types of testimonies. 1. The testimony of God (found in His Word); 2. The testimony of others; 3. Your testimonies. How can we take God's testimonies and turn them into ours? First, BELIEVE God's Word; second, ACCEPT (RECEIVE) God's Word; DECLARE God's Word. In other words, you can make God's testimony yours by PERSONALIZING God's Word as yours as you address the situations or circumstances you are confronted with.

I had a business deal to supply some machines to a client in Cameroon. Everything was agreed upon, and the client sent the money to my account. The bank called me and asked what the money sent to my account was meant for. I told them that I had to buy some machines for a client. The bank then told me that the money was supposed to be sent directly to the suppliers' bank account. I was told that they had to send the money back to the person who sent it and that they did. I informed my client, who had an agreement with a shipper in China, to pay the money to the suppliers while they transferred the equivalent to his account in the USA. Upon receiving the money, this shipping agent refused to pay the equivalent to the suppliers in China. It took almost a year, and he was still making excuses.

I then remembered that I am a covenant child. I began to recall what God's Word said. I said, as a covenant child, I am blessed by God. I brought out scriptures and began declaring that all the works of my hands are blessed according to the scriptures. I said it is written in the scriptures that whatever my hands find to do will prosper. I also declared the scriptures from Deuteronomy 28:1-13. What was I doing? I was using the testimony of the Lord as a weapon against the battle I was in. About a week after declaring God's Word over the situation, I was told that the guy had transferred the money. We bought the machines, and the client is presently using them.

God has equipped us with the weapon of testimonies to prevail against the enemy. Remember: they overcame him... by the Word or utterance of their testimonies. You must open your mouth and speak God's Word (the testimony of the Lord) against whatever does not look like what God says concerning you in His Word. You can also glean on the testimonies of others. If God does it for one, He can do it for you, also. Read the testimonies of others and build your faith. You will subdue (or prevail over) the enemy with build-up faith. Hallelujah! Use the weapon of testimonies to overcome the enemy trying to prevent you from living the life God ordained for you. As you do, all of heaven will back you up, and you will prevail over the enemy to the glory of God.

Hallelujah!

Testimonies enlighten us on the way out to the issues of life.

(Bishop David O. Oyedepo)

When God's testimonies become your testimonies, nothing can stop them from manifesting in your life.

(Dr. Kema Kema)

The testimonies of God that will manifest in your life are those that you delight in and meditate on – Psa. 119:24, 99.

Leave To Cleave

*Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.
(Gen. 2:24, Mat. 19:5, Mark 10:7, Luke 10:11 KJV)*

When you think of marriage, what comes to mind first? Is it the white fairy-tale gown with a big wedding, or is it the bed of roses that you will be lying on the remaining days of your life? If that is what you are thinking of or something similar, you had better wake up from that dream.

Marriage is a beautiful union ordained by God, with responsibilities to both parties. "LEAVE TO CLEAVE" is one of them.

The above scripture says, "A man leaves his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh." It did not say a man or woman should bring his/her wife/ husband to their family house, with the entire family under one roof. (recipe of disaster). Neither did it say leave and take your family with you. NO.

When God made this statement, He meant that we've been taken care of enough by our parents, and it's time for us to start taking care of our responsibilities; it's time to be who God made us to be. You start seeing your purpose manifest when you leave everything behind to cleave to your spouse.

What does it mean to leave to cleave?

- Leaving means 'to go away from. Depart from, go from, withdraw from, retire from.
- Cleave means 'to glue, adhere, stick, cling, join, and many more.

The above two words are action words: what we must do to enjoy the marriage blessings the Lord has prepared for us. We must leave our parents, old lifestyles, friends, and sometimes our communities to cleave (to join, to stick, to cling) to our spouses to start our own family, friends, and community.

How can we leave all that we've known just for someone we don't know that much? These people are my family; they are the people I trust; they have been there for me all my life. How can I just move on and leave them?

My dear, these people had to leave to cleave to be able to have you and give you the life you now have.

Some people will say I left and I am with my spouse. We live away from our families. But when there is a dispute, we rush home or call our families, thinking, "My family got my back." They don't. God does.

WORD INSIGHT

Agnes N. Kema

The Word of God says. "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways submit to him, and he will make your paths straight (Prov. 3:5-6 NIV). But He can't do anything if you don't call Him when you are distressed. God is the only one who is not biased. But your families will take sides even when you are wrong, bringing more problems to your house. Let God be your father and mother. He will give you spiritual parents who will not take sides but teach you how to keep your home.

When you are married, it does not mean you have nothing to do with your family. They come in second or third position in your life, not first anymore. Getting married doesn't mean you don't have a love for your family. It just means that it's time for you to start your own. And every true loving family will be willing to let go and love you from afar.

May your family lovingly let go of you when it's time for you to get married in the name of Jesus Christ. If you are already married and not clinging to your spouse, may the grace for you to truly leave and cleave be yours in Jesus' name. Amen!

Midst Of The Year Thanksgiving And Prayer Declarations

*O LORD, I have heard Your speech and was afraid;
O LORD, revive Your work in the midst of the years!
In the midst of the years,
make it known: In wrath, remember mercy.

*Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the enemy, And gathered out of the lands, From the east and from the west, From the north and from the south.
(Psalm 107:1-3 New King James Version)*

What Time “Is It?”

KAIROS IS THE OPPORTUNE (DESTINED, CRUCIAL) TIME FOR ANYTHING/HAPPENING. KAIROS TIMING IS GOD'S TIME OF ACTION.

Growing up as a young girl, this question was often asked by people who needed to know the time to catch up with an appointment, head home to finish chores, or avoid being caught on the way by darkness.

Time is critical to our daily dealings and meeting deadlines. If we did not consider time, we would be delayed and miss out on many things that would eventually affect our lives and future.

It is not just expedient for us to be aware that time is important, but also for us to always ask what time it is. Just as we consider physical (chronos) time with a 24-hour clock, we should also consider time in the Spirit (kairos).

Kairos is the opportune (destined, crucial) time for anything/happening. Kairos timing is God's time of action. We can only know it by knowing God intimately. By that, we will be drawn to Him and be able to understand what His plans are for us and His people.

Abraham is said to have been God's friend, and you and I know that real friendship breeds a closeness where secrets as well as plans are shared. When we grow close to God, in intimacy, He will not hide things from us, including the timing in which we find ourselves.

Jesus attends a wedding in Cana of Galilee with Mary, and at some point, the wine is finished, and a worried Mary comes to Him saying, "They have no wine" (John 2:3), to which Jesus answers in verse 4, "Mine hour is not yet come." Jesus invariably told Mary that there was an appointed time for wine to be replaced, and no matter who complained about it or pushed hard to favor it, it would only happen at the appointed time.

With God, there is a time for everything, and for us to be settled in our faith, we need to understand what time it is over our lives. We will not all be at the same time, but knowing it helps us plan, prepare, and execute.

Therefore, we cannot afford to walk like those groping in the dark when we have a Father who knows everything. We can rely on Him and have exclusive knowledge of what needs to be done and where we are headed.

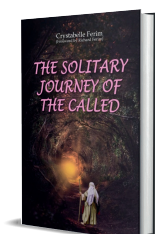

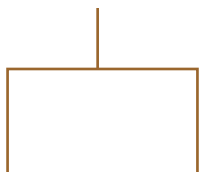

Questioning "What time is it?" is also important to understanding endtimes. We must be fully aware that Jesus is coming back again, and we must be prepared for it. He will come for a church without wrinkle, spot, or blemish. Today is our time to prepare.

As you go about your business, I want you to consider the following:

THE TREE OF LIFE (Part 1)

WISDOM FROM PSALMS
& PROVERBS

Lily Boshey

The information we get on the news, from circular books, and even the arguments we hear and sometimes participate in on social media, in a spiritual sense, are the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil.

My son, pay attention to what I say; turn your ear to my words. Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart; for they are life to those who find them and health to one's whole body.
(Proverbs 4:20-22 NIVUK)

In the account about creation, Moses tells us, "Now the Lord God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed. The Lord God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground—trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the Tree of Life and the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil. And the Lord God commanded the man, "You are free to eat from any tree in the garden; but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat from it, you will certainly die" (Genesis 2:8-12,16-17).

We all know how things went down. Adam and Eve blatantly disobeyed God's warning, thereby introducing sin into the world and alienating man from God. But because of His great love for us, God, who is rich in mercy, made us alive with Christ by His grace.

Do you know, dear child of God, that while we are still in this world where Adam and Eve were, we still need to guard against the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, and yes, go for the Tree of Life. They are still very much present.

The information we get on the news, from circular books, and even the arguments we hear and sometimes participate in on social media, in a spiritual sense, are the fruit of the knowledge of good and evil. So, as we partake in them, we are partaking of the knowledge of good or the knowledge of evil. That is why sometimes we will notice that as the days go by, we begin to see ourselves saying certain things, singing certain songs, and reacting in a certain way because of the things we have allowed to settle on our minds by our ears and eye gates.

The things we listen to present two sides. They present the good side, and they show the bad side. Out of it, there is no real solution. Sometimes, they leave us feeling sad, discouraged, or even depressed. So, let us learn to moderate what we watch and listen to.

The real diet of the child of God is the Word of God: the Tree of Life. When we feed on the Person of Jesus, we find His peace, joy, understanding, wisdom, and unmerited favour begin to flow into our lives, even unconsciously. This doesn't mean we shouldn't watch television or follow arguments on social media. We are saying that it is far more powerful to be full of Jesus than to be full of worldly knowledge. More than ever before, we have to be mindful of our eyes and our eargates. We must be cautious about what we watch and listen to regularly.

PRAYER

Dear heavenly Father, I thank You for giving birth to me by Your Word and making it available for me to live by. I receive grace to feed on it daily, and as I do, more grace is released to me, and I experience supernatural health, success, and progress in Jesus' Name. Amen.

The Ideal Christian Woman 1

Charm is deceitful, and beauty is passing, But a woman who fears the Lord, she shall be praised. (Proverbs 31:30 NKJV)

WISDOM4WOMEN

Pastor Shekinah Stephens

Who is an ideal Christian Woman? What qualities can we look for in a woman and confirm that she is the Bride of Christ? No one can ever confuse the bride in a typical wedding setting because everything about her stands out. Her dress, steps, and where she sits identify her as the bride of the day.

When we talk of an ideal Christian woman, we have not attached any title to her name other than the fact that she is the woman who has received Christ in her life. There must have been a day when she surrendered her life to the Lordship of Christ, and she is known as a Disciple of Christ by her way of life. Below are some characteristics of an Ideal Christian Woman that make her stand out as a bride on her wedding day.

SHE IS A GODLY WOMAN

An Ideal Christian woman is led by the Spirit of God. She is at the centre of activities in heaven and on earth. How she lives her daily life matters a lot. She spends time in prayer and the Word and allows her life to bring glory to God by walking in obedience. A godly woman is diligent and compassionate and a woman with a good heart who demonstrates wisdom and fear of God.

We live at a time when standing out as a Christian woman is not popular because her gender has been abused, confused, and misused in diverse ways. For this woman, her beauty and strength make her stand out, projecting Christ as an example worth emulating.

Even among women who profess to bring glory to God, few draw their strength from the Lord or other spiritual women. For some women, their role model is one celebrity somewhere living her life of sin, serving one demonic altar, portraying fashion. They decide to follow her ways, claiming that she is trending.

SHE LOVES THE LORD FIRST

Jesus commanded us to love the Lord with our whole being, spirit, soul, and body (Mark 12:29-30; Deut 6:4-5). An ideal Christian woman loves herself, and she loves her neighbors.

Loving God means giving glory to God due to His name, walking in obedience, and submitting to the authority of His Word. An ideal Christian woman obeys the Lord even when it's difficult.

To love yourself, you have to value your life. Love yourself so much that you are ready to put off all forms of negative energy around your life. It does not mean that you should become worldly. 1 John 2:15-16 warns us against the love of the world.

Love your neighbor - the people you relate with daily. Let others see Jesus in you; make that your goal. You can only love others to the extent to which you love yourself.

SHE IS A WOMAN OF FAITH

An ideal Christian woman is a woman of faith. She lives and teaches the Word of God (Psa. 25:4-5; Eph. 5:15-17). She grows in the knowledge of the scriptures and follows sound doctrine in every area of her life: But now you must be holy in everything you do, just as God who chose you is holy. The Scriptures say, "You must be holy because I am holy." (1 Pet. 1:15)... "And the people of Berea were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica, and they listened eagerly to Paul's message. They searched the Scriptures daily to see if Paul and Silas were teaching the truth." (Acts 17:11).

She believes God for who He is. She is ever-increasing because she Studies the Word, Accepts the Word, and Acts on what she has accepted.

SHE TAKES CARE OF HERSELF

An ideal Christian woman understands that her body is God's temple (1 Cor. 6:19-20) and cares for herself. She is very conscious that she needs this body to serve the Lord, her Master, while on earth. She takes care of her health, especially her mental health. Developing intimacy with the Lord gives her the grace to fight and overcome her battles. She depends on the Lord to overcome whatever challenges life throws at her.

SHE IS A HOME BUILDER

An ideal Christian woman is a wise woman who builds her home (Prov. 14:1). A home is also a place filled with love, peace, security, good meals, rest, etc. Therefore, this woman ensures the home is peaceful. It has been said, "Give a woman a house, and she will give you a Home." This woman helps her husband (who is married). She loves her family. The home is the first place where she lives out Christ. She seeks to establish a home that manifests God's love, grace, beauty, and order.

SHE IS A MOTHER

An ideal Christian woman loves children, whether they are hers or not. She receives children as a gift from the Lord. She raises godly children and trains them to love and follow Christ (Psa. 127:3; Prov. 22:6). She is open to embracing other children whom the Lord may send her way.

WISDOM4KINGDOM MEN

Dr. Kema Kema

Kingdom Men as Kingdom Priests in Their Homes

MOST men have left the priestly duty of their homes and families to their wives with the excuse that they are always out there to work and fend for the home. But is this biblical? Is this what the Bible says, or is it a subtle trick of the devil to infiltrate our homes and wreak havoc?

Let's find out what the Bible says about the priestly responsibility of the husband /father in his home. When God created mankind, He created them, male and female. In marriage, the man and the woman become ONE FLESH but with different responsibilities. The scriptures recognize the man as the HEAD of the house, just as Christ is the head of the Church. As the head of the house, the man is the PRIEST OF THE HOUSE (Family).

Priests in the Old Testament were responsible for representing the people before God. Their duty was to stand as a go-between before God and man as they regularly offered sacrifices that went up to God on behalf of the people. In this New Testament era, every child of God is a priest (Rev. 1:6/1 Peter 2:9). Though we all are priests, male or female, in every family, the man is the head of the house, just as Christ is head of the Church (Eph. 5:23).

Christ is right now in heaven performing His priestly duties. And what is this duty? He is making intercession for the saints (Heb. 7:17, 25). As High Priest, Jesus draws people to God and provides teaching and instruction through scripture. Jesus also warns us of the dangers inherent in living in a world affected by sin. In addition to these roles, Jesus has facilitated our forgiveness, is our advocate, and prays for us. His perfect sacrifice as the Son of God has brought in the New Covenant.

As a priest, Jesus has made us priests. Just as He is interceding for the saints as 'High Priest,' fathers are to intercede for members of their household as 'high priest' of the home. Job was a high priest for his family. The Bible records that he offered sacrifices for members of his family (Job 1:5). Incense, a symbol of prayers (Rev. 5:8), was burnt while offering these sacrifices in the Old Testament days.

Alongside interceding for members of his household, the priest is responsible for teaching the Word of God. God gave these commandments to the Israelites (Deut. 6:7; 11:19). Most men (Fathers and husbands) have left the teaching of God's Word to the ministers in the Church. Yes, the Church has the role of teaching the Word of God. But this is not what God meant when he said, "And these words which I command you today shall be in your heart. You shall teach them diligently TO YOUR CHILDREN and shall talk of them when you sit in YOUR HOUSE, when you walk by the way when you lie down, and when you rise up. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes (Deut. 6:6-8 NKJV). This responsibility is for the priests of the home. And YOU, the Father, the husband, is the priest of your home.

Let's not run away from our godly responsibility. Men, we must arise as the priests that we are and stand the gap for our families, lifting them daily to God in prayers. While at home, at the dinner table, create time to talk about God's Word. Teach your family the law of God. Teach them the Gospel. Teach them from the epistles. And more importantly, teach them by example. The primary responsibility is ours, my brothers. Let's rise to the task. God has empowered us for this. Yes, we can do it. Let's do it. Hallelujah!

LIVING IN THE FAITH ZONE
By PGL Nzimbi

Staying In The Faith Zone: A Path to Unwavering Belief (1)

MAINTAINING unwavering faith can be challenging in a world filled with doubt and uncertainty. The Bible prophesies that many will depart from the faith in the last days (1 Tim 4:1), and Jesus himself asked whether he would find faith on earth when He returns (Luke 18:8). This indicates that faith must be incredibly important. As the writer of Hebrews states, "Without faith, it is impossible to please God" (Heb 11:6).

Many believers in Christ assume they have faith until they encounter difficulties. It is often in times of hardship that they realise their faith is not as strong as they once believed. Challenges and trials expose the true depth of one's trust in God, revealing that what they considered firm faith may actually be quite fragile. This realisation highlights the importance of cultivating a deep, resilient faith that can withstand the tests of life.

In my experience, the most impoverished people I know who claim they have a big God but lack significant achievements and contributions to the economy are Christians. Christianity is being sidelined in the socio-political arena nowadays because we do not have a bargaining chip to dangle in front of power brokers so that they can listen to our message. Ecclesiastes 9:16 states, "Then I said, 'Wisdom is better than strength. Nevertheless, the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.'" This verse suggests that people may not listen to a wise, poor person as they might listen to someone with more wealth or status. Why are we so behind in everything when we have a Father who created everything and gave us all things to enjoy richly (1 Tim 6:17)? Why have we become so vulnerable to the point where "incomplete, incompetent theologians" and charlatans in the church world are using us to wipe the floor, stealing from us in broad daylight, and we cannot do anything about it? No human being is another human being's God, no matter their grandiloquence and affluence. Humans will never become gods or God (Hitler proves that point).

There is always a distinction between the Divine Supplier and the human receiver or deriver. The basic human function is derivation, dependency, and receptivity, i.e., faith. We are responsible choosers, and faith is a choice to receive from, depend on, and derive from another. As a matter of truth, if you do not have what you need, or I do not have what I need, it's not God's problem.

When I was growing up, how you received from your parents determined whether you would possess what they were about to give you. It was all hinged on which hand you used and your attitude toward the gift. Also, how thankful you were at the end. Things were retrieved from children who would not say thank you and restored only when they repented from that negative attitude. Faith is the only invisible, legitimate hand that God recognises and is the only thing you use to receive from God. If you don't have faith and all its machinations, you don't have a spiritual hand to receive from God.

Many want to receive from God but don't have the correct hand. Some use the hand of self-effort, begging, crying, getting others to plead for them, following so-called anointed men and women of God all over the place, and getting abused in the process without receiving anything at the end.

Faith principles work the same way in every sphere of human existence, but you have to intentionally apply them just like you did with your salvation (Rom. 10:8-13). Otherwise, you will be saved but have nothing in prosperity because you did not use your faith in that area.

Most Christians have faith for heaven but don't know how to use their faith to believe God for daily supplies. So, they try to use self-effort and not the principles of faith and the spirit of faith to live their lives when scriptures clearly say, "The just shall live by faith" (Rom. 1:17; Habkk. 2:4; Gal. 3:11; 2 Cor. 5:7; Heb. 10:38). Others who assume they have faith are surprised when their faith does not work—they prayed and believed, yet the person became sicker and later died, the marriage failed, the money never came, etc. This group may have relied on the principles of faith rather than the spirit of faith.

FAITH IS THE ONLY INVISIBLE, LEGITIMATE HAND THAT GOD RECOGNISES AND IS THE ONLY THING YOU USE TO RECEIVE FROM GOD. IF YOU DON'T HAVE FAITH AND ALL ITS MACHINATIONS, YOU DON'T HAVE A SPIRITUAL HAND TO RECEIVE FROM

Paul explained to the Colossians, "As you received Christ Jesus the Lord (by faith), so walk in Him, ... established in your faith" (Col. 2:6-7). The Christian life is lived only by the grace-dynamic of God's action, received by faith.

Many people start their Christianity by faith but later get off track by trying to be established by self-effort instead of learning how to develop and be established in the faith.

Please kindly reflect on this thought: "God does not choose to randomly bless one person and not another. He has already given all of us access (Rom. 5:2) to His blessings through our legal standing in His Kingdom. We often affirm that all things are possible with God (Matt. 19:26), but we must also remember that all things are only possible to those who believe (Mk. 9:23)."

As believers, it is crucial to enter and remain steadfast in what I call "THE FAITH ZONE." This article seeks to encourage and inspire you to deepen your faith, drawing on powerful biblical examples that illustrate the transformative power of unwavering belief.

What Faith Is Not

To understand faith more deeply, it's important to recognise what faith is not: Faith is not a movement. Faith is not just believing or assenting to correct data from the Bible. Nor is faith the conjuring up of enough trust to rely on Christ. The traditional answer for a Bible verse on faith is Hebrews 11:1. But if you look at the scripture, Hebrews 11:1 tells us the benefits of faith, not what faith is. I believe the scripture in Romans gives us an apparent picture of what faith actually is Romans 4:18-21 (Please Read it from your preferred Bible versions).

YOUR DESTINY IS TIED TO PEOPLE AND PLACES!

GUEST WRITER

Pastor Anita Etta

There are times in life when you stay somewhere because of your destiny. Some people and places are connected to your destiny. Leaving these people or places due to emotions can destroy your destiny. Many have sabotaged their process and ended up outside God's will because a place was uncomfortable or a leader who had already played a major role in their destiny suddenly did something they did not like. While you may feel bad, hurt, belittled, unfairly treated, and more, your destiny should always trump your emotions.

In Exodus 24:12, the Lord said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone with the law and commandments I have written for their instruction." This scripture reveals that sometimes God will designate a place of destiny. God is omnipresent, yet He asked Moses to meet Him at a specific place. Not only was Moses required to meet God there, but he was also required to stay there. There was a purpose for the meeting and the tarrying. God was to give Moses the law and commandments that were critical for the next phase of Moses' ministry toward the people of God. This divine instruction to meet and stay would determine whether Moses would receive what he needed from God to impact his destiny and that of billions of present and future generations of God's people who would study these commandments.

There are sacred places of destiny appointed to be the intersection of God and man for revelation and redemption. God will lead us to these places to meet with Him directly or through an earthly vessel. In Acts 9:6, God instructed Saul to go to a place where he would meet Ananias and be told what to do. The scripture says: Then the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do." God could have just told Saul what to do. Still, God sent him to a particular place to meet a specific person so that the next step of his destiny could be revealed.

Many today think they do not need servants of God or even other believers because they can hear directly from God. But sometimes, you may be in God's presence and not get the answers you seek. Sometimes, God may be present but silent or only give you partial revelation because He has assigned His servant to take you through the next phase of your destiny. In verse 11 of Acts 9, God also instructs Ananias: So the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus, for behold, he is praying." Here again, we see a specific place and a particular servant of God that were necessary for Saul's miracle to manifest. In verses 17 and 18, Saul is filled with the Holy Spirit, the scales fall off his eyes, and he receives his sight! All of this happened because a man met an assigned man of God at an appointed place at a kairos moment.

Saul went on to tarry there and spent some days with the disciples. In such instances, obedience and the humility to submit to God's servant are critical. Deuteronomy 5:33 says, "Walk in obedience to all that the Lord your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess." If God has commanded us to be in a place or submit to someone's leadership or help, we must obey God even if circumstances become challenging. Where has God commanded you to go, and who is He leading you to? Who must you meet and stay with to receive spiritual sight, physical healing, direction for the next season of your life, discipleship, and mentorship?

The enemy will often attempt to intercept your destiny by creating circumstances that will try to test your divinely orchestrated relationships. You will notice that suddenly, there will be many obstacles to getting to your place or person of destiny. You will find many seemingly valid reasons why you cannot obey divine instructions to go to a place, stay there, and submit to the authorities

God has assigned to be your destiny helpers. Often, your appointed helper will do things that will trigger your emotions negatively, and staying in your place of destiny may become nearly impossible. In such instances, the Kingdom of Darkness is working hard to remove you from where God has planted you.

Sometimes, divine timing may seem like a delay when you are in the place of waiting and trusting God, causing you to create Isaacs. Many young preachers have left their pastoral mentors prematurely because the platforms and fame they wanted did not come at the time they expected. Many have left where God planted them to open their ministries and churches outside God's will and timing because they became impatient. They no longer believed their destiny could be birthed where they were presently, and with the God-assigned mentors, they were about to leave. Their fleshly desires and their need for recognition and fame spoke louder than the voice of God in their spirit, and they acted accordingly.

FEELINGS are deceptive and cannot always be trusted! Pursuing destiny calls for the sacrifice of emotions. You must focus on the road to your divine destiny and not be distracted by offenses caused by the enemy's darts. These offenses will become overpowering if you entertain them and become distractions intended to change the course of your destiny. There is a price to be paid for the pursuit of your destiny, and this price calls for sacrifices! Those with mature minds can feel the hurt but stay where God has planted them because they understand that their destinies are tied to that person or that place. An immature believer will not exercise patience or longsuffering and other fruits of the Spirit, such as faithfulness when tested in the place of destiny. God designed the road to your destiny to transform you through the trials and tests that come your way. These trials and tests prepare you to Stewart your destiny when you eventually become who God has called you to be.

Here are some ways in which the enemy tries to disconnect you from the people or places that God has assigned for you:

PERSECUTION

David was heavily persecuted by Saul because of the battle for his destiny. Fellow believers and leaders from churches and ministries are often a source of persecution. People will reject you, gossip about you, and sabotage you in the place of your destiny so that you will be tempted to leave where God has planted you.

FALSE PERCEPTIONS

When the enemy wants to derail you from your destiny, you may find that the discipline and accountability from your mentors begin to look like suffering to you. You may resent your mentors and reject their rebuke and correction, seeing it as unhealthy control. You cease to appreciate the discipleship and become eager for a separation.

REBELLION

Children often become rebellious towards their parents, and believers rebel against their pastors, mentors, and other spiritual leaders.

DEMONIC DREAMS AND VISIONS

You may get dreams and visions from the enemy showing you negative things about the place of your destiny or about a spiritual leader God has placed you under. You will be convinced that what you saw was from God and use this to justify separating from this place or person.

AGENTS OF DARKNESS

People may come into your life to pollute your mind against your place of destiny or a person God has assigned to help you. These people may constantly point out the faults of your helper and tell you why the place is bad for you. These agents of darkness will offer you help and encourage you to disconnect from where God has placed you.

COMFORT ZONE

The enemy sometimes makes you very comfortable in a place or connects you to people you become very comfortable with. These people will become voices you love and listen to because they will tell you what makes you happy, causing you to miss the voice of God and leave a place of destiny, thus leading to your destruction.

DISTRACTIONS AND ALTERNATIVE OPTIONS

When we reach the crossroads of destiny, we may see many distractions suddenly vying for our attention. When you get to the season for marriage, you may suddenly be presented with many counterfeit options that look very appealing and will turn you away from the spouse God has chosen for you. Jacob was carrying the lineage of Jesus through Leah, but Jacob's attraction to Rachel was very strong, causing him to work 14 years in an attempt to marry a woman who was not his destiny partner.

In those seasons when your emotions attempt to rule your mind and spirit, you will be presented with all kinds of justifications for why you must leave your place or person of destiny. Places and people meant to turn you away from your destiny will appear more attractive, and you will be tempted to make the wrong choices. These days, too many do not have the strength of character to see that what appears to be suffering in a place or with a person is simply God's training ground for your rising. The path to destiny always takes us through the rugged road of perceived mistreatment and what appears to be suffering. High achievers and successful people will tell you they had to live through seemingly unbearable conditions and circumstances.

How badly do you want the destiny God has prepared for you? Resist that urge to act hastily out of emotions and get all God has for you from that person or place!

Christian Business Principles

He called together ten servants and gave each of them money worth four months' wages. He said, 'DO BUSINESS with this until I return.'
(Luke 19:13 Common English Bible)

What makes a business a Christian Business? Is it because someone who claims to be a Christian is the company's CEO? Is it because Bible verses are all over the business premises or because all those working there are Christians? Well, I believe what we need to focus on to answer these questions is not whether we have Christian businesses but whether we have Christian businessmen and businesswomen who integrate their convictions and principles with their work.

As Christians, we must understand, in the first place, why we are in business. What is your purpose in getting into business as a Christian? In Titus 3:8, the Bible says that Jesus Christ sacrificed Himself for us so "that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone." Note the reason Christ sacrificed Himself: so that Christians should devote themselves to doing good... profitable for everyone.

Doing business is doing good. As believers, we should concentrate on what is most important in owning a business, which is making our businesses into good companies that are profitable because they serve the needs of others.

What are the fundamental principles that set apart a Christian business from others? There are many, but three biblical principles stand out:

COMMITMENT TO INTEGRITY

A Christian business is the epitome of integrity. This means the business is indeed "who they say they are." The business is Christ-centered and functions on doing right rather than doing what is expedient.

COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

In Titus 3:8, we are called to do good things which are excellent and profitable. A Christian business's primary purpose is to glorify God. When we do business with excellence, we glorify Him because He is excellent. When we commit ourselves to pursuing business excellence, we exalt the Word of God.

COMMITMENT TO PEOPLE

In business, we deal with people. First, we must treat employees with dignity. We must commit to treating customers fairly. We must also treat government authorities with respect when they check our businesses. We must ensure that the people we interact with in our daily business transactions benefit from the goods and services we offer.

Therefore, as you plan to open a business as a Christian, may it be one committed to integrity, excellence and people.

There have been recent happenings, some of which will be termed scandals in the Church, especially the Church in the Dallas area of the USA. Many have given their take regarding these happenings, some judgmentally and others mercifully. But what should we learn from such happenings and scandals as a Church, particularly as pastors (Ministers)?

First, every pastor (Minister of God) should understand that as a man or woman of God, you are a man first before being a man (woman) of God. As long as you are in this earth suit, you will face temptations. If you are not careful, you will be another statistic for scandals.

Second, submit to a body of elders who can hold you accountable. I am not talking about the ones you appointed who will be afraid to tell you the truth. The early Church had a council of elders in Jerusalem. The great Apostle Paul submitted to them. If you are not submitted to anyone who will tell you the truth when needed, then you are dangerous to the body of Christ.

Third, be teachable. You don't know it all. No one can know it all. Understand that you can make mistakes. Leading people does not make you mistake-proof. The eloquent Apollos did not know it all. He had to humble himself to listen to the advice of Aquilla and Pricilla. Pastor (Minister of God), why do you think no one can teach you? That is pride, and pride goes before a fall. Beware!

Fourth, be disciplined. Set boundaries in all your dealings as a minister of God. Why would your PA be a lady when you are a man of God? Why would your PA be a guy when you are a woman of God? We are called to run away from every appearance of evil. Listen, it is evil to be only with your PA very late at night in the office doing extra work. It is a recipe for falling into sin. Don't create such an environment. Why would you counsel a lady alone in your office? That's not right. It is a dangerous platform for manifesting the works of the flesh. Some will say they are anointed. Well, ask David and Samson. They will tell you the truth about the anointing and such environments.

TAKE HEED LEST YOU FALL

Therefore, let anyone who thinks he stands [who feels sure that he has a steadfast mind and is standing firm] take heed lest he fall [into sin]. 1 Corinthians 10:12 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

Fifth, be prayerful. Have a consistent prayer life. Jesus told us to pray, or else we fall into temptations.

This applies also to ministers of God. Prayer is a fortress that buffers you from temptations. Jesus did not fall into temptations that came His way because He was prayerful. As the Father sent Him, so He has sent us. If He prayed to overcome temptation, Oh, thou MOG, WOG, we need more prayers.

Sixth, Examine yourself always through the mirror of the Word of God. Judge yourself according to the standards in the Word of God, and you will not be judged. If you live by the standards put up in the Word of God (Yes, you can by the grace of God), then there will be no place for compromise.

Let me conclude with what Paul wrote to the believers in Ephesus, which also applies to us ministers of God: But when anything is exposed and reproved by the light, it is made visible and clear; and where everything is visible and clear, there is light. Therefore, He says, Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall shine (make day dawn) upon you and give you light. (Ephesians 5:13-14 AMPC). He wrote to the Roman believers (and this also applies to us Pastors): And do this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now, our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. The night is far spent; the day is at hand. Therefore, let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light. Let us walk properly, as in the day, not in revelry and drunkenness, not in lewdness and lust, not in strife and envy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to fulfill its lusts (Rom 13:11-14 NKJV).

4 WISDOM MARRIAGE

Unless the LORD builds the house, They labor in vain who build it; Unless the LORD guards the city, The watchman stays awake in vain.

(Psalm 127:1 New King James Version)

Through wisdom, a house is built, And by understanding, it is established; By knowledge, the rooms are filled With all precious and pleasant riches.

(Proverbs 24:3-4 New King James Version)

Wisdom is profitable to direct. May the wisdom from these quotes (copied) help make your marriage as blessed and blissful as God meant for it to be.

1. Choose to love each other even when you struggle to like each other. Love is a commitment, not just a feeling.
2. Always answer the phone when your husband/wife is calling, and when possible, try to keep your phone off when you're together with your spouse.
3. Make time together a priority—budget for a consistent date night. Time is the "currency of relationships," so consistently invest time into your marriage. There are no shortcuts. Building a strong marriage takes time.
4. Your friends will impact your marriage, so choose your friends wisely. Surround yourself with friends who will strengthen your marriage and remove yourself from people who may tempt you to compromise your character.
5. Make laughter the soundtrack of your marriage. Share moments of joy, and even in the hard times, find reasons to laugh.

6. In every argument, remember that there won't be a "winner" and a "loser." You are partners in everything, so you'll win or lose together. Work together to find a solution.
7. Remember that a strong marriage rarely has two strong people at the same time. Usually, a husband and wife take turns being strong for each other when the other feels weak.
8. Prioritize what happens in the bedroom. It takes more than sex to build a strong marriage, but it's nearly impossible to build a strong marriage without it!
9. Remember that marriage isn't 50-50; divorce is 50-50. Marriage has to be 100-100. It's not splitting everything in half, but both partners giving everything they've got!
10. Give your best to each other, not your leftovers, after you've given your best to everyone else.

YOU ARE VERY IMPORTANT TO GOD

WISDOM4CHILDREN

How important are you to God? Do you know that God loves you so much and will do all for you to be saved, safe, and not despised? Yes, God will go to any lengths just for your salvation, safety, and dignity.

Read Matthew 18:10: "See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven." Jesus starts by talking about how important his followers, believers like you and me, are to God. When He says, "See that you do not despise one of these little ones," He's saying, "Don't look down upon any of my followers." He follows that up by explaining that we are so important to God that we have angels assigned to protect us. Wow! God must really care about us!

KNOW THIS!

YOU ARE VERY IMPORTANT TO GOD.

NO ONE IS PERMITTED TO DESPISE YOU.

GOD'S ANGELS ARE YOUR PERSONAL BODYGUARDS
TO PROTECT YOU.

CONFESSION

I am a child of God.

I am very important to God.

I refuse to let anyone despise me.

God's angels are protecting me.

Nothing shall harm me.

Hallelujah!

Are you a Christian?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I am coming today to ask you a crucial question about life. I ask you this question because many people mistakenly think life here on earth is our only life. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity depends on what you do now to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that, but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a fascinating conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus.

Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, "You must be born again." The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things? (John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus tells Nicodemus that unless a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter or see the Kingdom of God. Jesus explained that to be born again is to be born of water and the Spirit. From the scriptures, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit, and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water, and the Spirit is to be born by the Word of God. This is precisely what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

*"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God."
(1 Peter 1:23 NIV)*

How can one be born again by the Word of God? The apostle Paul answered when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved." (Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

Two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe He came to save humanity from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay: death: the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. As scripture says, our sins were all put on Him (Isa. 53:6), and He died in our place. You must also believe that He was buried, and on the third day, He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these and confess Jesus as Lord, you are born again.

Born Again is not the name of a church, as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born-again Christian. Sorry, there is nothing like a 'born-again Christian.' All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His Word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and Savior.

It is foolish not to believe God's Word and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, in the name of the Lord, I beseech you to follow God's ways as outlined in His Word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation.
YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are unsure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to be born again now. As we have seen above, all you need to do is believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer sincerely from your heart:

*Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe You sent Jesus Christ, Your Son, to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried, and on the third day, He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I, therefore, confess Him as Lord and Saviour of my life. I am now a new creation. According to the scriptures, Old things are passed away. I am now born again, and all things have become new.
Thank You, Lord, for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a newborn baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get into a true Bible-believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Read the Bible daily because God's Word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Also, make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Above all, do not forsake fellowship, live a consecrated life, and be set apart for God. God will, therefore, use you as a vessel of honor, blessing humankind and giving Him glory.

*Welcome to the family of God.
And God Bless You!*
