Wonders Without Number

Manifesting Sonship Through Signs And Wonders

According to the scriptures, creation is waiting for the manifestation of THE SONS of God (Rom. 8:19). Sons are for manifestation, and one of the things we are to manifest is SIGNS AND WONDERS. The supernatural is, therefore, God's ordination in redemption. If you are born again, you are ordained a sign and a wonder (Isa. 8:18).

Yes, God's children are ordained to command signs and wonders. But it is worth understanding the following concerning this subject.

HE DOES great things past finding out, Yes, WONDERS WITHOUT NUMBER.

(Job 9:10 NKJV)

WHO DOES great things beyond comprehension, WONDERS WITHOUT NUMBER.

(Job 5:9 Tree of Life Version)

Here am I AND THE CHILDREN whom the LORD has given me! We ARE FOR SIGNS AND WONDERS in Israel From the LORD of hosts, Who dwells in Mount Zion.

(Isaiah 8:18 NKJV)

1. God is the SOURCE and EXECUTIONER of the signs and wonders.

Signs and wonders originate from God, and He is the One working the signs and wonders in the believer. The scriptures say, "And they went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the message by accompanying signs." (Mark 16:20 ESV). Notice that God WORKED with them, and God CONFIRMED the message. From Job 5:9 and 9:10, God is the One who does the great things and wonders without number. Psalm 131:4 says God alone does great wonders. The disciples understood God is the source of miracles, signs, and wonders because they are done by the hand of God (Acts 4:29-30).

2. Believers are the AGENTS God uses to do signs.

The Bible says, "These signs shall follow them that believe..." (Mark 16:17-18). Only believers in Jesus Christ are empowered and ordained to do godly signs and wonders. Notice that I use the Word 'godly.' This is because even those who do not believe in Jesus Christ can do signs and wonders. Believers in Christ are the only ones approved and authenticated to do signs, just as Jesus was approved by signs and wonders (Acts 2:22). If you are a child of God, then you have the potential to manifest the supernatural because the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of God is in you, to empower and position you to operate in the supernatural. This is precisely what Isaiah meant when he wrote, "I and the children the Lord has given me are for signs and wonders" (Isa. 8:18). If you are born again, you are a sign and a wonder (John 3:8) and have the potential to do signs.

3. Believers MUST GROW from Children to sons to do signs.

A child of God must grow into a son of God to do signs. Responsibility is given only to sons. In Isaiah 9:6, the Child Jesus was born. But He had to grow into a Son before the government was put upon His shoulders. The child of God must grow to sonship (maturity) to manifest because responsibility is given only to sons. Sons manifest (Rom. 8:19). Inheritance is not given to children, but to sons (Gal. 4:1-7). The inheritance to do signs and wonders will be yours only when one grows from a son to a child.

4. To grow from a child to a son, you must DELIGHT IN THE WORD.

The Word of God is a PRINCIPAL INGREDIENT for doing signs (Mark 16:20). Spiritual nourishment by the Word is required for spiritual growth. We grow by feeding on the milk of the Word (1 Pet. 2:2). We live not only by bread but by spiritual bread, the Word of God (Matt. 4:4). We also need the strong meat of the Word of God to be strengthened to do signs (Heb. 5:12-14). Hunger for the Word of God must be in place for one to delight in the Word for growth to maturity to command signs.

5. As you grow in the Word of God, you must USE THE WORD to do signs.

The more we grow in the Word, the more signs we will command. You do signs with the ROD (the Word)... You shall take this rod and do signs (Exo. 4:17). The Word of God is the ROD OF COMMAND. When you have the Word, you have the rod (Bishop Oyedepo). You take the rod with which to do signs by working the Word through your belief in the revealed Word, and by you do the signs. The potential of every miracle is released when the Word of God is obeyed (applied). Whenever you believe and ACT on God's Word, you create an atmosphere for miracles, signs, and wonders. Also, the Word that will do signs must be spoken (Mark 16:20; Acts 4:31; Acts 8:4-8).

6. The POWER TO COMMAND signs and wonders is GENERATED on the PRAYER ALTAR.

When priority is given to PRAYER and the Word of God, the environment for manifesting signs and wonders without number is created (Acts 6:4, 7-8). In Acts 4:30, the disciples prayed for signs and wonders. After speaking God's Word boldly, God granted their prayers (See Acts 5:12). Therefore, prayer is essential in working miracles.

This month, therefore,
the Prophetic Theme is:

Wonders Without Number

Manifesting Sonship Through Signs And Wonders

Come and join us throughout this month as we explore the Word of God to gain insights and have enhanced understanding to be a sign and a wonder in our generation as you go out to your world in faith and boldness, with mighty signs and wonders following.

THE POWER OF TESTIMONIES

Excerpts From Bishop Oyedepo's
Teaching on The Power of Testimonies

Happy 70th Birthday to Papa Oyedepo 27-09-24

Testimonies Are Faith Boosters

*Your testimonies
I have taken as a heritage forever,
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.*

(Psalm 119:111 NKJV)

When one doesn't appreciate and consider testimonies, his spiritual understanding is short-circuited, and expectations are crippled. A critical look at Mark 6:52 reveals that Jesus was implying that the disciples fell into trouble because they did not consider the previous miracles of the loaves. When you stop considering testimonies, you begin to fail, as those who do not exalt testimonies never have one. On the other hand, however, many great things happen when we consider testimonies. In fact, you hear people say they got their testimonies from something they heard someone else share. A clear scriptural example is when those who heard about the healing of the woman who touched Jesus' garment were healed, and all others who touched Him also received their healing. (See Mark 5:25-34/6:54-56).

Testimonies Are Potent Spiritual Weapons.

Testimonies are potent weapons to confront the challenges of life. For example, when confronted by Goliath, David used testimonies to triumph. He engaged the weapon of testimony in bringing down the head of Goliath.

The LORD that delivered me out of the paw of the lion and the bear will deliver me out of your hand...

1 Samuel 17:37

We overcome the enemy by the blood of the Lamb and the words of our testimonies:

And they overcame him by the blood of the lamb and the words of their testimony.

1 Samuel 17:37

Testimonies Are Direct Confirmation of The Word.

And they went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following.

Mark 6:20

This implies that testimonies confirm the truth. Testimonies are manifestations of the truth of the scriptures. They are the righteous acts of God and the proof that God is still at work on earth today. We can, therefore, engage testimonies the same way we engage scriptures in warfare, as in the story of David and Goliath.

Testimonies Are Living Forces With the Ability to Reproduce Themselves.

They gave birth to similar other testimonies and help the recipient preserve his testimony. For instance, the testimony of the woman with the issue of blood in Matthew 9:20-22 caused a stir across the whole land, such that from that time on, multitudes kept pressing to touch the hem of Jesus' garment, with everyone getting the same kind of results (Matthew 14:36).

Testimonies Are Also Prophetic.

...For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy
Revelation 19:10

Therefore, every testimony here is a pointer to what God has reserved for everyone who desires such.

Testimonies

I want to thank God for His hand in my life and family. He has been so good at keeping us healthy. No one in my household has slept in the hospital since 2024 began. We have not gone hungry any day. God has continued to provide for us in times of need. Recently, God favored me in renewing my work visa for another year. He has been faithful year after year. We are grateful, Lord.

(Sister Aggie)

Thank you, Jesus. I want to thank Almighty God for His Word, which says He has plans to prosper us and give us a bright future manifesting in my life. This year, I applied to different universities to read pharmacy. I got admitted to a prestigious university with a scholarship. Thank you, Jesus. I also want to thank God for giving me a visa. I had a one-month visa, and the documents needed to extend my visa were to be provided by my new university. When I contacted them, I was told the visa could only be extended on the school opening day. The school opening day was when my current visa had to expire. I thank God because everything went smoothly on that day. When I arrived at the campus, I did my registration and went to the visa office. The visa was given to me without any difficulties. God went ahead of me to make the crooked way straight. I give Him all the glory. Hallelujah! (Tracy)

My wife is an English Teacher in China. My children go to school here in China. The 2024/2025 Academic year in China was officially slated to begin on September 2. But the heat was unbearable, and the government had to postpone the resumption for another week. I called my wife and asked that we pray and agree for FAIR WEATHER. That we did, and some schools, including my son's, asked that children resume on the 9th. We continued praying, and there was an outpour of rain in the following days that lowered the temperature to some degree. Because of this, the government announced that schools would resume on the 18th. Today, my wife, who teaches in the kindergarten, went to work, and my daughter's school resumed.

God is still a prayer answering God. There is power in agreement. Fair weather comes from the Lord. Understand that you can change anything through prayers. Hallelujah!

Conclusion

Testimonies are loaded with power that can turn situations around just as prayer and the word do. Use the weapon of testimonies to release the power within and bring the needed changes in your life and of those around you.

Hallelujah!

Leave to Cleave

Part 2

LIVING YOUR OLD LIFE, OLD HABITS
AND CLEAVE TO THE LORD JESUS

Agnes N. Kema

You are God's children whom he loves. So try to be like God. Live a life of love. Love other people just as Christ loved us. Christ gave himself for us—he was a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God.

(Ephesians 5:1-2 ICB)

Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

Romans 12

Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

Acts.11

What did you think the journey would be when you received your salvation? Did you think God would clear the road for you and make everything easy? Did you think the devil will never attack you again? If that was your thinking, or you still think the same, then I suppose you might be wrong.

We should know that when we believe, we declare war against the enemy, and he will fight to ensure you return to him. So, leaving the devil's playground to cleave to God is something the devil will not take lightly.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO LEAVE TO CLEAVE?

In "LEAVE TO CLEAVE 1," we established that Leaving means 'to go away, depart from, go from, withdraw from, retire from...' Cleave means 'to glue, adhere, stick, cling, join, and many more.'

The day you gave your life to Christ, that was the day you chose to leave the devil's camp for God's camp. So we see from the above definitions that when we leave, we must go away, depart from, withdraw from, or retire from every practice of the devil. Everything you use to do that doesn't glorify God is of the devil. It may look harmless, but it's the devil's if it does not glorify God.

You are God's children whom he loves. So try to be like God. Live a life of love. Love other people just as Christ loved us. Christ gave himself for us—he was a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God. (Ephesians 5:1-2 ICB)

To cleave to God, as His children, we must try to be like Him, just like the above scripture says.

How Can We Cleave to God?

1. Read, meditate, and obey His Word.

Joshua 1:8 says, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success." (KJV). Reading the Word of God gives us knowledge of who we are, who God is, and how we can relate to Him. Meditating on this knowledge, we receive wisdom on how to obey or apply it in our lives, which will make us closer to God, thereby cleaving to Him.

2. Listen to His divine directions and follow.

Isaiah 55:8-9 says, "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." (KJV).

As humans, we tend to doubt God sometimes. Maybe because what God has asked us to do is not what we expected. But as His Children, we must learn to follow wherever He leads or asks us to. Only then can we leave the devil's playground and cleave to God.

3. Live a sacrificial life as Christ did.

Romans 12:1-2 says, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God is" (KJV). Christ did not conform to this world, so He doesn't want us to. That is why God has given us His grace, enabling us to live like Christ. We have daily grace to live like Christ.

It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed because his compassions fail not.

They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.

(Lamentations 3:22-23 KJV)

So, as children of God who have left the devil's camp, let us, with all our hearts, seek, know, and obey all that the Lord Jesus commands so we will genuinely cleave to Him in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Wonders Without Number Thanksgiving And Prayer Declarations

Thank [God] in everything [no matter what the circumstances may be, be thankful and give thanks], for this is the will of God for you [who are] in Christ Jesus [the Revealer and Mediator of that will]
(1 Thessalonians 5:18 Amplified Bible, Classic Edition)

Thanksgiving Prayer 1

Father God, thank You for your providence and sovereignty. Lord Jesus, thank You for Your wonderful sacrifice that has brought us salvation and positioned us to be sanctified by Your blood and accepted into the fold of God. Holy Spirit, we are grateful for Your continuous guidance and comfort. We give You all the glory, honor, power, and praise. Hallelujah!

Genesis 22:14

Prayer Declaration 1

I am a child of God. I am well-supplied because my providence comes from God. The Holy Spirit of God guides me to the place that God has for my life this season. I will not miss it because the grace to follow God's guidance is my portion. Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving Prayer 2

Father, thank You for ordaining me a sign and a wonder and for making provision, the rod, the Word of God with which I shall do signs. Signs and wonders will manifest wherever I go this season by Your grace and partnership. Hallelujah!

Isaiah 8:18/Exodus 4:17

Prayer Declaration 2

I am a child of God. I have God's Word in my heart and my mouth. With it, I will do signs wherever I go in partnership with God, giving glory to His name. Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving Prayer 3

Father, in the name of Jesus, thank You for choosing and ordaining me as a GO MISSION AMBASSADOR to reconcile men to You. Thank You for being a partner in the mission as You watch over the Words I speak and perform them through miracles, signs and wonders. Hallelujah!

Luke 10:1/2 Cor. 5:20/Jer. 1:12

Prayer Declaration 3

I am a child of God in ACTIVE PARTNERSHIP with Jesus. Signs and wonders follow me wherever I go to exercise my ambassadorial duties. Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving Prayer 4

Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, thank You for counting me worthy to be among those who can be Your witness in my world. Thank You for empowering me with Your Holy Spirit to speak Your Word with boldness and for confirming Your Word with attesting miracles, signs, and wonders to the glory of Your name. Hallelujah!

Acts 1:8/Acts 4:31; 14:3

Prayer Declaration 4

I am a child of God, ordained and empowered to do signs and wonders with the Word of God. As I go and preach the Word, God honors His Word with miracles, signs, and wonders to bless humanity. Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving Prayer 5

Thank You, Father, for making me a god to my world. Thank You because, by this, You will use me to liberate many from modern-day Pharaohs who have kept many in slavery for too long. Thank You because as I engage in this divine assignment this month and beyond, you will back me up with miracles, signs, and wonders.

Exo. 7:1/Psa. 78:11-12/Mark 16:20

Prayer Declaration 5

I am a child of God, on God's mission. The supernatural will naturally follow me as I have been made a god to my world. Miracles, signs, and wonders will be the order of the day wherever I go on mission for God. Hallelujah!

A Form of Godliness

Pastor Crystabelle Ferim

This know also that in the last days, perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, high minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

So many scriptures have made so much sense to me and guided me in the past decades, many of which I am revisiting and discovering wells of wisdom from them. One of such scriptures is 2 Timothy 3: 1-5:

This scripture is appropriate today because it addresses the times we find ourselves - Perilous times. Perilous times are times full of danger or times in which we are exposed to imminent disasters or complete ruin. The characteristics of these times are especially troubling, and it leaves one wondering if it is a good idea to hang on to see if there will be any changes.

These characteristics may describe the times in which we are, but their nature exhibits human character. They show us the mindset and character of many, including believers, in these times.

Men will break covenants and agreements, falsely accuse others, elevate evil over good, and be proud and haters of God.

There has never been another time in history where good was so evil spoken of and evil projected and forced down the throat of men. You should not be surprised when you see these things; rather, be prepared because we are truly in the end times.

The most troubling of all these characteristics is that men will have a “form of godliness.” It is one thing to be Godly and another to be ungodly, but having a “form” is as dangerous as it sounds.

What is a form of godliness? To understand what it is, we need to clarify what godliness is. Godliness is being devout and morally upright. It is not just that, but living by the will and commands of God, in essence, making God the Lord of your life. Godliness goes with allowing God, hence, letting His Spirit and power work through you in your lifestyle and decision-making.

A “form of godliness” is not so. It is the direct opposite of what we stated above. It involves an outward display of religion but no inward transformation. Those who present a form of godliness do not allow God to rule over their lives, nor do they live by His will.

So many things about today’s Christianity bother me. The Christian who is so intertwined with unbelievers and has to be involved with them in every way. The one who is so inclusive and gives an ear and a right to every ideology that drowns the knowledge of God. Christians who want you to speak to their heads but not bring forth a God-filled message because they do not want their hearts perturbed. Christians who hold onto beliefs like “karma,” “horoscope,” “astrology,” and the like and want to mix those with godliness. People who want to live recklessly but at the same time be considered part of the Christian fold. Those who are their own gods but get angry at God when something bad happens to them. Having a form of godliness but denying God’s complete transformative power in their lives. They have a semblance of what is godly, so they would be included among God’s people yet still want to be a part of the world.

The Bible says to stay away from such people. They are Jacks of all trades and masters of none. They will not encourage your faith. If anything, they will kill your faith in God and help you disobey and blame God in every way.

In these end days, I would love to check in with you. What do you exhibit? Are you Godly, or do you just have a form of it for the reason of belonging? Please do me a favor and take time to check your stance.

The Tree of Life (Part 2)

My son, pay attention to what I say; turn your ear to my words. Do not let them out of your sight, keep them within your heart; for they are life to those who find them and health to one's whole body. (Proverbs 4:20-22 NIVUK)

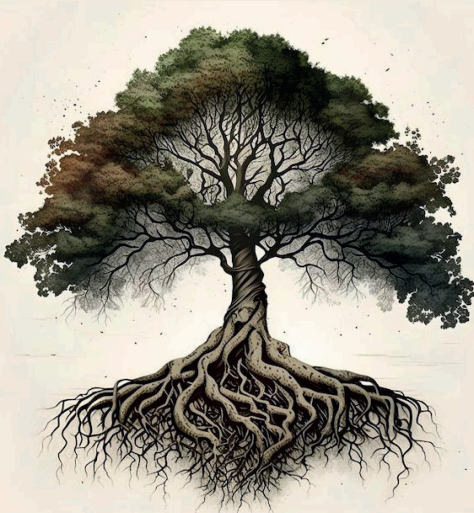

Lily Boshey

Prayer

Dear heavenly Father, I thank You for giving birth to me by Your Word and making it available for me to live by. I receive grace to feed on it daily, and as I do, more grace is released to me, and I experience supernatural health, success, and progress in Jesus' Name.

Amen.

Solomon shares with us a great piece of advice his father gave him. That advice is for us, too. What we hear and see is what we let in our hearts. Therefore, God wants us to do three things,

1. Turn your ears to my words. That is, let our ears be full of the gracious words of Jesus.
2. Do not let them out of your sight. That is, let our eyes be full of the presence of Jesus.
3. Keep them within your heart. In other words, let our hearts meditate on what we have heard and seen in Jesus. That's what "give attention to my words" means for us, who are the result of the New Covenant.

The commandment that God gave to Joshua is still valid today. "Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful (Joshua 1:8 NIV)."

Having experienced the benefits of obeying the commandment above, David tells us that the person who meditates constantly on the Word of God, "will be standing firm like a flourishing tree planted by God's design, deeply rooted by the brooks of bliss, bearing fruit in every season of life. He is never dry, never fainting, ever blessed, ever prosperous." (Psalms 1:3 TPT). Hallelujah!

*We Must Carry Around All
The Time The Consciousness
That Our Success And Prosperity
Are Rooted in The Word of God.*

*Turning Our Eyes And Ear Gates to Jesus Means He Will be Life And Health to us. The More we Hear
And See Jesus, The Healthier we Become.*

That's a consciousness we must carry around all the time, that our success and prosperity are rooted in the Word of God. And for us to be that way, God wants us to be full of the gracious presence of His Son. The Word that was made flesh (John 1:14).

Scripture says as we behold Him, we are transformed more and more to be like Him, bringing glory to God the Father who, 'knew all about us before we were born, and He destined us from the beginning to share the likeness of His Son. This means the Son is the oldest among a vast family of brothers and sisters who will become just like him (Rom 8:29 TPT).

Remember how Jesus is said to have grown in stature and favour? Yes, so much favour that He simply asked Peter, James, John, and Matthew to follow Him, and they left everything and followed Him, burning the bridges behind them.

We all can walk in this favour as we continually behold the source of favour. Imagine the kind of life where men love you, open their hearts, and make their resources available to you as they did to our Saviour. That's how you know God is with you: when men are ready and willing to follow you.

They followed Him, and He made them the light of their world. See their words to their leaders turned persecutors after Jesus had ascended to heaven, "As for us, we cannot help speaking about what we have seen and heard." (Acts 4:20 NIV). No force can stop us when we continually turn our eyes and ear gates to the Tree of Life, Jesus.

There is a direct connection between hearing and seeing Jesus and the health of our physical bodies. Turning our eyes and ear gates to Jesus means He will be life and health to us. The more we hear and see Jesus, the healthier we become. Our mortal bodies become infused with His resurrection power. But sitting constantly before our television screens or on social media will only help to weaken us. There is no nourishment there for the born again man. Too much of it only produces death. We should give time to feeding on the Word of God. That will keep us healthy as we meditate, study, and stay on it.

So even as we must keep abreast of our nations' and world affairs, let us give more time to eating from the tree of life. That's what will keep us spiritually and physically healthy and sound.

The Ideal Christian Woman 2

Pastor Shekinah Stephens

She is Hospitable

The ideal Christian woman is hospitable. She extends hospitality to those outside the walls of her home. One of them was Lydia from Thyatira, a merchant of expensive purple cloth who worshiped God. As she listened to us, the Lord opened her heart, and she accepted what Paul was saying. She and her household were baptized, and she asked us to be her guests. "If you agree that I am a true believer in the Lord," she said, "come and stay at my home." And she urged us until we agreed. (Acts 16:14-15). Lydia welcomed the Apostles and let them stay at her home.

She Lives Out the Mandate of Titus 2:3-5

An ideal Christian woman trains the younger women by modeling godliness and living to please the Lord. The younger women receive instructions with meekness and humility to grow into maturity, become ideal Christian women, and train the next generation.

She is a Servant

Everyone must think of her well because of the good she has done. Has she brought up her children well? Has she been kind to strangers as well as to other Christians? Has she helped those who are sick and hurt? Is she always ready to show kindness? (1 Tim. 5:10 LB).

The ideal Christian woman is a servant. She is well respected by everyone because of the good she does. She brings up her children well. She is kind to strangers and serves other believers humbly. She helps those in trouble. In 1 Samuel 25, we see Abigail, a great servant woman who is a servant who is always ready to serve.

She is Simple & Respectful

The ideal Christian woman acknowledges the authority and role of others in a given situation. (Col. 3:12-17). What should make you stand out as an ideal Christian woman is not your hair, jewels or fancy clothes, but your kindness and goodness towards others (1 Tim. 2:9-10).

She Has the Spirit of Thanksgiving

The ideal Christian woman is a Thanksgiving addict. "Giving thanks to the Lord for He is good and His faithfulness endures forever" (1 Thess 5:18). She does not forget where Jesus picked her from (John 8:2-11) and therefore expresses her gratefulness by always thanking God.

She is Modest

The ideal Christian woman is modest. The scriptures talk a lot about women and modesty. An ideal Christian Woman ensures that she is modest in appearance. She dresses in conformity with what is universally socially acceptable.

She is a Beautiful Woman

God is so concerned about the beauty of a woman that He often describes women in the Bible based on their beauty. Sarah was a very beautiful woman at the age of 90. A king decided to take her in to become his wife. Rebecca, Rachel, and Leah were described by their beautiful appearance.

But the Lord is much more concerned about the beauty of the inner man. Do you acknowledge you are beautifully and wonderfully made? Or do you always wish you were another person?

She is comfortable in who she is

The ideal Christian woman is comfortable in her skin. Do you wish you were someone else? A bit taller, fairer, or fatter, etc. If you understand the cost of your salvation, you will understand why Jesus Christ chose you. You are His perfect bride. Jesus did not choose you because of your color or height. He chose you because He loves you just as you are.

Conclusion

But you have not so learned Christ, if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him, as the truth is in Jesus: that you put off, concerning your former conduct, the old man which grows corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness (Ephesians 4:20-24).

*Charm is deceitful,
and beauty is passing,
But a woman who fears the Lord she shall be praised.*

(Proverbs 31:30 NKJV)

In the last edition of the ITM, we began discussing the Ideal Christian Woman and the characteristics that make her stand out just as a bride stands out on her wedding day. In the first part, we have seen that the Ideal Christian woman is:

- A Godly Woman ().
- A Woman who loves the Lord (Mark 12:29-30; Deut 6:4-5).
- A Woman of Faith (Psa. 25:4-5; Eph. 5:15-17).
- A Woman Who Takes Care of Herself (1 Cor. 6:19-20).
- A Home Builder (Proverbs 14:1).

We will continue with the characteristic of an ideal Christian woman that makes her stand out.

UNDERSTANDING THE KINGDOM MAN

Kingdom Man! Who is this man? What distinguishes this man from other men? Are you a kingdom man? Let's discuss some aspects of the Kingdom Man so that, as a man in the Kingdom of God, you should know whether you are a kingdom man. Note that being a man (male) in the kingdom of God does not necessarily make you a kingdom man. For example, many people living in the United Kingdom are not of the kingdom.

Who is a Kingdom Man?

A Kingdom Man is a man who has decided to operate consistently under the governance of God and the Lordship of Jesus Christ. The decision alone is not enough. A Kingdom man is always ready and willing to declare where he belongs personally, culturally, and publicly.

What is the Kingdom Man in the bible?

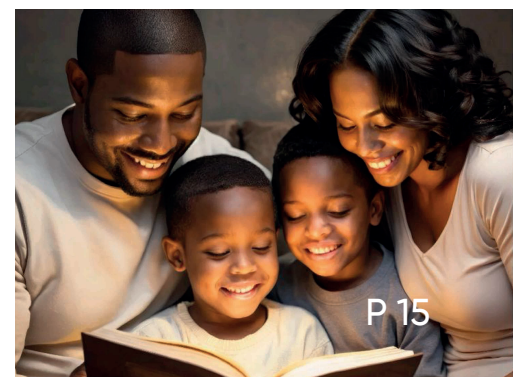

A kingdom man is a man who visibly demonstrates the comprehensive rule of God under the lordship of Jesus Christ in every area of his life. A kingdom man's essence is centered around alignment and submission. God never expected a man to act independently of Him.

Characteristics of a Kingdom Man's mindset

A Kingdom Man lives above the circumstances and not under them. A kingdom man's mindset is focused on Christ more than anything or anyone else. The Kingdom Man's every thought is shaped with God's (The KING'S) presence in mind. This mindset considers what Jesus thinks about things more than how he thinks. The Kingdom Man sets his mind on things above and not below. He aligns his thoughts with God's higher thoughts, leading him to God's higher ways.

Qualities of a Kingdom Man

This is what distinguishes a Kingdom Man from all other men. The Kingdom Man is a man of integrity, honesty, kindness, courage, and faith and lives in many other honorable ways. Yet there is one quality, one identifier that covers all these and more: a godly man is a kingdom man.

1 Corinthians 13:11 (NKJV)

When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but WHEN I BECAME A MAN, I put away childish things.

Staying in the Faith Zone: A Path to Unwavering Belief (2)

By PGL Nzimbi

What is Faith?

Faith is a term that Christians often use loosely. Many, if not the majority, do not fully understand what faith is, why it is needed, how to know if they are in faith, and how to find faith. We find our definition of faith in Romans 4:18-21: “Against all hope, Abraham in hope believed and so became the father of many nations, just as it had been said to him, ‘So shall your offspring be.’ Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah’s womb was also dead. Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised.”

Let’s understand the setting of this story. Abraham and Sarah could not have children. It was not a matter of having trouble conceiving; they were almost 100 years old, and it was over. Their bodies could not have children; it was impossible! Yet God promised Abraham a child even though it was utterly impossible in the natural. The Bible says that Abraham was fully persuaded that God had the power to do what He said, in spite of the natural facts that stated a different story. Here, then, is our definition of faith: “Being fully persuaded that God has the power to do what He has promised without you looking for alternative routes and plan Bs.” This is where many people fail in the faith walk and cannot receive from God!

Faith is a constant choosing of receptivity to God’s activity, a continuous availability to God’s ability. Faith is agreeing with heaven, not just mentally assenting but being fully persuaded to hang in there even when everything else says otherwise. It is you sticking to that lane while everyone else switches lanes.

How do you know you are in faith? You are in faith when you are persuaded about a thing and sink your teeth into it like a bulldog. You are in faith when you are persuaded in your spirit of what God has promised, becoming so settled and convinced of what God has said, in spite of the natural realm indicating something else.

In summary, faith is being fully persuaded of what God says! It is our heart and soul being in agreement with heaven, our hearts being fully persuaded, confident, and at rest.

Most Christians don’t practice the life of faith; they see faith as an emergency vest they can use when they get into trouble. Faith does not grow overnight; it builds over a lifetime to the point where you start living in what I call the Faith Zone.

The Faith Zone can be likened to being in a Wi-Fi Zone. When you are within the Wi-Fi zone, you enjoy a strong, clear signal, just as when you are within the Faith Zone, you experience a close, confident connection with God. However, as you move further from the Wi-Fi zone, the signal weakens until it eventually drops completely. Similarly, as you drift away from the Faith Zone, your trust and connection with God can weaken, making it harder to sense His presence and guidance. Staying within the Faith Zone ensures a strong and continuous connection, much like staying within range of a Wi-Fi signal.

Biblical Examples of the Faith Zone

Let’s take Jairus, for instance, a synagogue leader who faced an unimaginable crisis when his daughter fell gravely ill. Desperate for a miracle, he sought out Jesus, hoping for a healing touch. However, his faith was tested when messengers arrived with the devastating news that his daughter had died. “Don’t bother the teacher anymore,” they said (Luke 8:49).

In this moment of despair, Jesus intervened, offering words that would fortify Jairus’s faith: “Don’t be afraid; just believe” (Luke 8:50). Jesus urged Jairus to remain in the faith zone, assuring him that faith could transcend even death. Jesus revived Jairus’s daughter, true to His promise, illustrating that steadfast belief can yield miraculous outcomes. Jairus’s story reminds us that faith should persist, even when circumstances seem hopeless.

Faith is Being Fully Persuaded That God has The Power to do What He has Promised Without You Looking for Alternative Routes And Plan Bs.

Peter provides another compelling example of someone who learned to live in the faith zone, even after experiencing past failures in faith. After denying Jesus three times and almost drowning when his faith faltered as he walked on water towards Jesus (Matt 14:30-31), Peter grew in his understanding and trust in God. This growth was evident when he was arrested and faced execution after the public holiday following the killing of his brother, James. Despite the dire circumstances and the imminent threat to his life, Peter was found sleeping peacefully in prison (Acts 12:6). This calmness in such a terrifying situation is remarkable. Who falls asleep in a situation like that? Only someone who has truly learned to live in the faith zone, trusting completely in God's plan and presence, regardless of the outward circumstances. Peter's peace demonstrates a deep, unwavering faith that sustains him through even the darkest moments.

You might be wondering, "How do I learn to enter the faith zone?" The story of the lame man in Lystra offers a clear example. This man had been unable to walk from birth, but everything changed when he heard Paul preach the word of God. As he listened, faith grew within him. Seeing this, Paul looked directly at him, saw that he had the faith to be healed, and called out, "Stand up on your feet!" Immediately, the man jumped up and began to walk (Acts 14:8-10).

This story shows that entering the faith zone starts with hearing and receiving God's word, allowing it to build your faith. By immersing yourself in scripture and believing in God's promises, you, too, can cultivate a faith strong enough to transform your life.

Speaking of God's word, it's important to understand that quality often matters more than quantity. Simply reading large amounts of scripture without truly absorbing and reflecting on it may not have the same impact as deeply meditating on a smaller passage. The key is to let God's word penetrate your heart and mind, transforming your thoughts and actions. Just as the lame man in Lystra experienced healing by truly listening and believing in what he heard, you can strengthen your faith by focusing on the quality of your engagement with scripture. Take time to reflect on what you read, pray for understanding, and apply its lessons to your life. This deep, thoughtful interaction with God's word will help you enter and stay in the faith zone.

To conclude, never leave the faith zone. Staying in this zone means maintaining a strong, unwavering trust in God, no matter what challenges or temptations come your way. To avoid the temptation to step out of the faith zone, continuously immerse yourself in God's word, pray regularly in the Spirit (Jude 1:20), and surround yourself with supportive faith mates. Remember the examples of Jairus, Peter, and the lame man in Lystra, whose lives were transformed by their steadfast faith. By focusing on God and His promises, you will find the strength and peace to navigate any situation. Stay rooted in faith, and let it be your everyday lifestyle.

Good Works Vs Dead Works

The Bible has much to say about good works and dead works. Most people assume that dead works refer to overtly sinful stuff and "bad behavior," while good works talk about things like showing acts of kindness towards others. But there's an aspect of works that most believers skip right over or most likely aren't even aware of. Today, I want to take a look at this aspect of works.

Traditional Works

Before I get started, I don't want to imply that I'm disregarding the traditional view of works. Some things we do are destructive to ourselves and those around us. These things are certainly not life-giving by any means. And there are things we do that are obviously good because they lift others and edify people.

This is how most people view works if you ask whether they are believers. I'm not saying this view is wrong. Rather, I think it's missing something crucial.

*Let my mouth be filled with
Your praise And with Your glory
all the day.*

—Psalm 71:8

Dead Works

In the Bible the phrase "dead works" is only found in the book of Hebrews.

Therefore, leaving the discussion of the elementary principles of Christ, let us go on to perfection, not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, of the doctrine of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. And this we will do if God permits.

— Hebrews 6:1-3

Repentance from dead works is a foundational thing. Repentance means to change the way we think. We need to change the way we think about dead works.

From the outside looking in, we can't tell the difference between dead works and good works. They can look very much the same outwardly. They can be the same works, but they have different motives.

1. Praying can be a dead or good work.
2. Attending church can be a dead or good work.
3. Reading the Bible can be a dead or good work.
4. Telling others about Jesus can be a dead or good work.
5. That's why Jesus said:

Many will say to Me in that day, 'Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, cast out demons in Your name, and done many wonders in Your name?' And then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'

— Matthew 7:22-23

Prophesying, casting out demons, and performing miracles in the name of Jesus are all outwardly good things. But Jesus will reject "many" who do those things. Why? Because their hearts are wrong. These people have the wrong motivations for the things they do.

DEAD WORKS –
Any attempt to find favor, earn acceptance, or be made righteous before God by one's effort, ability, or willpower.

Religion emphasizes doing right. In contrast, Jesus and the apostles emphasized believing right because we will naturally do right when we believe right.

“If we can't tell outwardly, how do we know what a good work is?”

A good work is when we do the will of God as a response to His love, mercy, and our new identity of righteousness in Jesus Christ. In our New Covenant with God, grace is the ruling factor.

Grace and truth have come to us through Jesus. (John 1:17) Truth is the law. And the problem with the law is our flesh, our fallen nature.

GRACE –
Godly ability, the divine influence that works in man's heart, making him able. It is God's perfect provision for man's every need.

It takes both truth and grace for good works.

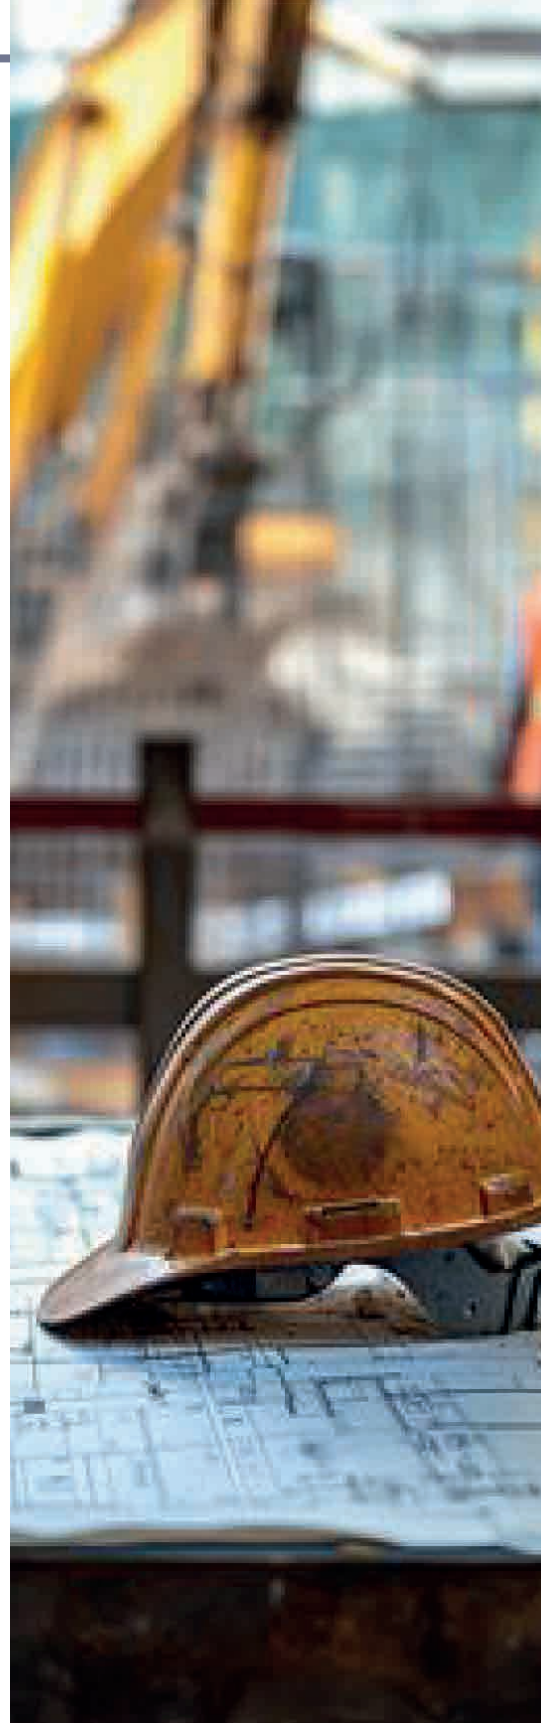

We need truth to know what the action of good works are. And we also need grace to have the proper motivation for good works.

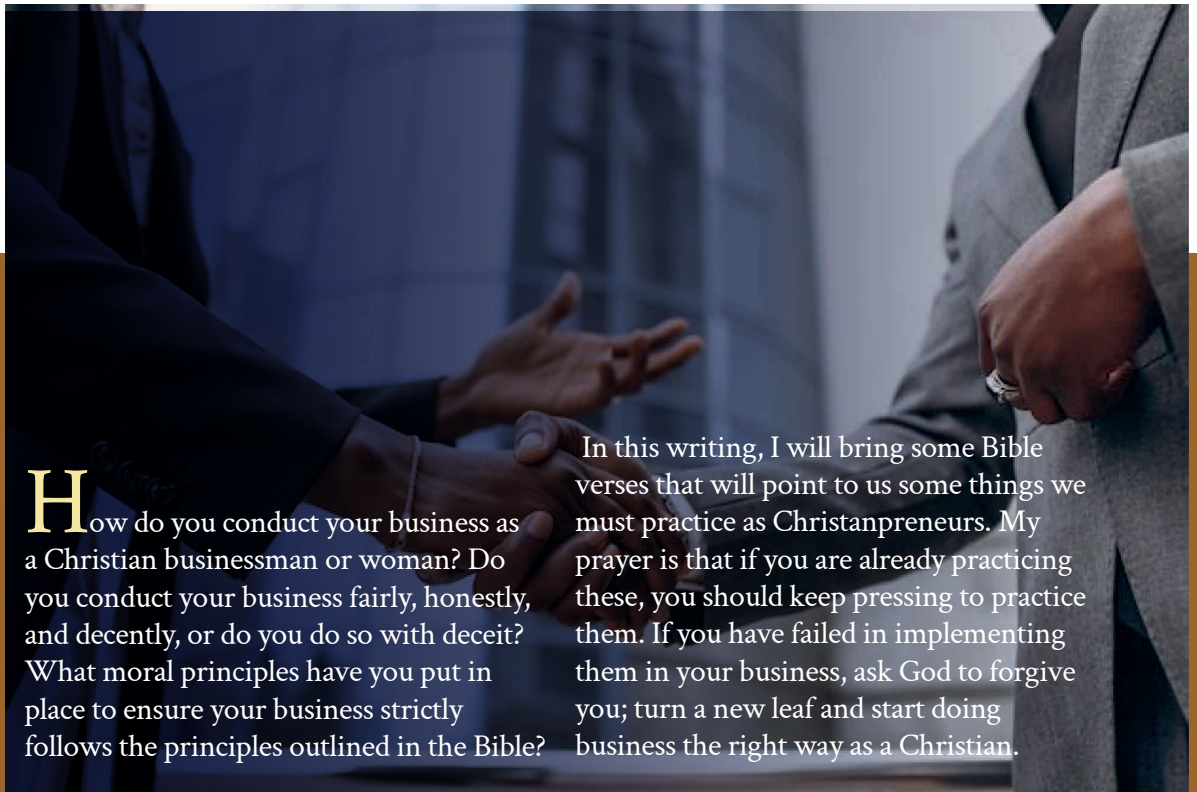

The term "fallen from grace" doesn't mean someone has fallen from sin. Instead, it means they no longer have access to God's ability in them. They have left grace, are fixated on truth alone, and are trying to do good works in their ability.

But what they get in that case is nothing but dead works instead.

How do you conduct your business as a Christian businessman or woman? Do you conduct your business fairly, honestly, and decently, or do you do so with deceit? What moral principles have you put in place to ensure your business strictly follows the principles outlined in the Bible?

In this writing, I will bring some Bible verses that will point to us some things we must practice as Christianpreneurs. My prayer is that if you are already practicing these, you should keep pressing to practice them. If you have failed in implementing them in your business, ask God to forgive you; turn a new leaf and start doing business the right way as a Christian.

BUSINESS PROBITY

Doing Business With Integrity as a Christianpreneur

Proverbs 11:1 – “The LORD detests dishonest scales, but accurate weights find favor with him.”

Proverbs 16:8 – “Better a little with righteousness than much gain with injustice.”

Colossians 3:17: “And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.”

1 Timothy 6:10: “For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs.”

Proverbs 11:3: “The integrity of the upright guides them, but the unfaithful are destroyed by their duplicity.”

Colossians 3:9-10: “Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator.”

Leviticus 19:35-36: You shall do no wrong in judgment, in measures of length or weight or quantity. You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin: I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 25:15: A full and fair weight you shall have, a full and fair measure you shall have, that your days may be long in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

Proverbs 20:10: Unequal weights and unequal measures are both alike an abomination to the LORD.

Proverbs 21:6: The getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a snare of death.

Proverbs 15:27: Whoever is greedy for unjust gain troubles his own household, but he who hates bribes will live.

May the Holy Spirit help us to do business with integrity. AMEN!

Pastor Daniel Nyah

DANGEROUS REASONS FOR ORDINATION OF PASTORS IN CHURCHES

They criticized you for being the only one teaching in the church; they say you don't want to give others opportunities. You hurriedly ordained fifty unlearned, unqualified, and "uncalled" brethren as pastors. Now you are dealing with mediocrity, bad manners, church breakout, and rebellion in the church and wondering what you did wrong. Haste has consequences.

How long did your mother cook alone before getting your "trained siblings" to assist her? Most of the time, the senior siblings buy the ingredients, but the mom cooks the food. Even those she sends to the market had followed her to the market for years before being assigned to go alone. She'll usually do the cooking, and the senior siblings will serve the house. After this training for years, they mastered what food to cook, where to get the ingredients, how to cook, and how to serve. Is this not practical enough before our eyes? Or we didn't grow up in homes? "Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil" (1 Tim. 3:6).

This haste to ordain Pastors in churches because of such poor motivations is causing lots of problems within the church. Some ordain people to "keep them" because they're gifted or wealthy. Sorry, you've ordained trouble, and that's what you're keeping. Are we wiser than God? Some pastors just want to appear big. "I have many pastors under me," they say. Some pastors are lazy and want others to do the work in their absence while traveling from pillar to post. Others want many church branches. They don't care about quality; they just want quantity and a big name. Let's be careful. These immature pastors assigned to speak over the church are often the ones puffed up with pride and falling into the snare of the devil! Lots of them may be subject to demonic attacks and diseases and wonder why. Who will God hold responsible? You who ordained them, of course!

The scriptures say, "A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste to be rich shall not be innocent" (Prov. 28:20). Now the church has scattered fifty times, and you're still wondering? The ministry is not blessed because it lacks patience. Why give ourselves unnecessary work and frustration in the ministry? Haste always comes with severe consequences. And he that makes haste shall not be innocent. Let's apply patience and sound reasoning, regardless of the pressure.

It's good to have pastors rise and assist the work. This is very needful for effective church growth and management. However, "Who? and How?" are the big questions. We cannot help God. It's vital to follow His order and discipline. God isn't desperate; why should we? There's a reason why God called you, trained you, anointed you, and sent you. There were things God considered. So, before you ordain people, consider what God considered about you.

Most pastors with a mediocre understanding of their calling also ordain mediocre people. Because they had no proper training, they see no need to verify anyone's training either. Don't be afraid to start all over. Even if the church scatters, at least do it right this time. Withdraw the ordinations; sit the people down. Take over the leadership. Focus on doing what God has called you. Raise faithful people with time. Replicate your kind after the Lord, then ordain properly as the Spirit of the Lord leads. Never forget Jesus is the LORD of the Church. Building the "Jesus way" is possible when truly the pastor is under the authority of Jesus Himself. — Daniel Nyah

Maintaining Romance in Long-Term Relationships (Marriage)

Ideas For Keeping The Spark Alive

-Vivian Achu

Long-term relationships like marriage are a beautiful journey, but they can sometimes lose the initial spark and romance that brought two people together. Till death do us part is a long time, so making it as beautiful as possible will really help the couple. With a little effort and creativity, it's possible to keep the romance alive and thriving. Here are some ideas to help you and your partner maintain that special connection.

Prioritize Quality Time Together.

It's easy to let work, kids, and other commitments take over our busy lives. Make it a point to carve out quality time for each other. Whether it's a weekly date night, a weekend getaway, or just a few minutes each day to talk without distractions, spending time together is crucial for maintaining a strong bond.

Keep Things Fresh And Exciting.

Routine can be exciting, but it can also lead to boredom. Mix things up by trying new activities together. This could be anything from taking a dance class, cooking a new recipe, or exploring a new hobby. Keeping things fresh helps to reignite the excitement and curiosity in your relationship.

Communicate Openly And Honestly

Effective communication is the cornerstone of any successful relationship. Make a habit of regularly checking in with your partner and discussing any issues or concerns. Open and honest communication helps to prevent misunderstandings and keeps the connection strong.

Show Appreciation and Gratitude

Over time, it's easy to take each other for granted. Make an effort to show your partner how much you appreciate them. Small gestures like leaving a love note, complimenting, or doing something thoughtful can make your partner feel valued and loved.

Plan Romantic Gestures

Romance doesn't have to fade as the years go by; it can evolve and grow stronger. Surprise your partner with romantic gestures that reignite the passion between you. Plan candlelit dinners or weekend getaways, or create a unique ambiance at home with candles and soft music.

Maintaining romance in a long-term relationship requires effort, but it's worth it. By prioritizing quality time, keeping things fresh, communicating openly, showing appreciation, planning romantic gestures, maintaining physical intimacy, and supporting each other's interests, you can keep the spark alive and enjoy a fulfilling and loving relationship for many years to come.

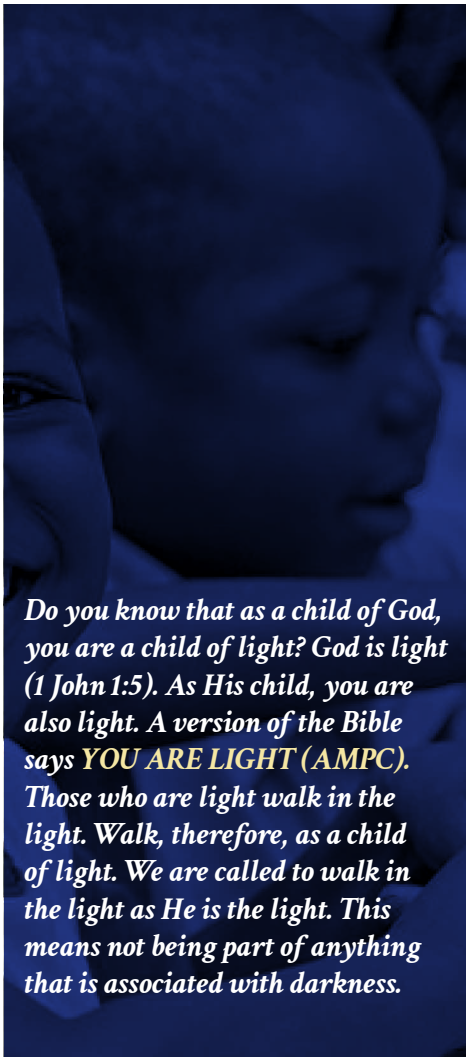

Maintain Physical Intimacy

Physical intimacy is an essential aspect of any romantic relationship. Make an effort to maintain a healthy and fulfilling physical connection with your partner. This could be through regular physical affection, intimate moments, or simply holding hands.

Support Each Other's Interest

Encourage and support each other's interests and hobbies. This helps maintain a sense of individuality and brings new experiences and conversations into the relationship. Celebrate each other's achievements and be there for each other during challenges.

You are a child of light

Do you know that as a child of God, you are a child of light? God is light (1 John 1:5). As His child, you are also light. A version of the Bible says YOU ARE LIGHT (AMPC). Those who are light walk in the light. Walk, therefore, as a child of light. We are called to walk in the light as He is the light. This means not being part of anything that is associated with darkness.

Know This!

- You are a child of God.
- You are a child of light.
- You are full of light.
- As a child of light, you must walk in the light.
- Let your light shine before men.

Confession

I am a child of God. I am a child of light. I am full of light. Each day, I will walk in the light by letting my light shine before men.

Hallelujah!

Read Ephesians 5:1-2, 8-10 for the International Children's Bible (ICB)

“¹ You are God's children whom he loves. So try to be like God. ² Live a life of love. Love other people just as Christ loved us. Christ gave himself for us—he was a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God... ⁸ In the past, you were full of darkness, but now you are full of light in the Lord. So, live like children who belong to the light. ⁹ Light brings every kind of goodness, right living, and truth. ¹⁰ Try to learn what pleases the Lord.

Are you a Christian?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I am coming today to ask you a crucial question about life. I ask you this question because many people mistakenly think life here on earth is our only life. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity depends on what you do now to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that, but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a fascinating conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?" (John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus tells Nicodemus that unless a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter or see the Kingdom of God. Jesus explained that to be born again is to be born of water and the Spirit. From the scriptures, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit, and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water, and the Spirit is to be born by the Word of God. This is precisely what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God." (1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the Word of God? The apostle Paul answered when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved." (Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

Two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe He came to save humanity from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay: death: the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. As scripture says, our sins were all put on Him (Isa. 53:6), and He died in our place. You must also believe that He was buried, and on the third day, He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these and confess Jesus as Lord, you are born again.

Born Again is not the name of a church, as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born-again Christian. Sorry, there is nothing like a 'born-again Christian.' All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His Word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and Savior.

It is foolish not to believe God's Word and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, in the name of the Lord, I beseech you to follow God's ways as outlined in His Word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation.

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are unsure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to be born again now. As we have seen above, all you need to do is believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe You sent Jesus Christ, Your Son, to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried, and on the third day, He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I, therefore, confess Him as Lord and Saviour of my life. I am now a new creation. According to the scriptures, Old things are passed away. I am now born again, and all things have become new. Thank You, Lord, for saving me. Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a newborn baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get into a true Bible-believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Read the Bible daily because God's Word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Also, make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Above all, do not forsake fellowship, live a consecrated life, and be set apart for God. God will, therefore, use you as a vessel of honor, blessing humankind and giving Him glory.

Welcome to the family of God.
And
God Bless You!
