Manifesting Excellence In All You Do

*Do you see a man who excels in his work? He will stand before kings;
He will not stand before unknown men.
(Proverbs 22:29 New King James Version)*

Dr. Kema Kema.

GOD has many attributes. One of them that stands out is His excellence. God's name is excellent (Psalm 8:1, 9). God and His name are one. If His name is excellent, then He is also excellent. God's attribute of excellence makes Him stand out among other gods.

But we know from the scriptures that God is Spirit (John 4:24). If God is excellent and He is Spirit, it means that His Spirit, the Holy Spirit, is an excellent Spirit.

God made man in His image and likeness. The New Creation Man is of the image and likeness of God. Thus, any man in Christ has a deposit of the excellent Spirit in God because of the presence of the Holy Spirit. But what will cause this excellent Spirit of God in man to manifest?

To answer the above question, let's understand what an excellent spirit is. We will do this by first defining excellence. The dictionary defines excellence as the quality of being outstanding. Proverbs 17:27 says, "...a man of understanding is of an excellent spirit." It, therefore, means that understanding is needed to make one outstanding. Thus, to manifest excellence, one must understand what excellence is and then pursue it.

A person with understanding is a person with an excellent spirit. Daniel had understanding. The scriptures say, "...and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams." (Daniel 1:17b NKJV). This understanding positioned him to develop an excellent spirit. First, Daniel knew he was different from those in the nation where he was a captive. He, therefore, decided to STAND OUT through sacrifice. Daniel purposed in his mind not to compromise (Daniel 1:8). He refused to eat the king's meat that was offered to him.

To stand out, you must set your heart to do so as Daniel did. To manifest the spirit of excellence, you must decide in your heart to stand out and be different. This is the route to be outstanding.

Life in the kingdom of God is one of excellence because the King of the kingdom is excellent (Psalm 8:1-3). Scripture calls kingdom children gods (Psalm 82:6-7). As children of the Most High God, they have an excellent Spirit because the Holy Spirit in them is the Spirit of God.

Pharaoh recognized the spirit of excellence in Joseph's life. He called it the divine spirit [of God] (NASB): "And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find such a one as this, a man in whom is the Spirit of God?" (Genesis 41:38 NKJV).

Nebuchadnezzar's wife recognized the spirit of excellence in Daniel and called it the spirit of the Holy God (Daniel 5:11). She later called it an excellent spirit (Daniel 5:12). King Belshazzar called for Daniel and said to him, "I have heard of you, that the Spirit of God is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you." (Daniel 5:14 NKJV).

The same Spirit of God, the excellent spirit in Joseph and Daniel, is in you. But God does not want it to be dormant. He wants you to manifest, as Joseph and Daniel did. Joseph manifested the Spirit of excellence as a servant and a prisoner. Daniel manifested the spirit of excellence as a captive in Babylon. Nothing should limit you to manifest the spirit of excellence wherever you are. This year is a year of developing and eventually manifesting the excellent spirit. Therefore, the PROPHETIC THEME for the year 2025 for the ECCDOC Family is:

Kingdom Excellence

Manifesting Excellence as a Kingdom Citizen
Psa. 8:1; 148:13/Dan5:12, 14; 6:3-4/Prov. 17:27/Matt. 5:14-16

From the scriptures and other examples, we will learn, by God's grace, how to develop and manifest the spirit of excellence in all areas of our lives. Everywhere we go, the spirit of excellence will be reflected and recognized. We shall stand before kings and solve problems with the spirit of excellence. Hallelujah!

Kingdom children know the importance of declaring God's Word to provoke manifestations. There is power in proclaiming the Word of God; as we speak boldly and confidently, we have what we say. The prophetic declaration for this year 2025 is:

PROPHETIC DECLARATION

KINGDOM EXCELLENCE

I am a child of God. The Most Excellent King, Jesus, is my Lord and Savior. He lives in me in the Person of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit of Excellence, therefore, lives in me. I manifest the Spirit of Excellence in all I say and do, today and always, for the benefit of all humanity and to the glory of God.

Hallelujah!

2 Peter 1:3-4/Isa. 12:5/Dan. 5:12, 14; 6:3-4/Prov. 17:27/Col. 3:23/2 Cor. 8:7/
Phil. 1:9-10; 4:8/Psa. 119:99/Matt. 5:14-16/1 Tim. 6:1/2 Tim. 3:16/2 Pet. 1:5

I believe that throughout the year, as we submit to God through the Spirit of Christ living in us in the Person of the Holy Spirit, the spirit of excellence will manifest in and through us for the benefit of humanity and God's glory. Hallelujah!

Kingdom Excellence greetings.

The Power Of The Sent Word

Dr. Kema Kema.

*The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but SPEAK THE WORD ONLY, AND MY SERVANT SHALL BE HEALED.
Matthew 8:8 King James Version

Reading Hebrews 4:12, one can deduce that the Word of God is FULL OF POWER. This power in the Word of God is released only when the Word IS SENT. In other words, the Word MUST BE SENT before the POWER resident within is RELEASED. How, then, do we send the Word? We send the Word by SPEAKING IT. This is what we can call confession, declaration, decreeing, proclamation, and even prophesying.

Consider the following verses of scripture.

Romans 10:8-10 NIV.

The Word in your heart MUST be declared with your mouth before the power within is released. When declared, it becomes the Sent Word. Believing is not enough. You must confess (declare or proclaim) the Word to see salvation in any area in your life that needs salvation. Until you confess, there will be no salvation.

Most of us need salvation in different areas of our lives. There are many little foxes in life that are spoiling our lives. We need salvation in these areas. This comes only through relentless, continuous confessions of the Word you believe until there are evident manifestations. Therefore, keep speaking the Word over that situation and circumstance: salvation will be manifest. So the word of the Lord grew mightily and prevailed (Acts 19:20 NKJV). The Word of God that will prevail is the Word that grows not only in your heart but also in your mouth.

The Psalmist writes: "I will DECLARE the decree of the Lord: He said to Me, You are My Son; this day [I declare] I have begotten You (Psa. 2:7 AMP). This same verse is rendered in the NKJV: "I will DECLARE THE DECREE: The LORD has said to Me, You are My Son, Today I have begotten you." I will ANNOUNCE (CEB); I will TELL of the decree (ESV); the king PROCLAIMS the LORD's decree (NLT, NIV). Jesus is speaking here. He says, "I will declare the decree. In other words, I will proclaim, announce, and tell what God has spoken concerning Me. The NIV puts it this way: I will proclaim the LORD's decree... Notice: You declare, announce, tell, and proclaim what the LORD God says concerning you and not what any other person says concerning you, including the doctors.

See, Jesus proclaimed what God said about Him: You are My Son. You and I must imitate Jesus and proclaim, declare, tell, and announce what God says about us. If Jesus, the head, did it, then we, who are the body, can do it equally. For example, God says, "ye are gods." (Psa. 82:6; Jn. 10:34). I have no stress telling people that I am a god. Did God not tell Moses He was making him a god unto Moses? (Exo. 7:1).

When God told Ezekiel to prophesy or speak the Word to the dry bones in the Valley of Dry Bones, he did. He prophesied, and the dry bones received life and became a mighty army. (Read Ezekiel 37:4-10).

When you prophesy to the dry and dead situation in your life, life will return wherever death has been manifesting. When you prophesy, you are sending forth the Word. When you prophesy, you do not speak to god but to the situation and circumstance before you. When you prophesy, you do not speak your words; you do not speak another person's word; you speak the Word of God. When the prophetic word is sent forth, it must accomplish the purpose for which it is sent. Therefore, through prophetic utterances, send forth the Word in Jesus' name, and the power will be released to do what the Word of God must do.

The testimony below is an example of sending the Word of God prophetically and releasing the power therein:

God Almighty is still healing even in our time. This is the truth, and this cannot be gainsaid. I have suffered ill health just recently, and I tried to resist it at home prayerfully, but all attempts were rendered futile. I had to leave for the hospital, and I was diagnosed with malaria and typhoid. With all these, I also had severe catarrh and cough that led to migraine headaches.

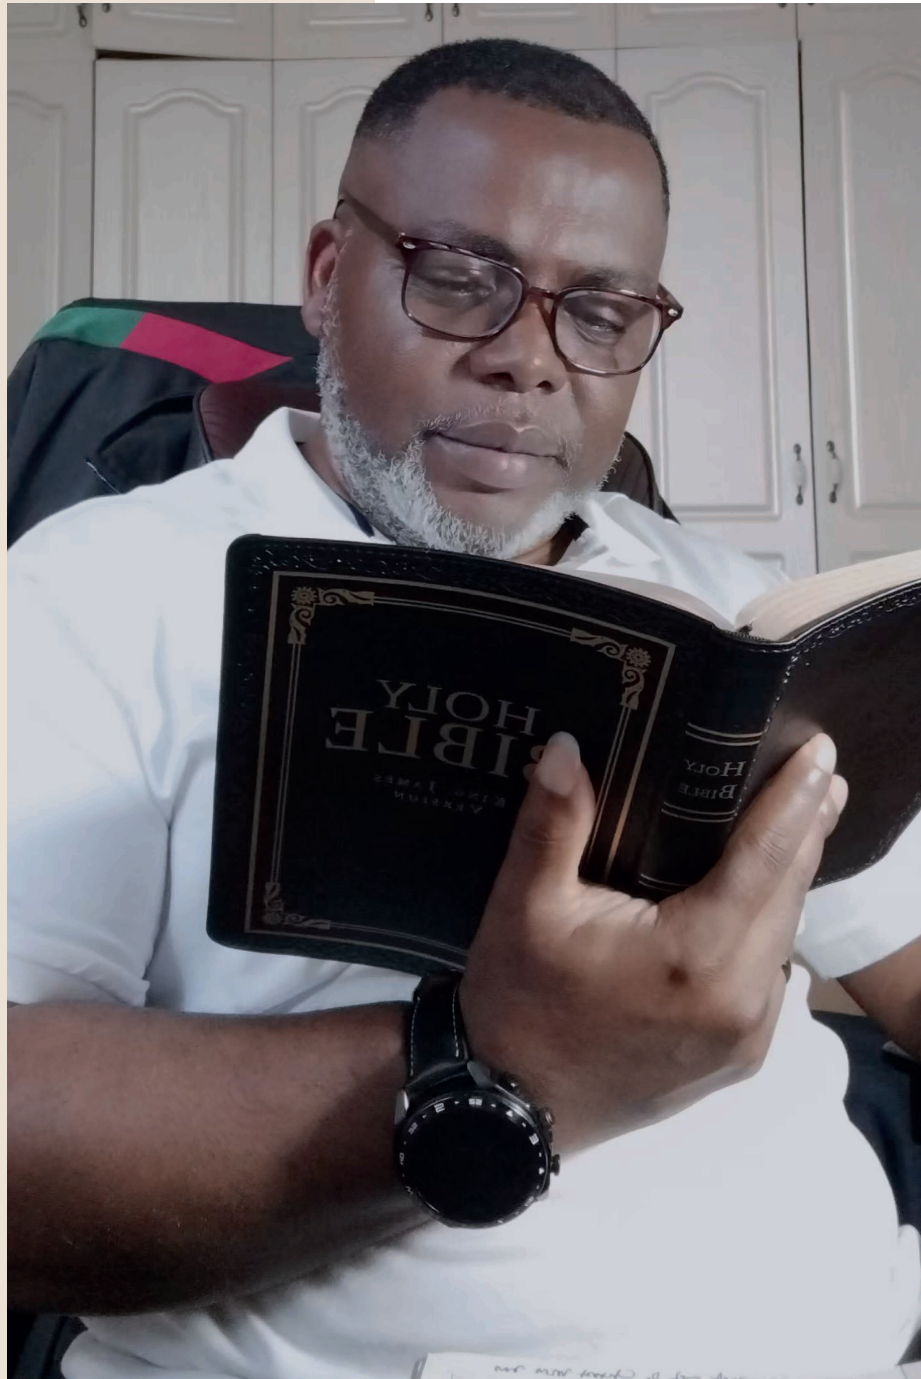

All these started last week, Monday the 25th of November. I got to the hospital for diagnosis on Thursday, the 28th of the same month. These ailments defiled all medical and personal measures taken to combat them.

On Friday, the 29th, It dawned on me to call Dr. Kema Kema to pray for me. I did, and unfortunately, I didn't get him on the phone that day. On Monday, the 2nd of December, I called him again. This time, I got him. And I told him my situation. He immediately brought up Psalm 107:20. Later, he moved to Proverbs 4:20-22. Like a scriptural pendulum, he later sailed to Galatians 2:20. He then said, "I am the air traffic controller agent of my body, and thus can control what lands in my body just as air controllers at airports control what lands and takeoff at airports."

He later started praying the above scriptures over my life. Immediately, I felt like something was kicked out of my body. Today, I am very strong to the glory of God Almighty.

I thank the Lord Jesus Christ for His healing power over my life. Also, I want to thank the bondservant of God, Dr. Kema Kema, for always making himself available for God to use. To God Almighty be all the glory forever and ever, Amen.

Ps, Evg, A. John (Limbe, Cameroon).

Wisdom Is Profitable

Atem Agnes Kema

*If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.
(James 1:5 KJV)*

EVERYONE has that one thing they want to see grow or increase in one way or another, be it your business, job, career, relationship with God, or family, but you don't see it happening, and you ask yourself what the problem is. The problem is that Wisdom is lacking.

The Bible says Wisdom is profitable to direct, "...but wisdom is profitable to direct" (Eccle. 10:10 KJV). If you want direction or redirection in any area of life, it will profit you to GET WISDOM.

Where can we find this wisdom? It is found in the WORD OF GOD(the Holy Bible). Let's understand what wisdom is before finding out HOW to get this wisdom that directs.

What Is Wisdom?

Wisdom is the ability to use truth in specific situations to achieve godly goals. It's also defined as:

- Knowing what to do next with an understanding of the facts and circumstances.
- The capacity to understand life from God's perspective.
- Knowing the greatest goal in any situation and the best way to achieve it.

So we see that to increase in all we desire, we must be able to use the truth in specific situations to achieve godly goals. Every goal of increase, promotion, or growth must be godly; otherwise, it will not get wisdom from God. As children of God, we only need to get godly wisdom.

How TO Get Godly Wisdom

Below are some biblical ways or instructions we can use or follow to have godly wisdom.

1. Fear, Reverence, And Honor God

Solomon says the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (Pro. 9:10). So if we genuinely desire godly wisdom, the fear of the Lord must be in place.

2. Desire Wisdom

The second step to getting wisdom is to desire it wholeheartedly. If thou seekest her (wisdom) as silver, and searchest for her (wisdom) as for hid treasures; (Prov. 2:4 KJV).

3. Pray (Ask) For Wisdom

Apostle James tells us, "If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him" (James 1:5 KJV). We need to go to God and, in prayer, ask Him for wisdom on what to do and how to do it. Then our God, who gives freely, will surely answer and give us wisdom.

4. Study God's Word

The fourth step in getting wisdom is studying and meditating on God's Word. "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple (Psa. 19:7 KJV). We shouldn't rely merely on our understanding or the understanding of the world. Instead, we should depend on the wisdom in the Word of God.

So, to get wisdom, we must fear God, desire wisdom, study His Word, and prayerfully desire to understand life from God's perspective.

*I pray in the name
Jesus that as this
NEW YEAR begins,
we will position
ourselves to fear
God, study His Word, and prayerfully desire God's wisdom concerning every area of our lives that we wish to increase in. Amen.*

PRAYERFiRE Thanksgiving Prayers 2025

Thanksgiving 1

If God had not been for us throughout 2024, we would have been history. But thank God we are here today, alive and well. Hallelujah! God has been faithful to His Word. He promised never to leave or forsake us. He was with us in the valleys, the mountains, the fires, and the waters of life. God fought our battles and gave us victories upon victories. Hallelujah! If it had not been for God, we would not be here today (Psa. 124). Let's lift our voices and thank God, our Father, for being there for us, protecting, providing, and preserving us from the enemy's claws.

Psalm 124 New Century Version

What if the Lord had not been on our side? (Let ECDOC repeat this.) What if the Lord had not been on our side when we were attacked? When they were angry with us, they would have swallowed us alive. They would have been like a flood drowning us; they would have poured over us like a river. They would have swept us away like a mighty stream. Praise the Lord, who did not let them chew us up. We escaped like a bird from the hunter's trap. The trap broke, and we escaped. Our help comes from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Father God, thank You immensely for being there for us throughout 2024. We are grateful to be alive today and entering the New Year 2025. Thank You for all the victories in 2024. Thank You for always causing us to triumph in Christ (2 Cor. 2:14). Thank You for the many blessings of last year from You to us. Thank You for Your continuous hedge of protection around us and all that we have been privileged to enjoy and continue to enjoy. We thank You, Lord, for the guaranteed protection and covering from Your Word over our lives and loved ones throughout 2025. Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving 2/Word Declaration

Not everyone is happy to see us gloriously ushered into the New Year 2025. Such will do everything to make sure we do not enjoy the year. They will do everything to stop our progress and success. But for us as children of God, our security is guaranteed in God. We are hid in Christ in God. God cocoons us. Hallelujah! Therefore, None of Satan's plans against our lives in 2025 shall prosper. Let's thank God and declare His WORD OF PROTECTION over our lives throughout 2025.

Zechariah 2:5 King James Version

For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her A WALL OF FIRE ROUND ABOUT and will be the glory in the midst of her.

Job 1:9-10 New King James Version

So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? Have You not made A HEDGE AROUND HIM, around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.

I am fully protected as a child of God, the apple of God's eyes. God's firewall and hedge are all around me and my household. My possessions, businesses, and all I do are protected from the enemy's onslaughts. I am blessed in all I do and will experience an all-around DIVINE SECURITY in 2025 because God's hand is upon my life. Thank You, Father, for covering and shielding me throughout the year. Thank You for the assurance in Your Word to continue preserving and protecting me and my household throughout the New Year 2025. Hallelujah!

Thanksgiving 3

A man divinely guided and directed by God can never go astray. Such a person will get to the destiny God has ordained in any given season. This 2025, God has destined us to fulfill our purpose and give Him glory. But this can only happen if He guides and directs us as the Good Shepherd. Let's thank God for being our Shepherd in the past and the guarantee from His Word that He will always be our Shepherd throughout 2025.

Psalm 23 New King James Version

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake.

Revelation 7:15-17 New King James Version

Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve Him day and night in His temple. And He who sits on the throne will dwell among them.

They shall neither hunger anymore nor thirst anymore; the sun shall not strike them, nor any heat; for THE LAMB WHO IS IN THE MIDST OF THE THRONE WILL SHEPHERD THEM AND LEAD THEM to living fountains of waters. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want; I shall not go astray; I am divinely led to life's living waters and green pastures. My life and the lives of all those around me shall know no lack. We shall not be hungry or thirsty throughout 2025. We shall not wander in the desert of life but arrive at the Canaan God has prepared for us THIS YEAR because God leads us. Thank You, Father, for being our Shepherd, the Good Shepherd.

Thanksgiving 4

God has good plans for us: to give us a future and an expected end. But the enemy has dangerous counter plans, even to kill us before our time. God IN/WITH/FOR us throughout 2025 guarantees the frustration of the enemy's plans over us. Let's thank God for His guaranteed presence throughout 2025 and beyond. Let's also thank Him for our victory over death throughout this year.

Psalm 23:4-5 New King James Version

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; For You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; My cup runs over.

1 Corinthians 15:55-57 King James Version

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Father, in the name of Jesus, thank You for Your guaranteed presence in our lives throughout 2025. As we walk through the year, we confess that we will fear no evil because You are IN/WITH/FOR us. No evil shall/can prevail against us. Thank You for conquering death on our behalf. Thank You for giving us Your life. O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory? Untimely death will not be my portion or the portion of those in

A Form of Godliness

Pastor Crystabelle
Ferim

Just at the close of 2024, God began speaking to me about the gods his people have created for themselves instead of Him. It seemed strange to know that even though many purport to serve and follow Elohim, most of them have created gods for themselves that have nothing to do with the great Elohim. I was intrigued by the fact that many have their mouths in houses of Worship, but their hearts are far from God. They are only accustomed to the church lingo and the liturgical practices but do not know God or serve Him.

This was the situation of Israel in Exodus 32, where Moses had gone up to Sinai awaiting the Ten Commandments, and the children of Israel stayed back and entertained the thought that Moses would not come back. They encourage Aaron to give them a god to go before them: And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him. And Aaron said unto them, Break off the golden earrings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them unto me. And all the people brake off the golden earrings which were in their ears, and brought them unto Aaron. And he received them at their hand, and fashioned it with a graving tool, after he had made it a molten calf: and they said, These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt. It is appalling even to think that these people quickly forgot what God, through Moses, had done for them. It is even more disgraceful to think that Aaron, who aforetime had been the mouthpiece of Moses, would be the one to not only heed to such an act but encourage and validate such treason. His heart was not right.

The question that arises here is, what caused the people to slip easily because Moses' return was delayed? Well, it is the same thing that causes believers today to easily reject God, the state of their hearts.

You see, we come to God with certain requirements, which, if not done, we go to our next option, or we completely abandon God. Many people see God as an ATM, others a magician, while others regard Him as one who must comply to their wishes because they proclaim His name. Listen, to serve God is not a guarantee for a life of bliss and fame. To serve God is to fulfill His will as He wishes and when He wishes.

Some of the reasons why we, as much as the children of Israel, easily slipped are the following:

1. We Are Led By Our Basic Needs

The needs for food, water, clothes, and shelter are sometimes so overwhelming for us, so much so that we do not see them. God had a plan for milk and honey for the children of Israel, yet their need for meat when they had just manna caused them to forget that they were just in a transitional state. They could not see God leading them to something better, so they complained about manna, a free gift. They were more worried about the god of their bellies. We must move past our Id (instinctive mind) and see things how God sees them. God knows better than we do and knows what is right for us.

2. We Are Led By A Deep Desire For Status

Many well-meaning believers have crossed over to the world because they desired a name, fame, or status more than anything else. Let's think about Aaron for a second. He was Moses' right hand at all times, but the desire for him to also be looked up to by the children of Israel pushed him to create a god (golden calf) for them so they would like him. Be careful about what position you are vying for. Do not sell your soul just to be famous. Do not elevate yourself above God like Lucifer once did.

3. We Are Led By Our Need For Validation

This cannot be overstated, as it is seen even in our deep desire for titles and positions within the body of Christ. What is inside a man will always be greater than any title bestowed on him. God called us for Himself, not ourselves. We lose our stance in God when we shift our responsibility for consecration and holiness to being at the top and controlling others. We have made ourselves gods to others, seeking validation in meetings, honor from all places, and the desire to be called mother or father. Is this why Jesus died?

4. Failing Requirements Of Relationship

It is essential that we realize that what is most important for us is to be in continued, righteous fellowship with a God. Fame will disappear, and so will money and other relationships. So if we continue to claim everything else except God, we only have a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof, as 2 Timothy 3:5 puts it. We cannot create an image of godliness while living outside God's will. We cannot come to God on our terms. God is God, and everyone who comes to Him must know that.

God is not one we come to buffet or stampede to action. God has a will and the power to accomplish it. We must align to be at the center of His will. We cannot just cry Lord Lord or have a similitude of Christianity. We must be broken, molded, and filled. We must be like Him. God is not an idea. He is a person, and we must know Him as such. Religious activity and speaking in a certain tone do not cut it. Godliness is not just what you say; it is who you are without saying anything.

God bless you.

The Gospel Of Substitution (Part 1)

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Why art thou so far from helping me and from the words of my roaring?
(Psalm 22:1 KJV)

Lily Boshey

Confession

Dear Father, thank You for loving me and planning my life for Your glory through Christ Jesus. You have set me apart for Your special work and have committed the glorious Gospel to my trust. Therefore, I declare that through me, many will come to the knowledge of Christ and into their inheritance in Him, in Jesus' Name, Amen.

THOUGH, a great lover and follower of God, King David lived in seasons of great danger and deprivation before and after taking the throne. He would express his agony and sorrow in his multiple psalms. We cannot tell precisely what circumstance led to his outburst in the above psalm, but we can tell what circumstance Jesus, our Saviour, was in when He deliberately chose to utter David's words to describe His agony on the cross; "And about the ninth hour, Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? (Matt. 27:46 KJV).

While this psalm was true of King David, who often found Himself in seemingly impossible situations and wondered why God would not rescue him immediately in his life's experience, it was truer of Jesus our Messiah. But why did Jesus say those words?

He had done nothing to forfeit God's favor, so why did God abandon Him?

Actually, God had proclaimed His love for Him when He had not started ministry yet nor performed any miracles. So how was it that the very One by whose power He had spoken and worked wonders in the lives of men was now rejecting Him? The Prophet Isaiah tells us, "Surely he took up our pain and bore our suffering, yet we considered him punished by God, stricken by him, and afflicted. But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds, we are healed." (Isa. 53:4-5).

So you see! Jesus did only that which was good and pleasing to His Father, yet He died like a criminal, a sinner rejected by Him. But why?

Because Jesus died in our place, on our account, so that He might bring us back to God. It was the manifestation of God's hatred of our sin that intensified His suffering and made Him let out such agonizing words expressing His feelings of abandonment. God placed the sins of the world upon His Son, and Jesus, for a time, felt the desolation of being unconscious of His Father's presence.

That's why Apostle Paul tells us that God made Him (Jesus) who knew no sin to be sin so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God (2 Cor. 5:21). So dear friend, the gospel we have is the gospel of substitution, how that the man Jesus, who knew no sin became sin so that we who knew no righteousness might become righteous. Jesus became our sin-bearer, and God accepted His substitutionary sacrifice on our behalf. God forsook Him so that we will not be forsaken but accepted. Hallelujah!

Jesus died because of our bad lives so we can live the new and good life He offers. He conquered the devil not on His behalf but on our behalf. When God the Father turned His face against Him, it was not because He sinned. It was because we sinned.

The big question to us is this: Now that you have become born again is the life that you are living truly the life of Jesus? Apostle Paul says with certainty and boldness, "I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me (Gal. 2:20)." Can you say that with the same confidence and courage?

Jesus did not die just so that we get to experience life like the natural man does, namely a life of pity, of defeat, of troubles, always struggling to make ends meet, a life of mediocrity, of whatever wants to happen should happen. No! When Jesus was recreated as the head of the church, we, too, were recreated in the mind of justice and reduced the enemy to naught (Eph. 1:19-23, 2:4-6). So His resurrection was actually our resurrection to a new life—a life of glory and victory (2 Cor. 2:14). He gave us His life and wants to see it manifest in and through us.

Luke gives us a summary of Christ's life: He went around doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, because God was with him (Acts 10:38). Then Paul tells us, "For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them" (Eph. 2:10). So you can see that as children of God, we've been ordained to continue with the good works of Christ Jesus. Therefore, let us arise and do our best to live the good life He died to offer us.

Lessons Of Motherhood From The Women In The Bible

Pastor Shekinah
Stephens

Thank God for the blessings of a new year. We are set to enjoy God's mercies daily. Throughout this year, we will focus on lessons we can draw from some precious women in the Bible. We shall study the lives of great women in the Scriptures who navigated through life overcoming challenges as they played their role as mothers.

JOCHEBED: THE MOTHER OF MOSES

READING: Exodus 2:1-10

Jochebed was from the tribe of Levi. She gave birth to Moses at the time Pharaoh had asked that every male child born to an Israeli family be killed. She did not allow her baby to be killed but kept the baby for three months, after which she derived wisdom from the Lord on how to spare the baby's life. She carefully prepared a basket, put the baby inside, and placed him where Pharaoh's daughter would notice. Her plans worked out so well that her son was rescued by Pharaoh's daughter and raised in the Palace.

Jochebed demonstrated qualities that made her stand out as a great mother. She exemplified sacrifice, self-confidence, faith, and endurance as a mother. She chose faith over fear. Living in a period when she and her people were in bondage, her real-life situation did not promote fear in her. As a pregnant woman with a conclusive verdict over every male-born child, she chose to have faith in God that He would preserve her baby when he was born rather than give in to fear (2 Tim. 1:7).

As a woman of faith, she believed God to preserve Moses. She was unafraid of the king's command (Heb. 11:23), and God did not fail her. She believed that the baby would live to fulfill his destiny, which later manifested as the deliverer of the Israelites out of bondage. He was indeed a great leader.

Jochebed was the giver and preserver of life. Her decision to hold onto faith over fear did not only affect her son but the whole nation of Israel. She eventually saved an entire nation. She saw that the baby was a carrier of destiny, the deliverer of Israel. She did all in her wisdom to ensure that his life was preserved.

Jochebed trusted God to protect and preserve Moses despite the possibility of losing him. I am amazed by the process she went through to preserve Moses' life. When she realized she could no longer hide the baby after three months, she prepared a basket so well that no water would get into it, put the baby inside, and set the basket where she was sure the daughter of Pharaoh would see. This teaches us that we have the grace to preserve the life and destiny of the children God gives us.

Jochebed was willing to let go and let God have His way of bringing His revealed purpose for her son Moses to manifest. She was an intentional mother, raising three children, Aaron, Miriam, and Moses, while in bondage. It was not easy for her, yet she taught them the ways of God. These children played a vital role in God's plan of deliverance.

As an intentional mother, she did not waste the short time she spent with Moses as his nurse. It is still a wonder of her parenting style, what she must have taught Moses that made him not forget his roots. Moses grew up in the Palace, yet the riches of Egypt never got into him (Heb. 11:24-26).

Some researchers have recorded that Jochebed nursed Moses for only about 2-3 years before handing him over to the Pharaoh's daughter to raise him as her son. Yet Moses remained faithful to his roots. This was a display of her selflessness. Letting go of our children as parents has never been easy, but we see her releasing Moses with no strings attached because she knew he was in God's plan.

The questions to mothers of today:

- Are you a preserver of life and destiny?
- How are you raising your children?
- Are you training them intending to let them go and accomplish God's purpose without fear?
- How much have you taught your children as far as your belief system is concerned that will keep them when they go out?
- Will your children choose Christ's suffering over Egypt's riches?

Jochebed raised Moses to grow up loving God, dedicated to God, loving the people of God, and dedicated to fulfilling God's purpose. Moses grew up to become a great leader, a servant of God, a deliverer, and a prophet. She is outstanding as a mother who was very intentional in her parenting even though she had a very short time to carry out this great assignment.

From ancient times to this day, Moses is celebrated as the servant of God, faithful in the house of God. As mothers, we can learn from Jochebed to intentionally raise great leaders from the children the Lord has given us.

Man, A Burning And Shining Light

There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

John 5:32-35

This scripture is Jesus's testimony about John the Baptist—a forerunner of Jesus Christ. He lived a unique and different life. He was a burning and shining light.

2025 is another promising year of greatness and greater exploits. God's prophecy is upon you as a man, leader, father, husband, mentor, and counselor. You need to stand upon your watch and discover the mind of God for your life and destiny. (Habk. 2:1-2). As a man, you are that ladder others need to reach the top.

With God's image, man was created to shine in the family and office and be a global phenomenon. Just as God is Light (1 John 1:5), He assigned us to reflect His light in the world. Jesus calls us light; we should not be in the darkness.

As ambassadors of Jesus, we represent Him as light in the world. You must, therefore, go out there and shine His light, beginning from your home.

Practical Ways To Shine Brighter And Be Burning For God.

Genuine And Unforgettable Encounter

You need to encounter God. (See Jeremiah 33:3). You need more of God to access a divine template for your life, family, followers, and mentees.

Fervent Zeal For God

As a man, you must be passionate and have genuine zeal for the Lord, living a righteous and consecrated life. (See Psalm 69:9).

Bearer Of Truth And Light

As a light of God, you must always shine and stand for truth. You must boldly proclaim the Messiah's coming and call people to repentance (Matthew 3:1-12). Your message must illuminate the hearts and minds of those who heard you, pointing them towards God's kingdom.

Live A Holy Life

"Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." (Heb 12:14). Holiness makes one shine. Go after peace and holiness this year and beyond to shine for God before men.

Engage The Help Of The Holy Spirit

Man's wisdom is limited. No man can access divine agenda outside of God. That is why we need the Holy Spirit. To receive anything from God this year and beyond, we need to enlist the help of God through the Holy Spirit. Anything we will be able to do to shine for God needs the help of God. We can't do it on our own. It is not by might nor power but by God's Spirit. (See Zechariah 4:6).

Pray Without Ceasing

Let your prayer life increase this year. God can do that which is committed to his hands. (1 Thes. 5:17).

Be Filled With The Word Of God

Studying and practicing the Word helps you stay aglow and burn for God. (2 Timothy 2:15; Acts 20:32).

Change Your Way Of Thinking

Learn to think positively. Your thinking has a way of affecting your life, either positive or negative. For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he... (See Proverbs 23:7).

Change Your Association

How good is it for brethren to dwell together... (Ecclesiastes 33:3). The people you walk and relate with have a way of affecting your destiny, either positively or negatively. Therefore, be mindful of the friends you keep and associate with this year and beyond. They can affect your light positively or negatively.

Be Humble

The proud man is a man who is full of himself and cannot get anything good from God. God resists the proud but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6; 1 Peter 5:5-6). God cannot resist you, and you shine, but His grace will make you shine as a burning and shining light.

As a priest in your family, workplace, and among your friends, let your light shine so they can see God's glory in your life. Shalom!

The Faith That Produces Results: Your Idiosyncratic Faith.

By PGL Nzimbi

FAITH is the engine of the Christian life, yet it manifests uniquely for each of us. The Bible teaches us that God interacts with His children individually (Isaiah 43:1, John 10:3), revealing truths tailored to our unique journeys. This individuality of faith is captured in Jesus' profound words: "According to your faith, let it be done to you" (Matthew 9:29). Faith, therefore, is not a formula but a personal, relational, and revelatory experience.

The Idiosyncratic Nature of Faith.

To understand this concept, let us first define "idiosyncratic." It refers to something distinctive or peculiar to an individual. When applied to faith, it highlights that no two faith journeys are identical. What God reveals to one person may not be revealed in the same way to another. This idiosyncratic nature of faith allows it to produce personal and powerful results.

Jesus consistently reinforced this idea. He did not say, "According to a universal principle of faith," but "According to your faith." This means the results we see are directly tied to how we uniquely understand, believe, and act on the revelation of God in our lives.

Consider the woman with the issue of blood (Mark 5:25-34). She had a revelation: "If I can just touch the hem of His garment, I will be healed." That day, no one else in the crowd had this insight or acted on such a belief. Her faith, rooted in her personal revelation, led to her healing. Jesus affirmed this, saying, "Your faith has made you well."

Why Faith Sometimes Seems to Fail

Many believers feel disheartened when their faith does not seem to work. This often happens when we try to imitate the faith of others or rely on formulas rather than seeking personal revelation from God. Faith is not about copying someone else's journey but about connecting deeply with God to understand how He wants to work uniquely in our lives.

Faith may falter when we place our trust in methods, declarations, or outcomes rather than in God Himself. True faith is relational—it flows from a personal connection with God and a reliance on His Word. Romans 10:17 says, "Faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." This hearing is not merely intellectual but a spiritual encounter where God's truth is revealed to us individually.

The Role of Personal Revelation

The key to idiosyncratic faith is personal revelation. The woman with the issue of blood acted on a unique insight from God. Similarly, the centurion in Matthew 8:5-13 showed great faith because he had a specific understanding of Jesus' authority. Jesus marvelled at the centurion, saying, "I have not found such great faith, not even in Israel." This faith was extraordinary because it was personally rooted in the centurion's understanding of who Jesus was.

When we receive a personal revelation from God—whether through prayer, Scripture, or the Holy Spirit—it becomes the foundation for faith that produces results. This is why faith must remain dynamic and relational, growing as we deepen our walk with God.

Faith as a Journey of Discovery

Faith is not a static state; it is a journey of discovery. As we walk with God, we receive new revelations that expand our understanding of His nature and promises. Each step of faith draws us closer to Him, transforming our lives and aligning us with His purposes.

In my journey, I have learned that faith grows stronger when rooted in God's love and guidance rather than in my efforts. I have discovered that true faith is about surrendering to God's will and trusting Him to fulfil His promises in His time and way.

Embrace Your Idiosyncratic Faith

The beauty of idiosyncratic faith is that it allows us to experience God in deeply personal ways. Your faith does not have to look like anyone else's. It does not have to follow formulas or fit into preconceived ideas. What matters is that it is rooted in your unique relationship with God and shaped by the revelations He gives you.

When Jesus said, "According to your faith, be it unto you," He invited us to embrace a faith that is personal, powerful, and life changing. Let this truth inspire you to seek God's voice, trust His promises, and walk boldly in the unique faith He has given you.

CONCLUSION

I testify that faith works—not because of formulas or rituals, but because of the God who speaks, leads, and reveals Himself to us. When we align our hearts with His, we discover that faith is not just a principle but a relationship. Your faith, like mine, is idiosyncratic. It is your response to the personal revelation of a God who loves you intimately and calls you to walk in the fullness of His promises.

So, take heart and embrace your idiosyncratic faith. Listen for God's voice, act on His revelations, and watch as your faith produces results that glorify Him and transform your life.

2025 And Beyond: The Limitless Possibilities In Christ Jesus

By Dr. Franklin Tebid

THERE is much untapped potential in the life of every Christian than they can ever imagine! Every Christian must realize that man is a spirit, and this spirit has a soul that dwells in a body called the flesh. For man to live 'a god,' as the bible establishes, man will have to learn to operate in a dimension beyond the physical confines. A dimension called the faith zone!

"Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth" (Mark 9:23).

"And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you" (Matthew 17:20).

"But without faith, it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him (Hebrews 11:6).

As Children of God's beloved Kingdom, God has given us a blank check, and faith becomes that pen you will use to write an amount on the check. You can never cash a blank check. Though it has the payer's and the payee's names, you still have to write an amount on it to be cashed.

As Christians, "We faith it until you make it!" If you fake it, you won't make it. Faith is the vehicle that transports man from that earth's realm (physical) into God's realm (Spiritual). Faith is so essential in the Kingdom of God that you can't access the Kingdom of God without Faith. Faith opens the gate into the Kingdom of God, while prayers give access to benefit from the worth of the Kingdom of God.

Look at this practical example: if you dwell outside the United States of America and you desire to enjoy things in the United States, you MUST first get a visa into the United States. Your visa transports you from your place of physical dwelling into the United States, which can be likened to Faith! While in the United States, you need work authorization to access the milk and honey of the land, likened to prayers. Suppose you remain in the land of physical dwelling. In that case, even if you have a United States work authorization (prayer), the milk and honey of the land are far from you until you get a visa (Faith) that will transport you into the United States for your work authorization (prayer) to be active! Faith is so essential that Apostle Paul puts it this way: "Without faith, it is impossible to please God" (Hebrews 11:6).

Jesus said, "With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible." (Matthew 19:26). The words of Jesus here capture the essence of a life anchored in God: the human experience may be riddled with limitations. Still, in Christ, we step into a realm where possibilities are limitless! However, man needs the vehicle called faith to enter God's realm.

Faith is so essential in the kingdom that unbelief (lack of faith) can limit God's operations! Even when God is willing, unbelief can stop God! It stopped Jesus (Mark 6:5-6). The possibilities are limitless once you step into the faith zone! Look at the following scenarios of limitless possibilities:

God's Power In Creation

The very foundation of existence testifies to the unlimited power of God. In Genesis 1, God spoke the universe into being—light, sky, earth, and life—all by His Word. The psalmist exclaims, "By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth" (Psalm 33:6). If God can create all things from nothing, how much more can He intervene in the seemingly impossible situations of our lives?

God's Power In Creation Deliverance

The Red Sea crossing stands as a timeless example of God's ability to make a way where there is none. When Moses and the Israelites faced the sea with Pharaoh's army closing in, God instructed Moses to stretch out his staff, and the waters parted (Exodus 14:21-22). This miraculous deliverance demonstrates that God can create pathways of hope and victory when surrounded by impossibilities. Similarly, Isaiah 43:19 reassures believers: "See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland."

Jesus frequently emphasized the connection between faith and the realization of divine possibilities. In Mark 11:22-24, He said, "Have faith in God... Whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours." Faith unlocks the door to the limitless resources of heaven.

Abraham's story illustrates this truth. Despite his and Sarah's advanced age, Abraham believed in God's promise that he would father many nations. Romans 4:20-21 says, "He did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised."

As believers, we are called to live with the awareness that there are no boundaries in Christ. Ephesians 3:20 reminds us that God is "able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us." Our role is to trust, obey, and remain connected to Christ. Jesus declared in John 15:5, "I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing." Staying rooted in Him enables us to draw from His infinite power and resources.

PRACTICAL STEPS TO EMBRACE LIMITLESS POSSIBILITIES IN 2025 AND BEYOND

Act in Faith:

Take steps of faith even when the outcome is unclear, believing that God will honor your trust in Him (James 2:26).

Pray Boldly:

Approach God with confidence, knowing He delights in answering our prayers (Hebrews 4:16).

Trust Fully:

Lean not on your understanding but trust the Lord's ability to work beyond human reasoning (Proverbs 3:5-6).

Wait Patiently:

God's timing is perfect. As Isaiah 40:31 promises, "Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength."

Finally, In Christ Jesus, the possibilities are indeed limitless. Whether we face personal challenges, seemingly insurmountable obstacles, or the weight of our human limitations, we can be assured that God's power is more than sufficient. Let us echo the words of the Apostle Paul in Romans 8:31: "If God is for us, who can be against us?"

My earnest prayer for the Ambassadors of Christ in 2025 and beyond is for them to step into the realm of divine possibilities today and witness God's transformative power at work in your life!

Multiple Income Streams The Bible Perspective

By Dr. Kema Kema

Invest what you have in several different businesses. You don't know what bad things might happen on earth.

(Ecclesiastes 11:2 International Children's Bible)

The Bible is a very instructive book that covers different aspects of life. It has wisdom that can help the child of God live the life Jesus died on the cross and resurrected from death to give us. This life is the abundant life. Jesus said, "...I have come that they may have life and have it to the full until it overflows" (John 10:10 AMPC).

Mankind is both spiritual and physical. Every human has a spirit with a soul and lives in a body. Living life to the full is when all these different aspects of man are effectively prospering. That's why Apostle John said, "Beloved, I wish above all things that you prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers" (3 John 2). This health prosperity could be mental, physical, or financial prosperity. As a child of God, the truth is that you can't live life to the fullest without being financially viable. To be economically viable, we must glean biblical wisdom. One such wisdom is found in Ecclesiastes 11:2. King Solomon, one of the wisest men who ever lived, advises that we should INVEST IN SEVERAL DIFFERENT BUSINESSES.

But before we do that, we must understand one other biblical principle that is very important when it comes to investments. This principle is found in Proverbs 13:11, which reads, "Wealth gained by dishonesty will be diminished, But he who gathers by labor will increase"

(NKJV). To have multiple income streams as a child of God,

1. Avoid Dishonesty in Doing Business

You cannot be dishonest in your business dealings and expect God's blessings. God will bless only honest business. Any business built on dishonesty will only diminish. There will be no growth (Prov. 13:11).

2. Invest in Several Different Businesses

You cannot build multiple streams of income from one business. You must invest in many different businesses. Ecclesiastes 11:2 admonishes us to invest what we have in several different businesses. In other words, diversify your businesses. For example, the Proverbs 31 lady had several businesses. The principle of multiple income streams is biblical and was instituted in the Garden of Eden from the beginning. The river that flowed from Eden to water the garden had four branches rich in various minerals (Gen. 2:10-14). These were provisions from God for Adam to use to be effective and fulfill the dominion mandate given to him.

3. Know Your Gifts And Talents

You must know what you are good at and refine them, and you will stand before kings. The scriptures say that a man's gift will make him stand before kings (Prov. 18:16). Late Dr. Myles Munroe consulted about 16 presidents because he refined his business and communication gifts. He was a sought-after speaker at many conferences. He was also the author of many best-selling books. All these areas were different streams of income for him. Refine your singing, acting, writing, and other talents. Before you know it, your gifts will become sources of income in your life.

4. Understand Areas In Life Where There Will Always be Demand

Some areas in life will always generate income if one invests in them. These are areas where there is always a demand and always a shortage of supply. Consider the following sectors: Education, Health, Transportation, Food. All you need to do is study these different areas and create a niche. The rest will be history when, with diligence and God's grace, you will find yourself prospering in all the works of your hands.

5. Act In Faith

Faith comes from God's Word, which clearly tells us to invest in several businesses. Too many Christians have failed to operate in faith regarding this great advice from the Kingdom. The reason is that many of us are looking for the right time, and we do not want to take any risks.

Taking risks regarding God's Word is good, for it will not fail. God's Word tells us, "He who observes the wind will not sow, and he who regards the clouds will not reap" (Eccl. 11:4). Therefore, by faith, launch this year and build different income streams. God is with you, and you will succeed.

6. Enlist God's Help

Jesus said that without Him, we can do nothing (John 15:5), Which is very true. That's why the Apostle Paul tells us, "I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength." (Phil. 4:13). This means that without the God factor, every attempt for the child of God to build multiple streams of income will be futile. WHY? We need wisdom to create multiple streams of income. True wisdom for the child of God comes from God (Prov. 2:6). He is the giver of wisdom. We should ask Him for the wisdom to build these streams of income, and He will give us (James 1:5). When He gives us this wisdom, and we apply it in faith, we will prosper in the businesses we set up because God's wisdom which is wisdom from above will put our businesses above (James 3:17).

CONCLUSION

God wants you to prosper. But God says we should do business. When we do business, we will prosper. To be blessed and be a blessing to others, we must be willing to receive God's wisdom and invest in multiple income streams. We can't start with multiples if we don't have one. So, as this year begins, let's ask God for wisdom to start at least one business that will grow and have multiple streams in the future: why not this same year? With God, nothing is impossible.

Let's Organize The Churches And Be Intentional

Pastor Daniel A. Nyah

MANY errors or lapses within our Christian communities and society come from the disorganization and abuse of our church services and leadership as ministers. No institution in the world, not even the government, has as much opportunity to have an audience with a people and influence their minds and way of life as THE CHURCH AND HER MINISTERS DO. Therefore, a great part of what our society or Christian community looks like directly reflects what we do when we gather weekly and often for diverse meetings.

Ministers of the gospel must be very organized and intentional, have a very clear goal for every meeting, and organize that particular service to meet that goal. It's soul-winning, development, kingdom service, or assistance (ministering healing, deliverance, charity, etc.). Striking this balance with significant emphasis on spiritual development and kingdom service is fundamental to what will become of our communities and the world weekly. It's crucial we understand this and take responsibility. The communities look like their church. Simple.

Question: Who is leading the church? What exactly is the church teaching or doing? How is the church organized? What kind of people are MADE from our weekly gatherings or programs? What value do they add to society per God's Kingdom plans? How is the posterity of Christianity or the relevance of Christ guaranteed by the Christian lifestyle? These are genuine questions every faithful minister of Christ should ask. This will separate us from being survival-driven, egocentric, and fame-seeking ministers to ministers of Christ indeed. Think.

The Lord help us.

A Model For Fruitful Marriages: Biblical Insights And Timeless Wisdom

Bishops Caroline & Leonard Vando

As Christians, we are called to reflect Christ's love and commitment in our marriages. A fruitful marriage is not just a blessing to the couple but also a powerful witness to the world of God's love and redemption. In this write-up, we will explore the biblical model for a fruitful marriage, highlighting key scriptural insights and exemplary Christian marriages that will inspire and uplift your marriage.

Biblical Foundations Of A Fruitful Marriage

A fruitful marriage is built on the solid foundation of biblical principles. Here are a few key scriptural insights:

1. Mutual Submission

Ephesians 5:21 instructs us to "submit to one another out of reverence for Christ." This mutual submission is the hallmark of a fruitful marriage.

2. Love And Respect

Ephesians 5:25-33 and 1 Peter 3:1-7 emphasize the importance of love and respect in a marriage. Husbands are called to love their wives as Christ loves the church, while wives are called to respect their husbands and submit to their loving leadership.

3. Communication And Conflict Resolution.

Effective communication and conflict resolution are essential for a fruitful marriage. Ephesians 4:29-32 and Colossians 3:13-14 provide guidance on how to communicate in love and resolve conflicts in a way that honors God. Here are a few exemplary Christian Marriages that demonstrate the principles outlined above:

1. Aquilla And Priscilla

This couple, mentioned in Acts 18:2, 26 and Romans 16:3-5, was a powerful team in the early Christian church. They worked together as tentmakers, hosted the church in their home, and even risked their lives for the sake of the gospel.

2. Ananias And Sapphira

Although their story ends in tragedy (Acts 5:1-11), this couple's early commitment to sell their possessions and give to the poor is a powerful example of mutual submission and love.

3. Mary And Joseph

The parents of Jesus, mentioned in Matthew 1-2 and Luke 1-2, demonstrate remarkable faith, trust, and obedience in the face of extraordinary circumstances.

Here are a few practical tips to help you build a fruitful marriage:

1. Prioritize Communication

Regular, honest communication is essential for a healthy marriage. Make time to talk, listen, and resolve conflicts together.

2. Cultivate Intimacy

Emotional and physical intimacy are vital for a fulfilling marriage. Prioritize quality time together, and make an effort to understand and meet each other's needs.

3. Serve Together

Serving together in ministry or the community can be a powerful way to build unity and strengthen your marriage.

4. Seek Mentorship And Accountability

Surround yourselves with wise, godly mentors and friends who can offer guidance, support, and accountability.

A fruitful marriage is a beautiful reflection of God's love and redemption. By building our marriages on solid foundation of biblical principles and following the examples of exemplary Christian couples, we can create a marriage that is a powerful witness to the world and a source of joy, love, and fulfillment for ourselves and our families.

"Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ loved the church and gave himself up for her." (Ephesians 5:25)

"Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands as you do to the Lord." (Ephesians 5:22)

May these words encourage and inspire you to build a fruitful marriage that honors God and reflects His love for the world.

Obeying Your Parents In The Lord

¹ Children, obey your parents the way the Lord wants. This is the right thing to do. ² The command says, “Honor your father and mother.” This is the first command that has a promise with it. ³ The promise is: “Then everything will be well with you, and you will have a long life on the earth.”

Ephesians 6:1-3 from the International Children's Bible (ICB)

Do you know that OBEYING YOUR PARENTS is a very important command in the Word of God with a promise attached to it? The Holy Spirit in you is the Spirit of obedience. He empowers you to obey God. You can ask the Holy Spirit to help you obey God's Word as commanded. He will help you.

KNOW THIS!

You are a child of God.

God wants you to obey your parents.

It is right thing for you to obey your parents.

God hates disobedience.

When you obey your parents, everything will be well with you.

When you obey your parents, God guarantees you will live long.

CONFESSION

I am a child of God.

I am a lover of God.

I therefore keep His commandments.

The Holy Spirit in me help me to obey my parents as God commands.

All is well with me in all I do.
I will live long. My life cannot be cut short for God is faithful to His Word.

Hallelujah!

Are you a Christian?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I am coming today to ask you a crucial question about life. I ask you this question because many people mistakenly think life here on earth is our only life. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity depends on what you do now to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that, but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a fascinating conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?" (John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus tells Nicodemus that unless a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter or see the Kingdom of God. Jesus explained that to be born again is to be born of water and the Spirit. From the scriptures, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit, and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water, and the Spirit is to be born by the Word of God. This is precisely what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God." (1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the Word of God? The apostle Paul answered when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved." (Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

Two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe He came to save humanity from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay: death: the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. As scripture says, our sins were all put on Him (Isa. 53:6), and He died in our place. You must also believe that He was buried, and on the third day, He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these and confess Jesus as Lord, you are born again.

Born Again is not the name of a church, as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born-again Christian. Sorry, there is nothing like a 'born-again Christian.' All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His Word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and Savior.

It is foolish not to believe God's Word and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, in the name of the Lord, I beseech you to follow God's ways as outlined in His Word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation.

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are unsure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to be born again now. As we have seen above, all you need to do is believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe You sent Jesus Christ, Your Son, to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried, and on the third day, He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I, therefore, confess Him as Lord and Saviour of my life. I am now a new creation. According to the scriptures, Old things are passed away. I am now born again, and all things have become new. Thank You, Lord, for saving me.

Amen!
