THE HOLY PIRIT: THE SPIRIT OF EXCELLENCE

Understanding the Role of the Holy Spirit in Manifesting Excellence

Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to setting him over the whole realm.
(Daniel 6:3 NKJV)

It is very clear from the scriptures that as children of God, we are called to excellence, and this is because the Kingdom we belong to is a kingdom of excellence:

*But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for His possession, so that you may proclaim the excellencies of the One having called you out of darkness into His marvelous light,
2 Peter 2:9 BLB*

*I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called,
Ephesians 4:1 NKJV*

We cannot walk worthy of this calling to excellence on our own or in our power. God not only calls us to excellence; He makes sure He has made provision for us to be excellent. This is because God does not demand what He has not made available in the first place. For example, at creation, God blessed the man He had created before demanding fruitfulness (Gen. 1:28).

Before Jesus died, He promised His disciples that He would send the Holy Spirit when He went away and that the Holy Spirit would be their helper.

*"If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another advocate to help you and be with you forever— the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept him, because it neither sees him nor knows him. But you know him, for he lives WITH you and will be IN you. I will not leave you as orphans; I will come to you.
John 14:15-18 NIV*

When Jesus died and was resurrected, there was a new and living way through which God related to man. God was not just with men but could be in men, in the person of the Holy Spirit. Jesus promised to be IN us. Apostle Paul talked about Christ IN us.

*To them God has chosen to make known among the Gentiles the glorious riches of this mystery, which is Christ IN you, the hope of glory.
Colossians 1:27 NIV*

Christ IN us is the Holy Spirit in us. Christ in us is the hope of glory. Without the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer, there is no way for excellence to manifest because excellence is part of the glory package.

Daniel and his brothers excelled in Babylon because the Holy Spirit, the excellent Spirit, was in them:

Now at the end of the days, when the king had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. Then the king interviewed them, and among them all, none was found like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah; therefore, they served before the king. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding about which the king examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers who were in all his realm. Thus, Daniel continued until the first year of King Cyrus.

Daniel 1:18-21 NKJV

Daniel was relevant during the reign of three kings. This was a result of the wisdom he manifested because of the operation of the Spirit of excellence, the Holy Spirit in him.

Then this Daniel distinguished himself above the governors and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king gave thought to setting him over the whole realm.

Daniel 6:3 NKJV

Inasmuch as an excellent spirit, knowledge, understanding, interpreting dreams, solving riddles, and explaining enigmas were found in this Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar, now let Daniel be called, and he will give the interpretation."

Daniel 5:12 NKJV

In Egypt, Joseph excelled in everything he did. It was not by his power or might, but by the Spirit of God in him. Even Pharaoh recognized this.

This proposal pleased Pharaoh and all his servants. And Pharaoh said to his servants, "Can we find a man like this, in whom is the Spirit of God?" Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Since God has shown you all this, there is none so discerning and wise as you are. You shall be over my house, and all my people shall order themselves as you command. Only as regards the throne will I be greater than you." And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt." Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his hand and put it on Joseph's hand, and clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain about his neck. And he made him ride in his second chariot. And they called out before him, "Bow the knee!" Thus, he set him over all the land of Egypt. Moreover, Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without your consent no one shall lift up hand or foot in all the land of Egypt." And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-paneah. And he gave him in marriage Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera, priest of On. So Joseph went out over the land of Egypt. Genesis 41:37-45 ESV

As a child of God, the potential for all-around excellence is possible because you have the mind of Christ, and the Holy Spirit, the excellent Spirit, is in you. As you submit to the Holy Spirit, He will help you by teaching you and guiding you to excellence in all areas of life. When we know the Holy Spirit and understand how to effectively fellowship with Him, allowing Him to live the excellent life of Christ in and through us, we will manifest excellence in all our endeavors. Therefore, this month, our PROPHETIC FOCUS is:

SWOLLEN LEGS ISSUE TERMINATED VIA THE APPLICATION OF THE ANOINTING OIL AND WORD PRAYER DECLARATIONS

In July, I discovered that my feet were swelling. I showed my wife, and I said, "I don't know where this is coming from. Perhaps I need to go to the hospital to determine the cause of the problem. You know, the next thing I did was to go to the internet to try to check. What I read there was frightening. I was a little bit concerned. Then I said, "The Word of God has power to destroy." I had planned to go to the hospital with my wife because she can speak Chinese; I cannot, especially when it comes to medical issues, which is delicate stuff. Then I just told her, 'Hey, you know what, just forget it.' "Let me watch this thing again for two days." Then I told her that you are a priest, anoint my leg, and pray a priestly prayer. She anointed my legs about twice a day for about two days. After the anointing and prayers, I monitored the legs, and there was no swelling. I then declared, "Devil, you are a liar. You wanted me to go and spend money in the hospital to do tests. You will not have that money. I held on to the Word of God. The Word of God is active and powerful. Am I saying that you shouldn't go to the hospital when you feel sick? No, that's not what I'm saying. Most of the time, I go to the hospital to find out what is wrong, so I can ensure that I address the right problem... the right mountain with the Word of God because the Word of God has power. The Bible says in Hebrews 4:12 that the Word of God is alive; it is sharper than a two-edged sword. The Word of God can penetrate every aspect of human life: spirit, soul, and body. That is precisely what happened when my wife and I believed the Word of God and applied the kingdom mystery of the anointing oil and Word declaration to terminate the swelling on my legs once and for all. To God be the glory. Hallelujah!

My name is Atem Valery, and I live in Houston, Texas. Two years ago, I came to the Empowerment Conference 2023 barely walking because I had a major stroke that left my whole side of the body totally paralyzed. I couldn't do anything with my hand, or even walk or speak well. My brain was also affected by a blood clot. The Doctors did their best, and I was discharged in this shape. I turned to the Lord in prayer and believed Him for a miracle. I attended the conference in 2023, and the man of God, Dr. Jerry Howell, prayed for me. After I returned, my Pastor in Houston continued to pray for me, and I saw the hand of God. In a short time, I began to recover, and within a few months, I was back on my feet. My hands were working again, and my speech had fully recovered. Right now, I am back to work, and I even drove for four hours to this conference, all the way from Houston. I give God all the glory.

(Atem Valery, Houston, TX, USA)

My name is Marcelo from Dallas, Texas. A few months ago, I was involved in a car accident that left a lot of pain around my neck and down to my back. I went to the hospital and received all sorts of treatment. At a point, it seemed as if the pain medication was instead increasing the pain in me, so I stopped and have since then been dealing with this pain. Dr. Jerry prayed for me and said, "Check the pain." And to my greatest surprise, I suddenly realized I did not feel any pain. I was amazed, and I began looking for the pain by bending and twisting my shoulder, but no pain. It disappeared instantly. Praise God.

(Marcelo, Dalas, TX, USA)

I am Lilian Etome from Maryland. About 3 years ago, I fell from my stairs and had a shoulder dislocation. The pain was so severe that I went for several medical appointments. Despite all the medications I took, nothing seemed to work. I decided to trust God for healing. When I was coming to the 2023 Empowerment Conference, I told God to heal me. At the conference, Dr. Jerry Howell prayed for me, and instantly the pain left. It is now been over 2 years and I have no pain at all. Sometimes I even forget which shoulder had the pain. Praise God.

DELIVERED FROM A CULTURE OF DIVINATION

My earliest memories from childhood date back to the time I lived with my paternal grandparents, from the age of 3 until I was 6. My paternal grandparents (Grandpa J and Grandma M) would go on to live for 20+ years after that before they passed away. I got to know them very well; my maternal grandparents (Grandpa A and Grandma A) had died by the time I was born, so I only heard stories about them.

Grandpa J was a devout Roman Catholic, so my first memories of going to Church were with him. My late father was his first son, and I am his first grandchild; my father had four other brothers and five sisters. My father and Grandpa J were very close; consequently, Grandpa J showed me a lot of affection. He taught me all he could about the Roman Catholic faith.

Grandma M, on the other hand, was a diviner, a warlock. How did they meet, deliver 10 children, and stay together till death, you wonder? Grandpa J's parents chose Grandma M, as was the norm in their time. When it became indisputably clear to Grandpa J that their marriage was a disaster, he refused to file for a divorce on the grounds that the Roman Catholic Church did not permit divorce. When I lived with them, Grandma M never cared about my well-being; it wasn't just me, though, her own children – my father and his siblings saw no love from their mother.

A pivotal moment in our lives was when Grandpa J was sick unto death, when I was about 8 years old. The medical doctors encouraged my father to seek the help of a diviner. Not too long after that, my mother also became sick unto death. Given Grandpa J's devout Roman Catholic beliefs, he was reluctant to consult with diviners; instead, they consulted with a "Pastor" who claimed to possess mystical powers.

This "Pastor" had a church with Bibles, hymnals, and prayer beads alongside pentagrams, hexagrams, and magic water, oil, candles, and perfumes. This person was a sorcerer masquerading as a "Pastor". By the time I was 11, I was at a boarding school with a Bible club. Through that Bible club, I learnt that Jesus would set me free from the powers of diviners and sorcerers; by the time I was 14, I chose to walk with Jesus. At about this time, my parents and Grandpa J stopped consulting with this fake "Pastor" sorcerer.

I completed high school incident-free. I enrolled at the University and was full of excitement. Not long after, I started having disturbing and life-threatening nightmares. In one nightmare, I was bound to a meat roasting rack, and a massive fire was being prepared; I saw a familiar face among those preparing the fire, a close male relative of my father. I began to pray, and two large hands burst into the scene and took me away.

In another nightmare, a close female relative of my father came into my room on campus; I was happy to see her and went to hug her. Instead of a hug, she swiped her hands across my body, and I had cuts. I saw that she was holding a blade and was cutting me with every swipe of her hands. I began to pray, and this time around I found the strength to fight back and repel her attacks. In another nightmare, my father had passed away, and I was leading a procession to bury him. These nightmares affected my mental health.

I shared my troubles with an elderly student; this person was in their thirties and had returned to school after several years working in the real world. He said to me, and I quote, "Emmanuel, you are having home troubles, and until you deal with them decisively, you will not move forward." This was a bombshell for me. I dropped out of school and went home.

A lot was going on at the time: my parents were going through a tough separation; a family member employed by my father was bringing fetish objects to work; Grandma M, whom we were not friends with, now made it a habit to turn up at our home with bogus reasons for visiting. My father was perplexed and deeply unhappy about this development, but seemingly did not know what to do about it.

Home was hell; my mental health was in tatters. One evening, the family dispute was so heated that my life was physically threatened. I began to cry to God earnestly!

Then one afternoon, I had a vision in which I learnt what I had to do. A second vision followed not long after, and then a third. Everything changed for me after the visions. One of the steps I took was to confront the warlock in the family, Grandma M, outside her daughter's home (one of my aunts), and rebuked her publicly for her nefarious practices. Another was to pray Biblical prayers – praying with Bible passages that spoke to my deliverance in Christ.

I was completely healed and returned to school, and I thrived. From the time I dropped out of University to deal with my home troubles, to when I returned, was 4 years. In that time, I learnt to wrestle wicked spirits, and saw that the words of Jesus in Matthew 28:18 (KJV) are true to the letter – "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth."

May this testimony bless you and inspire you to seek Jesus, Amen

REVELATION 12:11

IN SEASONS OF WAITING

But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.
(Isaiah 40:31 NKJV)

Have you ever found yourself in a season or a period of time when you have to wait for something to come or something to happen? What do you do then? Waiting is often viewed as a passive state, a period of inactivity where we await something to happen. In God's economy, waiting is far from passive. It's a time of preparation, growth, and deepening of faith. It's a time when God is working behind the scenes in ways that only He can.

So what do we do in the season of waiting?

When we find ourselves in a season of waiting, it's crucial to remember that this is not a time to be wasted; it's a time to grow in our faith and personal lives. It's a time to delve deeper into God's Word, strengthen our prayer lives, and serve others with love and humility. It's a time to develop the fruits of the Spirit - love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control:

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.

Galatians 5:22

As we wait on God, we are allowed to grow in ways we couldn't otherwise. We learn to trust God more deeply as we see Him provide for our needs. We learn to be patient as we wait for His perfect timing. We learn to be content in whatever circumstances we find ourselves in.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths.

Proverbs 3:5

WHAT NOT TO DO IN THE SEASON OF WAITING

1. Do not waste your time idling about, because the Bible says 'an idle mind/hand is the devil's workshop.'

Proverbs 16:27 (TLB)

Idle hands are the devil's workshop; idle lips are his mouthpiece.

2. Do not complain or murmur about the situation or circumstances, but rather pray, praise, and give God the glory that no matter the situation, you are still alive to see God turn things in your favour.

1 Corinthians 10:9

We should not test Christ, as some of them did—and were killed by snakes. And do not grumble, as some of them did, and were killed by the destroying angel.

3. Do not trust in human beings. We know that God uses people to answer prayers. But never put your hope in one particular person, thinking they are the ones God will use to answer you. The Bible says this:

Psalms 146:3

Do not put your trust in princes, in human beings, who cannot save.

Psalms 118:8

It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man.

LET'S PRAY

Heavenly we thank You for the grace impacted in us, which enables us to wait in the season of waiting. Holy Spirit bring us back when ever we are about to drift away, be it in thought or actions, so that we will not miss when the answer of our waiting comes, in Jesus' name. Amen.

In conclusion, let's not waste our waiting. Let's use this time to grow in our faith and in our personal lives. Let's remember that God is working in ways that only He can during this time. And let's trust that when the time is right, God will bring to fruition what He has been preparing for us during the wait. Amen.

THE CALL TO PRAY FOR ALL MEN

Therefore, I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence, for this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior.
(1 Timothy 2:1–3 NIV)

The Word of God calls on us to pray FOR ALL MEN without discrimination. It explicitly outlines the types of prayers to pray (supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving). Specifically, it mentions a category of people to pray for: kings and all those who are in authority. It is therefore our duty and responsibility to pray even as commanded. We must not select who to pray for. The Bible says, “FOR ALL MEN.” That is why Jesus of Nazareth, while teaching on prayer, said, “But I tell you, love your enemies. Pray for those who treat you badly. If you do this, you will be children who are truly like your Father in heaven. He lets the sun rise for all people, whether they are good or bad. He sends rain to those who do right and to those who do wrong” (Matthew 5:44-45).

This is what we do at ECDOD every day, especially during the ECDOD PRAYER WEEK. Please, join us as we pray for ALL men in this forum. As you do, God will bless you for your obedience to His Word. Hallelujah!

I Go Fishing 2

Pastor Crystabelle Ferim

Foundation Scripture: John 21:1-6

The biggest issue with going back fishing is that the motivations for it are not aligned with the purposes of God for an individual's life. Fishing in this sense is;

- Running from present responsibilities.
- Avoiding the pain of dealing with a situation at hand.
- Going back to our comfort zones.
- Making it known to others that we have a plan B, and we are not helpless.

Peter was having to deal with the death of Jesus and the safety net he had with him for the last 3 years. That was going to need a lot of thought and explaining to people. What would he tell friends and family who saw Jesus beaten and carried to be buried? Where was the promise of eternal life and bliss? Those were things he did not want to deal with, so he went fishing, because the fish could not question him, and if he came with a great catch, those who thought he was useless would consider him somewhat wise because he did not completely give up himself and his talent. Thoughtful considerations, but not true.

We, too, are considered to have gone fishing when we decide that the promises God gave us are not really worth waiting for. We take our destinies in our hands when things don't go the way we thought they would, and we decide on what to do next without asking the Lord. For example, when we are not married by a certain age or struggle financially, emotionally, and otherwise, we often rush into relationships as a means of compensation. We forget that even the ability to fish is given by the Lord, and when He is not in the mix, even the fish cannot obey your voice. Regardless of what we do in the body of Christ, we must ensure that Jesus approves it.

Consider this with me, when Peter and the other disciples decided to go fishing, scripture says, they caught nothing all night until the Master gave a word.

Believe; do not overthink things, and trust in God even when it seems there is nothing to trust for anymore. Hold on to God even when age is against you. Stand firm, when the devil whispers lies about your desperation and uselessness, do not give heed to his lies. Jesus is still in control. His promises do not fail. He is also not slack concerning them. He will bring you to an expected end.

The Lord says to you,

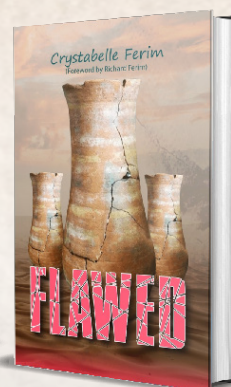

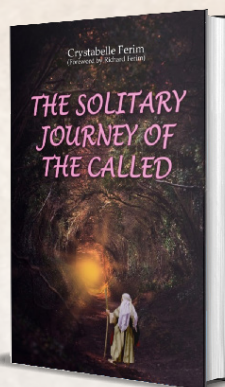

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, 'plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future.'

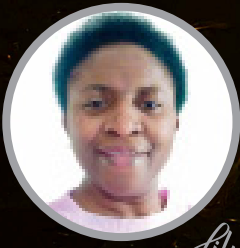

Jeremiah 29:11

If you are considering turning back, don't do it, you are at the cusps of your breakthrough. God is up to something, wait on Him. God will not lie to you!

Blessings!

THE FRUITS OF YOUR LIPS (Part 2)

Lily Boshey

*From the fruit of their mouth, a person's stomach is filled; with the harvest of their lips, they are satisfied. The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit.
(Proverbs 18:20-21 NIV – UK)*

AS we said in part one of this article, the words from our mouths are powerful. They have the power to either build or destroy us. So, as children of God, if we want to see the great things that God has spoken of us manifest in our lives daily, we must be careful to speak only those great things and nothing less. In one of the Psalms, the Lord told His people,

*"I am your only God, the living God. Wasn't I the one who broke the strongholds over you and raised you up out of bondage? Open your mouth with a mighty decree; I will fulfill it now, you'll see! The words that you speak, so shall it be!
(Psalms 81:10 TPT)*

You see that! OPEN YOUR MOUTH WITH A MIGHTY DECREE; I WILL FULFILL IT NOW, YOU'LL SEE! The WORDS THAT YOU SPEAK, SO SHALL IT BE! So our God will fulfill only that which we have decreed, and what else should we decree other than His Word? He told Isaiah that He watches over His Word to fulfill (Isaiah 55:11).

God's command to Ezekiel to prophesy and restore a dead Israel to life (Ezekiel 37:23) is for us all, dear saints, and it's for all time. Not because we are dry bones but because whatever power we need for growth, transformation, revival, conversions, He has packaged in His Word, and when we believe and speak it out upon our lives, we activate its power. Abraham was strong in faith, giving glory to God.

Just like the scene of the dry bones in Ezekiel 37, the story of creation starts on a not very bright note. God had already created the heavens and the earth, but the earth was formless, empty, and dark (Genesis 1:1-2). Then we are told that the Spirit hovered over the surface of the waters (Genesis 1:2). He knew there was work to be done, but He could not and still can't act by Himself even today. Jesus says of Him,

*But when He, the Spirit of Truth (the Truth-giving Spirit) comes, He will guide you into all the Truth (the whole, full Truth). For He will not speak His own message [on His own authority]; but He will tell whatever He hears [from the Father; He will give the message that has been given to Him], and He will announce and declare to you the things that are to come [that will happen in the future]. He will honor and glorify Me, because He will take of (receive, draw upon) what is Mine and will reveal (declare, disclose, transmit) it to you.
(John 16:13-14 AMPC).*

Take note, "HE WILL HONOR AND GLORIFY ME." So without Jesus, the Word, the Holy Spirit can't act or has nothing to act on. That's why all He could do at the beginning of creation was hover over the waters, waiting for a signal from God. So when God finally sent the Word, "Let there be light." (Genesis 1:3), we are told, "there was light." Why? Because the Holy Spirit activated the Word from God.

And as we said earlier, God continued Genesis 1, sending the Word and the Holy Spirit, activating it. By the end of the chapter, we are told that God "looked over all he had made and he saw that it was very good (Genesis 1:31). When did He make what He was now seeing? When He spoke.

The Holy Spirit, who was with God at creation, is now with and in the believer. Just as God created the world, the believer can also create their own world with Him. Abraham did. The Bible says he was strong in faith after he called the things that be not as though they were. How did he demonstrate it? Giving glory to God and being fully persuaded that faithful is He who had promised, who was able also to perform (Romans 4:18-22). Are you strong in faith? Then let's give God some glory, too.

SAY THIS WITH ME

Lord, I give You glory for my salvation. For the new person that You have made me to be in Christ Jesus (2 Cor. 5:17-20). I give You glory for setting me completely free from the tyrannical rule of the enemy into Your kingdom of light (Col. 1:13). I give You glory for Your Spirit who now lives in me enabling me to do Your work (Eph. 1:13-14). I give You glory for every spiritual blessing I have in Christ Jesus (Ephesians 1:3-8). I give You glory for my ministry. For making me an ambassador of Your Kingdom (2 Cor. 5:20). I give You glory for giving me words of wisdom daily so I can comfort the weary and set the captives free (Isa. 50:4, Lk. 4:18). I give You glory for giving my life value by making me Your workmanship by whom You continue to do Your good works (Eph. 2:10, Acts 10:38, 1 Pt. 2:21). I give You glory for good health that is freely, daily and permanently mine in Christ Jesus (1 Pt. 2:24-25). I give You glory for my relationships (Psa. 68:6). I give You glory for my spouse, children and biological family (Psa. 128). I give You glory for my brothers and sisters in Christ (Heb. 2:11, Eph. 2:19). I give You glory for connections, opportunities, provisions (Phil. 4:19, Psa. 23). I give You glory for beginning a good work in me and for the assurance that You will finish it (Phil. 1:6). I give You glory for blessing me and making me a blessing to the nations (2 Cor. 5:17-20). I give You glory for You are always with me to fight my battles for me (Deut. 20:1-4, Psa. 41:11-12).

REBEKAH AND THE CHALLENGE OF MOTHERHOOD

Shekinah Stephens

REBEKAH'S story begins beautifully in Genesis 24 when Abraham sent his servant, Eliezer of Damascus, to get a wife for his son, Isaac. Eliezer prayed to God to guide him to the lady He had chosen for Isaac, and Rebekah came along and fitted so well into the puzzle. She agrees to go with him, confirming that it was the will of God for her life.

Being in the will of God, one would expect everything to be rosy for Rebekah. This beautiful woman, who married as a virgin, soon found out that she was unable to bring forth children for Isaac. She waited for 20 years before she had her two sons, Esau and Jacob. Her story highlights some of the challenges of motherhood.

She was in God's will as far as marriage was concerned, yet she was unable to have children on time. Most of the time, we believe that when we are in the will of God, there will be no difficulty in the process, nor encounter any delay or resistance along the way. Rebekah had all the signs that she was in God's will, but then she experienced a delay in childbirth.

She finally became pregnant, but the pregnancy proved to be a challenging one. The children in her womb struggled with each other. She inquired of the Lord. She said, "If all is well, why am I like this?" The Lord told her she was carrying two sons who would become a great nation; she was carrying the destiny of two nations.

She got to know about the destiny of her children before they were born. As mothers, seeking God on behalf of our children is crucial. She was not in the dark as far as the destiny of her sons was concerned. She knew she was carrying sons who were not just two babies but would become nations.

However, this information later caused division in her home. She openly discriminated between the two sons. She preferred her younger son, probably because of the word she got from the Lord while she was pregnant. "The Older will serve the younger." She seemed to have had nothing to do with Esau but showered all the love and affection on Jacob. She did all she could to bring God's will to pass in the lives of the children. Trying to enforce the will of God only brought about pain, separation, and enmity amongst the children.

In trying to enforce God's will, she helped Jacob steal the blessings of the firstborn. Even though Jacob received the blessings meant for Esau, his character did not let him enter into that blessing until he wrestled with God. We see that a human decision backed by character disorder only produced a supplanter.

LESSONS LEARNED

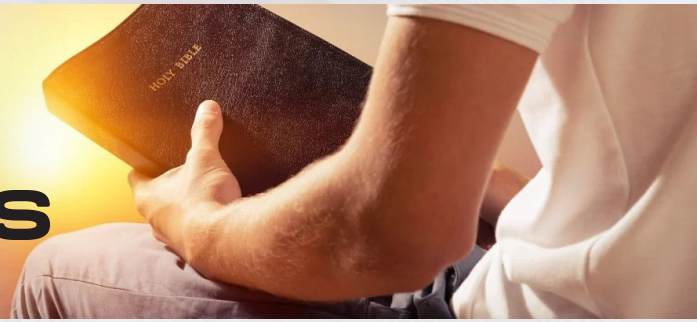

- It is possible to encounter challenges while doing God's will.
- God answers prayers when we take the time to seek Him concerning our children. He will reveal mysteries about their destinies.
- Mothers should not show favouritism amongst their children. This will only bring division into the family and cause hatred among the children.
- Despite all the affection and love Rebekah showed towards Jacob, she did not live to eat the fruit of her labour in the life of Jacob. By the time Jacob came back from Laban's house, she was not alive to see the son she loved.
- From Jacob's life, we can learn that what we sow, we must eventually reap. Even though Jacob had a great destiny, he had not sown good seeds in life and relationships. Laban became a perfect match for him, even though he was running away from Esau. His character delayed the manifestation of the expected promises of God.

- Even though Esau was not opportune to have the blessings as the firstborn, he eventually became great. When he went out to meet Jacob, he had four hundred men with him.
- They eventually reconciled as brothers, buried their father together, but a lot of negative seeds had been sown, and they ended up apart from each other. When the Israelites were on their way to the Promised Land, the Lord warned them not to disturb the descendants of Esau. In fact, they were to buy even the bread and water from their land because the Lord had settled them. (Deut. 2:2-6).
- Rebekah's approach to raising children created division among the children. It is said that the mother is the uniting factor in the house. As mothers, we must be open to receive our children irrespective of the destiny ordained by God and allow God Himself to unfold their destiny.

TEACHINGS ON THE BIBLICAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF A MAN

In the Christian tradition, men are assigned specific tasks as prescribed by the Bible. These responsibilities fall into four categories: love, protection, provision, and spiritual leadership.

SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

According to Ephesians 5:23, a man's job as the head of the household is to guide his family spiritually and serve as an example of faith. Men are urged in Joshua 24:15 to serve the Lord sincerely and faithfully, leading by example in their homes. In 1 Timothy 3:4-5, it is stated that a man must manage his own household well and keep his children under control with all dignity, for if a man does not know how to manage his own household, how can he take care of God's church?

Spiritual leadership in the home involves leading by example, praying together, studying scripture, attending church as a family, and providing spiritual guidance and support to your loved ones. It also means taking responsibility for the overall well-being and growth of your family's faith. As a spiritual leader, it is vital to prioritize prayer and seek God's guidance in making decisions for your family. You should also cultivate a heart of humility, patience, and compassion to lead your family with love and grace. Ultimately, spiritual leadership in the home is about setting the tone and direction for your family's relationship with God, and striving to create a home environment that is centered on faith, love, and truth. By fulfilling your role as a spiritual leader, you can help guide your family toward a deeper relationship with God and a fulfilling life of faith.

PROVISION

The Bible clarifies that a man is responsible for meeting his family's material needs in 1 Timothy 5:8. It is considered a rejection of faith to neglect this duty. In 2 Thessalonians 3:10, the significance of a strong work ethic is emphasized, with the suggestion that people who do not work ought not to eat. Provision is not only about meeting physical needs, but also about providing emotional support, guidance, and love. In Ephesians 5:25, husbands are called to love their wives as Christ loved the church, sacrificing himself for her. This type of provision extends beyond mere material needs and encompasses the holistic well-being of the family. In the book of Proverbs, numerous verses highlight the importance of diligence, planning, and wise stewardship in providing for one's family. Proverbs 13:22 states, "A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the sinner's wealth is laid up for the righteous." Ultimately, provision is not just about giving material things, but also about giving time, attention, and guidance to those under our care. It is a reflection of God's love for us, as He provides for all our needs according to His riches in glory (Philippians 4:19). As we seek to provide for our families, let us do so with a heart of humility, gratitude, and faith in God's provision for us.

PROTECTION

In Nehemiah 4:14, men are called to stay firm in the face of hardship and to safeguard their families and communities from harm. Psalm 82:3-4 exhorts men to stand up for the defenseless and save them from the wicked.

LOVE

Ephesians 5:25-28 teaches husbands to love their spouses with the same selflessness Christ showed for the church, providing for and cherishing them. Men should love their spouses and not harbor resentment toward them, according to Colossians 3:19. 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 describes love as patient, kind, not envious or boastful, not proud or rude, not self-seeking or easily angered, keeping no record of wrongs, rejoicing in truth, always protecting, trusting, hoping, and persevering. Ephesians 4:2-3 encourages us to bear with one another in love, striving to maintain unity through peace and humility. The Bible teaches us that love is a foundational principle that should guide our interactions with others, especially those closest to us. It is a selfless and sacrificial love that mirrors the love Christ has for us, and it is essential for building healthy and strong relationships.

These lessons emphasize that, according to biblical values, men are expected to be pillars in their homes and communities, exhibiting courage, compassion, and strength.

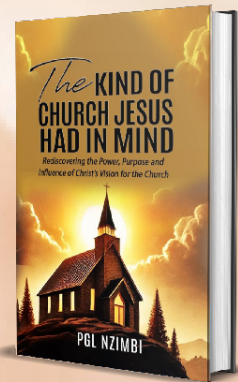

You Were Wired To Live By Faith (2)

THE CREATOR vs THE CREATURE — A DIFFERENCE IN BEING

By PGL Nzimbi

Book by Author

ONE of the most important truths you can ever grasp is this: God is not like us, and we are not like God. That may sound obvious. However, in practice, humanity has blurred this line since the Garden of Eden. "God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent." (Numbers 23:19 NKJV)

God alone is self-generative. He acts from within Himself. No one counsels Him, empowers Him, or initiates for Him. He is autonomous, all-sufficient, self-determined, and fully free.

Only God can act out of His own being and fully generate action that is both sourced and sustained by Himself. That is what makes Him God. And from that divine freedom comes grace—God in action consistent with His character.

But humanity is not like this. We are not self-generative. We are not autonomous. We are not self-sufficient. We are derivative. We were never designed to live from within ourselves. Instead, we were created to live in co-relational dependence—drawing everything from God. This distinction is not a limitation—it is liberation. It frees us from the burden of trying to be what only God can be.

- We are vessels; He is the content.
- We are branches; He is the vine.
- We are temples; He is the indwelling presence.
- We are brides; He is the covenant husband.

"We have this treasure in earthen vessels..."
(2 Corinthians 4:7)

"Apart from Me, you can do nothing."
(John 15:5)

"A man can receive nothing unless it has been given to him from heaven."
(John 3:27)

"What do you have that you did not receive?"
(1 Corinthians 4:7)

All these images point to one thing: our nature is designed for receptivity, not self-initiation. This is why I say: You were wired to live by faith; not faith as performance; not faith as mental agreement, but faith as the spiritual posture of dependence and reception. We are not self-generative man; not even contributive man. We are responsive man. Derivative man. Faith man.

And when we forget this, we begin to operate outside of design. We become exhausted, anxious, and insecure—not because God is not working, but because we are trying to do His job. And that always ends in frustration.

Faith does not begin with movement. It begins with stillness. It begins with recognising: He is God. I am not. And that is the most freeing truth of all.

REFLECT & RESPOND

The health of your spiritual life depends on never confusing who God is and who you are. You were not created to be your own source. You were created to receive everything you need from the One who is.

Use these questions and truths to renew your understanding—and rest in your design.

REFLECTIVE QUESTIONS

1. Have I been unconsciously trying to be my own source of peace, identity, or success?
2. Do I truly understand the difference between being a self-generative being and a derivative one?
3. Which biblical image (vessel, branch, temple, bride) speaks most to me right now—and what is God showing me through it?

4. How would my life look different if I lived each day from a posture of faith-filled receptivity?

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- God alone is autonomous, self-generative, and free. He needs no outside source.
- You are a created being—designed to live by receiving, not by generating.
- Every biblical metaphor describing humanity confirms that we are vessels, not sources.
- Faith is not a tool to help you perform. Faith is your response-ability to receive from God.
- The difference between Creator and creature must always be honoured. It's the boundary that brings both freedom and worship.

FAITH FOR FINANCES IN MINISTRY

Evangelist Gilbert Samba

FAITH is a subject that no believer can avoid. It is the only way we can please God (Hebrews 11:6). I firmly believe God embedded the element of faith in our walk with Him so much so that you cannot separate faith and righteousness (Romans 4:3).

Doing ministry effectively means doing it God's way. We are good at believing God to supply the miracles, healings, messages, etc., in His own way. But hardly do we ever trust Him to provide the finances for a meeting in His own way. This is either because we have an ever-ready team of financial partners standing by and willing to pump in money, or because our eyes are fixed on our own finances saved up for the event. The moment we take our eyes off of God for provision, then that vision is likely not moving according to Divine plan. The vision must be bigger than you for God to step in. If you got it under control, then God is not in control.

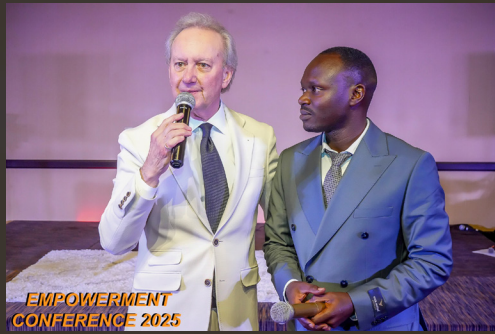

In the last three editions of the Empowerment Conference, I began by trying to ensure I had control over my finances. Well, it has never worked. The planned budget for our first conference in 2021 was $ 4,500, but we ended up with a bill of $7,000, meaning Faith had to cover the extra $2,500, and it was paid. In 2023, the planned budget was $ 29,000, which was already an act of faith. We also ended up with a $32,000 bill, but God miraculously covered it again. Then, this year, 2025, the planned budget was $33,000, but we still ended up with a bill of $37,000.

In all these conferences, we did not have the money anywhere. We planned for everything and simply trusted God for provision. Faith requires action, and I think that's where many people are missing it. You prove that you have faith by the way you act (James 2:18). You can't claim to have faith for Finances in Ministry, and everything you're planning for is within your reach. You don't need to see it in the physical before you act on it. The moment you hear it in your spirit and see it with your eyes of faith, you run with it.

In Genesis 12:1, God instructs Abram to leave his home and go to a strange and unknown land. The proof that Abram believed God was shown in Genesis 12:4, when he actually took action by packing his belongings and going to an unknown place. And because he acted by faith, God showed up for him. The reason God has not showed up for you in the area of Finances in Ministry is because even though you believe in your heart that God can supply the money, you have not taken any steps in that direction of faith.

I challenge you today to quit fear and embrace faith. The difference between the next face of that ministry and where it is currently is one ACT of faith. By choosing not to act in faith, you're hurting both yourself and God because the scripture says, "without faith, it is IMPOSSIBLE to please God" (Hebrews 11:6). So choose faith over fear because faith never fails.

FROM PULPIT TO MARKETPLACE: MY JOURNEY AS A CHRISTIANPRENEUR

Dr. Alfred Esingie – Raising Christianpreneurs for Nation Building

*Commit to the Lord whatever you do, and He will establish your plans.
(Proverbs 16:3)*

WHEN I look back at my journey, I see the undeniable hand of God leading me through different seasons of life. My path has not been a straight line, but rather a divine weaving of faith, service, and enterprise. From my early days as a petty trader, through years of pastoral ministry, and now as a cooperative leader and nation builder, one truth has remained constant: God equips us not only to preach the Gospel, but also to transform lives through the work of our hands.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

Like many, I began with little. As a petty trader, I learned the discipline of starting small, the humility of serving customers, and the resilience required to survive in business. Those early days were more than just survival—they were God's training ground, shaping my character for greater responsibilities ahead. I discovered that entrepreneurship, much like ministry, demands patience, faith, and consistency.

BALANCING MINISTRY AND ENTERPRISE

God's call led me fully into pastoral ministry. Yet, even while serving at the pulpit, I found myself drawn to the marketplace. I realized that the same anointing that equips us to preach could also empower us to create businesses, provide employment, and bring dignity to communities.

It was not always easy. There were moments of failure, times of financial struggle, and seasons where I questioned if I was truly in the will of God. However, each setback became a stepping stone, and each lesson deepened my conviction that entrepreneurship is also a form of ministry.

LEADING WITH PURPOSE: SPRING OF LIFE COOPERATIVE

Today, I serve as the Chairman of Spring of Life Cooperative COOP-BOD, an organization specialized in the cassava value chain—from production, to transformation, to the marketing of its final products. Through this cooperative, we have not only cultivated crops, but also cultivated hope. Farmers are empowered, families are sustained, and young people find meaningful work.

This is more than business. It is about nation-building, about using God-given resources to uplift our communities and create sustainable impact. Every bag of cassava flour, every processed product, and every empowered farmer is a testimony of what God can do when business is dedicated to His glory.

Faith and Nation Building

In addition to entrepreneurship, I also serve as the Secretary General of the Cameroon Pentecostal Movement, a Christian association dedicated to professional empowerment and the spiritual transformation of our nation. My dual role in ministry and enterprise constantly reminds me that the Kingdom of God extends beyond the four walls of the church.

We are called to raise leaders, create opportunities, and inspire a generation of Christianpreneurs who will not only succeed in business but also uphold righteousness in the marketplace.

Looking Ahead

The journey is far from over. With God's help, I look forward to venturing into other businesses—both nationally and internationally: expanding the reach and impact of Christian-driven enterprise. My prayer is that every initiative will continue to serve as a platform for Kingdom advancement, community transformation, and professional empowerment.

A Word to Christianpreneurs

To every reader with a dream in their heart: do not despise small beginnings. What starts as petty trading, a single idea, or a humble effort can, by the grace of God, grow into a venture that feeds nations.

Christianpreneurship is not just about profit—it is about purpose. It is about committing your skills, your talents, and your enterprise into God's hands and allowing Him to use you as a vessel for impact.

"But remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms His covenant."

Deuteronomy 8:18

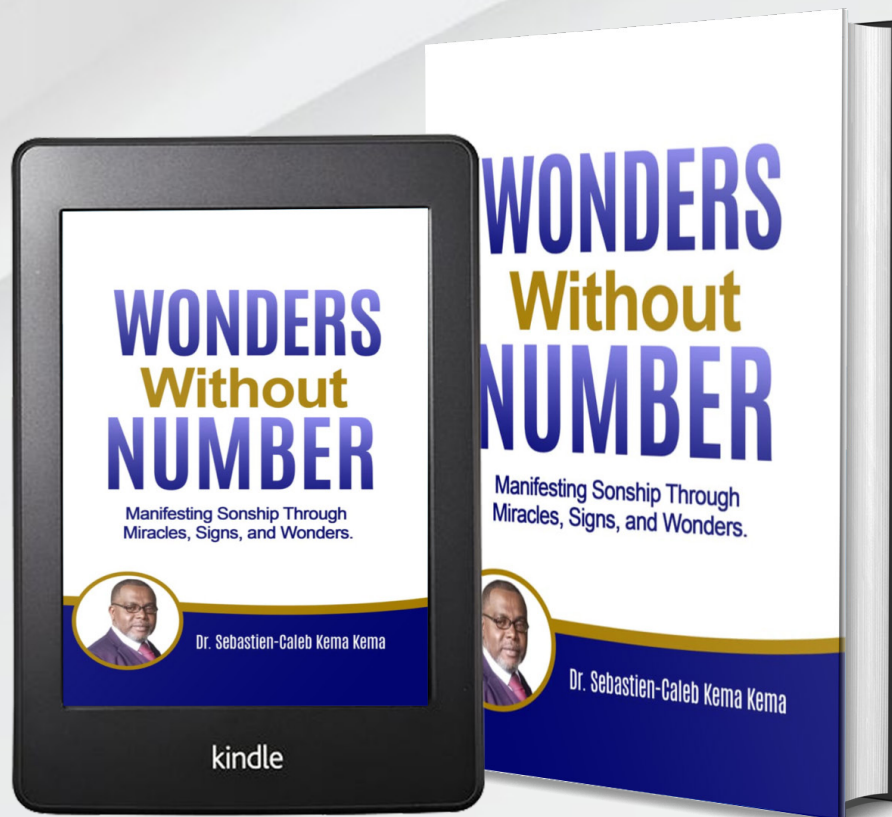

As we align our faith with enterprise, we do more than build businesses—we build legacies for generations to come.

About the Author

Dr. Alfred Esingie is the Chairman of Spring of Life Cooperative COOP-BOD, specializing in the cassava value chain, and the Secretary General of the Cameroon Pentecostal Movement. He is a pastor, an entrepreneur, and a nation builder. He is passionate about Christianpreneurship, professional empowerment, and utilizing enterprise as a tool for Kingdom advancement and community transformation.

"The pulpit and the marketplace are not separate callings—they are both platforms for Kingdom impact."

Every child of God is redeemed as a sign and a wonder (Isaiah 8:18). God is the author of signs and wonders, but the child of God is the instrument God uses for these signs to manifest. Creation is waiting for the manifestations of the sons and daughters of God (Romans 8:19). Signs are supposed to follow the child of God (Mark 16:17-18).

The book you are holding outlines what it takes for the child of God to experience miracles, signs, and wonders in their lives, as stated in the scriptures. After reading this book and applying the teaching, signs, and wonders will naturally occur in your life and ministry. Be blessed as you read, and be a blessing as you manifest sonship through miracles, signs, and wonders.

CALLED TO COMPLETE, NOT COMPETE

Pst. Dr. Kema Kema

¹² Just as a body is one whole made up of many different parts, and all the different parts comprise the one body, so it is with the Anointed One. ¹³ We were all ceremonially washed through baptism together into one body by one Spirit. No matter our heritage—Jew or Greek, insider or outsider—no matter our status—oppressed or free—we were all given the one Spirit to drink. ¹⁴ Here's what I mean: the body is not made of one large part but of many different parts... ¹⁷ Imagine the entire body as an eye. How would a giant eye be able to hear? And if the entire body were an ear, how would an ear be able to smell? ¹⁸ This is where God comes in. God has meticulously put this body together; He placed each part in the exact place to perform the exact function He wanted. ¹⁹ If all members were a single part, where would the body be? ²⁰ So now, many members function within the one body. 1 Corinthians 12:12-27 The Voice

Members in a body are there to COMPLETE one another, not to COMPETE with each other. The hand does not compete with the feet, nor does the eye compete with the nerves. No, they are complementary to or complete one another. A body where the members compete with each other rather than complete each other can never manifest fully to fulfil its purpose.

Looking at the Church today, we can say that it does not have the influence it is supposed to have within society. The reason is that there is a lot of COMPETITION within the body of Christ (BOC). There is a lot of confusion within the body because there is a lack of coordination as a result of the competition among the members of the body.

When the eye decides to do what the hand is called to do, there will be ineffectiveness because the eyes are not wired to do what the hand is meant to do. Additionally, there would be fighting among these members, resulting in no progress and no lasting impact.

Dear minister of God, what are you doing in the prophetic ministry when you know well that is not where you are called to serve the BOC? What are you doing, trying to be in the teaching ministry when God has called you as an evangelist to go around the world, preaching the gospel?

Each of us must stay in our lanes, running the race God has called us to. We should not break ranks (Joel 2:7). Only then will the body of Christ function effectively and make the impact it is supposed to.

God gave gifts to the Church as outlined in Ephesians 4, to perfect the saints for effective ministry. Each gift has a responsibility, but in itself, CANNOT fully mature the body. That is why they must all work together synergically to bring God's purpose to fruition.

As part of the BOC, you are supposed to be an author of completion, not one of confusion. Stay on your lane; run the race to which you have been called. Understand your calling and do what God has called you to do, working with other members of the BOC for the common good of the body.

When a member of the BOC succeeds, we should be happy, knowing that it is for the common good of the entire body. There should be no place for jealousy or competition.

The scriptures say, "If each part of the body were the same part, there would be no body. But as it is, God put the parts in the body as he wanted them. He made a place for each one. So there are many parts, but only one body...All of you together are the body of Christ. Each one of you is a part of that body (1 Cor. 12:18-20, 27).

14 PIECES OF ADVICE FOR A Christian Marriage(2)

8. PRAY FOR EACH OTHER

Praying has been my go-to when I'm frustrated with my husband. It calms my mind and focuses me on my own tone and may even give me some perspective on his own situation and reactions.

9. SUPPORT EACH OTHER

I am constantly getting excited about new ideas or ventures and my husband has never told me I was foolish for attempting something new. I may not make a penny back on a new idea, but he supports me and my passions even if he is the breadwinner. So when he started restoring vintage motorcycles, my fears crept in, not about money, but about safety. But after all these years of letting me pursue my dreams, who was I to discourage him?

I voiced my concerns but said I wouldn't tell him no. He was understanding and respectful but explained he needed something new in his life—I had just been through hell and back with my disease and he didn't want to live in fear. He wanted to go for the things we always wanted to try. This argument was mine as well when I asked for us to start spending more money on family vacations. In having a conversation rather than a fight, we were able to both feel heard and respected and able to go after our goals.

10. SERVE EACH OTHER

This can be as simple as making dinner each night so that your spouse can take a nap after work. It can be bringing him coffee while he's getting ready in the morning or filling up his car with gas after you use it. It can be scheduling date nights and babysitters and sending a text: We're going out, Thursday night work? Open the door for her, give him the better seat, and do little things to put their needs before your own to show that you still love them.

11. PRIORITIZE YOUR LOVE LIFE

One thing that helped me understand best how my husband and I are wired differently was to figure out our love languages. I discovered that I need Words of Affirmation, while he feels most loved through Acts of Service. I didn't understand the big deal about the sink being cleaned out or my clothes folded up, while he didn't understand my need to be encouraged. It's not a prideful thing, it's about feeling loved and appreciated.

He wants the same, but he doesn't hear it as easily through my words, he hears it through helping pay the bills and setting up vacation plans. As you grow, you may change in what areas you need to focus on the most, and chances are there are at least two areas that speak to you. Take the quiz or read it out loud to your husband if you need to. Learn about each other!

12. GET YOUR OWN HOBBIES

During the first year or two of our marriage, I felt like I was constantly waiting for my husband to finish up with his hobbies so we could hang out. This was a bad plan. He plays a million instruments, loves being outdoors, and in general, never sits still.

As soon as I started picking back up old hobbies from high school like painting and sewing, he started interrupting me to see if I wanted to hang out more.

13. GIVE EACH OTHER FREEDOM

One thing we've learned is to say yes as much as possible when we need our space. This can be because there's something we're excited about doing on our own (like shopping without the kids) or everyone's driving us crazy. My favorite thing to do is writing at a coffee shop or browsing a bookstore. For my husband, it's a day to go hunting or getting outside. Find your niche, and respect each other's need for a breather every once in a while. Try not to set time limits on the other person.

14. LISTEN TO EACH OTHER

While there may be a lot you need to get off your chest, your spouse also wants to know that they are being heard as well. No one wants to feel like the person is waiting to interject their point. Sometimes venting is just venting, needing an outlet to be listened to, not wanting a counselor for a solution. So make sure you're available to listen. Don't forget to apologize if you start taking over the conversation with your opinion (Sorry, babe!)

It isn't through our strength that we are going strong all these years later—it's our shared focus on Jesus to guide us and strengthen us one day at a time, without whom I could have never changed for the better.

Touch Not My Anointed

Psalm 105:13-15 International Children's Bible (ICB)

¹³ They went from one nation to another. They went from one kingdom to another. ¹⁴ But the Lord did not let anyone hurt them. He warned kings not to harm them. ¹⁵ He said, "Don't hurt my chosen people. Don't harm my prophets."

DO YOU KNOW YOU ARE AMONG GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE (THE ANOINTED ONES)? THAT IS WHAT THE BIBLE SAYS, AND YOU MUST BELIEVE IT. AS GOD'S ANOINTED, THE LORD HIMSELF ENSURES THAT NO ONE, EVEN KINGS, HARMS OR HURTS YOU AS YOU GO AROUND FULFILLING YOUR PURPOSE. GOD HAS RESTRAINED AND PREVENTED ANY EVIL OR EVIL ONE FROM HURTING YOU. THANK YOU, LORD!

- ❖ GOD'S ANOINTING IN YOUR LIFE MAKES YOU A TOUCH-NOT PERSONALITY
- ❖ NO MAN, INCLUDING KINGS HAVE THE RIGHT TO HURT YOU
- ❖ GOD'S ANOINTING PREVENTS ANY HARM FROM MANIFESTING IN YOUR LIFE
- ❖ THE ANOINTING UPON YOU IS AN ANTI-DOTE AGAINST EVIL IN YOUR LIFE

Are you a Christian?

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

Dear friend, I am coming today to ask you a crucial question about life. I ask you this question because many people mistakenly think life here on earth is our only life. No! The one who created us states clearly in His Book that there is life after death. There is eternal life. Where you spend eternity depends on what you do now to become a child of God.

I can hear someone saying that, but every man is a child of God. No, not every human being is a child of God. All human beings are creations of God. Not all are children of God. You are a child of God only when you are BORN OF GOD. In John chapter 3, Jesus had a fascinating conversation with a religious leader called Nicodemus. Let's read it:

There was a man named Nicodemus, one of the Pharisees. He was an important Jewish leader. One night he came to Jesus and said, "Teacher, we know that you are a teacher sent from God. No one can do these miraculous signs that you do unless they have God's help." Jesus answered, "I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God's kingdom." Nicodemus said, "How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother's womb and be born a second time?" Jesus answered, "Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God's Kingdom. The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. Don't be surprised that I told you, 'You must be born again.' The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don't know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit." Nicodemus asked, "How is all this possible?" Jesus said, "You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don't understand these things?" (John 3:1-10 ERV)

From the above conversation, Jesus tells Nicodemus that unless a man is BORN AGAIN, he cannot enter or see the Kingdom of God. Jesus explained that to be born again is to be born of water and the Spirit. From the scriptures, we know that water is a symbol of the Word of God (Ephesians 5:26). Jesus has also said, the words that I speak to you, they are Spirit, and they are life (John 6:63). Thus, to be born of water, and the Spirit is to be born by the Word of God. This is precisely what the apostle Peter wrote in his epistle when he said:

"For you have been born again, not of perishable seed, but of imperishable, through the living and enduring word of God." (1 Peter 1:23 NIV)

How can one be born again by the Word of God? The apostle Paul answered when he wrote to the Roman believers:

But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith which we preach): that if you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes on Him will not be put to shame." For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for the same Lord over all is rich to all who call upon Him. For "whoever calls on the name of the LORD shall be saved." (Romans 10:8-13 NKJV)

Two things need to be done for one to be saved, which is another word to be born again. First, you must confess Jesus as Lord, and second, you must believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead. But to believe that God raised Jesus from the dead, you must first believe He came to save humanity from sin... I have come that you may have life, and have it in abundance (John 10:10). You must also believe that sin has its pay: death: the wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). You must also believe that Jesus died on the cross to pay this wage of sin. As scripture says, our sins were all put on Him (Isa. 53:6), and He died in our place. You must also believe that He was buried, and on the third day, He rose from death (1 Cor. 15:4). When you believe all these and confess Jesus as Lord, you are born again.

Born Again is not the name of a church, as some think. You can hear some others say I am not a born-again Christian. Sorry, there is nothing like a 'born-again Christian.' All Christians are born again. Born again is the process by which you become a Christian. If you are not born again, you are not a Christian.

You are not a Christian because your parents were/are Christians. God has no grandchildren. God has only children. And you become one when you are born again by His Word. You are not a Christian because you are from a supposedly Christian nation. What makes you a Christian is that you have accepted Jesus in your life and recognize Him as your Lord and Savior.

It is foolish not to believe God's Word and follow some religious doctrines perpetrated by men. Please, in the name of the Lord, I beseech you to follow God's ways as outlined in His Word. Don't wait to be surprised when you meet God. Today is the day of salvation.

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN!

If you are unsure whether you are born again, it will be good for you to be born again now. As we have seen above, all you need to do is believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and confess Him as Lord of your life. That's the simplicity of the Gospel. You can be born again right now and become a child of God by praying this simple prayer sincerely from your heart:

Heavenly Father, I come to you as a sinner who cannot save himself. I believe You sent Jesus Christ, Your Son, to die on the cross in my place, paying the price for my sins by His blood. I believe that Jesus died and was buried, and on the third day, He rose from the dead. On the cross, Jesus took my sins and gave me His righteousness. I, therefore, confess Him as Lord and Saviour of my life. I am now a new creation. According to the scriptures, Old things are passed away. I am now born again, and all things have become new.

Thank You, Lord, for saving me.

Amen!

If you just prayed this simple prayer sincerely from your heart, you are now born again. You are now a child of God. As a newborn baby, you need to grow. You need the right environment to grow. The Church of God is this environment. Thus, get into a true Bible-believing Church near you and become a member of this Church family so that you can grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Read the Bible daily because God's Word is the food we need daily for the spiritual man. Also, make sure you have a personal prayer life because prayer is the breath of every child of God. Above all, do not forsake fellowship, live a consecrated life, and be set apart for God. God will, therefore, use you as a vessel of honor, blessing humankind and giving Him glory.

God Bless
You!
